Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Jesus revealed to his disciples the deepest meaning of his mission when he told them of his passion, death and resurrection, in fulfillment of the Father's will. He then called the disciples to share in this mission for the salvation of the world.

Let us remember the One who "humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross" During this season of conversion, let us renew our faith, draw from the "living water" of hope, and receive with open hearts the love of God, who makes us brothers and sisters in Christ. This Easter, we will renew our baptismal promises and experience rebirth as new men and women by this working of the Holy Spirit. This Lenten journey, like the entire pilgrimage of the Christian life, is now illumined by the light of the resurrection, which inspires the thoughts, attitudes and decisions of the followers of Christ. Pope Francis...

EASTER SUNDAY

TODAY'S FOCUS: THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Every life has moments of joy and light, which we sometimes don't completely understand. Resurrection like that—relish the joy and light when it comes into your life!

It takes a lifetime to learn to say, "I too will rise." And though we do not fully understand it, each day we get closer. Throw your whole self into celebrating Easter today and let God work miracles in you. Hear the deafening alleluias of heaven! Jesus is risen!

Acts 10: 34a, 37-43
Psalm 118: 24
Colossians 3: 1-4
1 Corinthians 5: 6b-8
John 20: 1-9

Jesus, you lay in the darkness of the tomb. Sometimes it feels as though we live in a drab basement with only a nightlight by which to see. The darkness of death threatens to engulf us. But this day, you have taken upon yourself all the wounds of earth. You have risen from the dead! Like the apostles, we don't really understand that. But today, you are alive! You give us hints of your glory, of the alleluias of heaven. The brilliance of your everlasting day surrounds us. Give us eyes to see! Give us voices to sing your praise!

MINISTERING TO THE HOMEBOUND

BENEDICTION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

May the Blessings of St. Anthony be with you as He unfailingly interceded to the Lord on your behalf.

Easter Sunday

"Do not be afraid! I know that you are seeking Jesus the crucified. He is not here, for He has been raised just as He said. Come and see the place where He lay. Then go quickly and tell His disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead.'"

— Matthew 28: 5-7

LET US PRAY:

What seemed impossible is now real. Jesus, who was dead just two days before, is now standing before His friends again. The resurrection of Christ defines all that we are as Christians—a people of hope, a people reconciled to the God who loves us with a love beyond our comprehension. As devotees of St. Jude, we know that the heart of renewal is hope. As we have learned from Christ this Holy Week, we pray that each day we will love one another with grace; we will forgive one another with humility; we will hold onto faith in the midst of loss, and we will be aware that the new life of Easter is ours every day. Christ's victory is our victory; His triumph over death is our new life!
