FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

TODAY'S FOCUS: HOW MUCH ARE YOU WORTH?

We live in a world that likes to put a price on everything. To Jesus, our Good Shepherd, the flock is beyond price, except perhaps the price of his own life.

The bond between sheep and shepherd can feel a little distant to those unfamiliar with herding. What if we altered the story to speak of one's small children or little nieces and nephews? How much money could someone pay you to save their lives? Would you run away when they were in danger? How much are they worth?

Acts 4: 8-12

Psalm 118: 22

1 John 3: 1-2

John 10: 11-18

Jesus, Good Shepherd, we think that we are worth something. We may even boast of our importance. But we have no idea of the inestimable value that you place on us. Our wildest imaginings of our own worth are only a drop of water compared to the ocean of what you see that we are worth. Can this be? Do we matter so much to you that you would die to defend us? All we can do, Lord, is fall to our knees in amazement. Thank you!

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Pope Francis wrote a letter a few years ago to all priests who daily devote their lives to the service of God's people in response to the Lord's call.

On that occasion, he chose four key words—pain, gratitude, encouragement and praise—as a way of thanking priests and supporting their ministry. I believe that today, on this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, those words can be addressed to the whole people of God, against the backdrop of the Gospel passage that recounts for us the remarkable experience of Jesus and Peter during a stormy night on the Sea of Galilee (cf Mt 14:22-33.)

After the multiplication of the loaves, which had astonished the crowds. Jesus told his disciples to get into the boat and proceed him to the other shore, while he took leave of the people. The image of the disciples crossing the lake can evoke our own life's journey. The boat of our lives slowly advances, restlessly looking for a safe haven and prepared to face the perils and promises of the sea, yet at the same time trusting that the helmsman will ultimately keep us on the right course. At times, the boat can drift off course, misled by marriages, not the lighthouse that leads it home, and he tossed by the tempest of difficulty, doubt and fear.

Something similar takes place in the hearts of those who, called to follow the Teacher of Nazareth, have to undertake a crossing and abandon their own security to become the Lord's disciples. The risk involved is real; the night falls, the headwinds howl, the boat is tossed by the waves, and fear of failure, of not being up to the call, can threaten to overwhelm them.

But the Gospel, tells us that in the midst of this challenging journey, we are not alone.

Please remember in prayers the parishioners who are ill, homebound or in nursing homes. May the Divine Physician grant them strength, patience, and healing. You are encouraged to visit them, phone them or send them a card. Please call the office for addresses.
