DAILY MORNING OFFERING PRAYER

Jesus, though the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS:

We pray for those who risk their lives while fighting for fundamental rights under dictatorships, authoritarian regimes and even in democracies in crisis.

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

Founder of the Knights of Columbus God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Craig's Corner
A note from our Music Director

Today's fourth Sunday of the Easter season is always referred to as Good Shepherd Sunday since we hear the gospel of Jesus telling His disciples that he is the good shepherd who lays down his life for us, His people and His sheep. He states that He comes to lead those of and those not of His fold. Peter reminds the leaders in our first reading from Acts that they rejected Christ and that through the acts of the cross and resurrection, He saved them too, even though they rejected him. This is why we sing in the psalm that, "the stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone." Christ, whether we affirm it or not, is the cornerstone of our lives. He is the Good Shepherd who laid down His life for us. In our opening hymn "The King of Love," a paraphrase of Psalm 23, we too state that, while we foolishly have strayed from the path at times, in love, Christ our shepherd seeks us out. The text of our offertory solo / choir anthem this weekend, "With a Shepherd's Care," also contains this imagery as the text prays that God nurtures us like parents and when we are lost, that He is our guide.

In the verses leading up to the passage in John's Gospel we hear today, Jesus mentions that His sheep recognize His voice. How does this happen? Because since a shepherd would spend a long amount of time with his herd of sheep, they would recognize his voice more than someone else. The same with us and our relationship with our Good Shepherd: we must spend time with Christ in prayer to truly hear His voice speaking to us. In the communion hymn "Gift of Finest Wheat," the first verse speaks of Christ as the good shepherd, stating that "as when the shepherd calls his sheep, they know and heed his voice; so when you call your family, Lord, we follow and rejoice." This text blends our Good Shepherd Sunday with the celebration of the Eucharist. The celebration of daily and Sunday Masses and our prayer life are so important to our relationship with God. God, through His son Jesus, is present with us in sacrament but also in person: risen from the dead which we celebrate with greater jubilation during this Easter season. This is the same joy with which our Blessed Mother Mary had at the tomb after the resurrection of her son and the joy we sing in our closing hymn, "Be Joyful, Mary, Heavenly Queen." This is the joy we need to keep in our hearts every day as we go forth from our spiritual nourishment at the altar of God.

The importance of the Mass can ever be dulled down or lessened. It is how we stay nourished in our relationship with our shepherd and our guide. It is the greatest prayer, but needs to be combined with personal prayer as well. The readings, prayers, and hymns of the Mass should springboard us into the week ahead. Just as we do with all our friends and family, we stay in constant communication with them to keep our connection, so we must do with our good shepherd, so we can recognize his voice and he can guide us to our eternal pasture of heaven.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

"I am the good shepherd...and I lay down my life for the sheep...and they will heed my voice." John 10:14-16

When you pray, do you only ask Jesus for the things that you want? Do you ever ask Him what He wants from you? How do you listen for His response? Many times Jesus responds in "quiet whispers" that are not so obvious. So, take time every day, in silence, to actively listen for His voice.

Scourges of God; through thy Intercession, preserve our Bodies from contagious Diseases, and our souls from
The contagion of sin.
Obtain for us salubrious air;
But, above all, purity of heart.
Assist us to make good use of health, to bear sufferings with patience; and, after thy example, to live in the practice of penance and charity, charity, that we may one day enjoy the happiness which thou has merited by thy virtues.
St. Rocco, pray for us—3 times

PRAYER DURING CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

Amen.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

ITALIAN Festival

2021 Basilica Raffle

In place of the annual Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica Italian Festival, there will be a special raffle. All parish families are invited to participate to sell tickets to family, friends, co-workers, neighbors and previous festival supporters so we can reach our goal to sell 8,500 tickets. If we reach that goal, we should be able to generate a profit similar to the festival. We encourage you to consider what you might spend at the festival and purchase an equivalent amount of tickets over the sales period. The ticket sales period will be for six months culminating with the grand prize drawings on Columbus Day October 11, 2021.

1st Prize: $10,000

2nd Prize: $2,500

3rd Prize: $1,000

There will be a $1,000 early bird drawing on the Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, July 16, 2021. Any tickets sold or returned by that date will be eligible for the drawing. The early bird winner's ticket will also be placed back into the drawing for the grand prizes in October.

The seller of the early bird winning ticket in July and the 1st prize ticket in October, will each receive $150.

Please pray for the success of the raffle. We will be providing updates periodically in the bulletin of our success. Should you need additional tickets, please contact the parish office at 330-743-4144.

We hope to have the festival back in 2022! We need new, younger volunteers to join our committee if we are to succeed. If you are interested in joining the festival committee to ensure its future, please call festival chair, Scott Schulick, at 330-727-8507.
