SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
TODAY'S FOCUS: CALLED TO HOLINESS

Just as God created us and knows us each in our own unique way, so God also calls us each to a life of holiness in ways that are varied, distinct-and unique.

Our world begs for holy and ethical people, not just in the Church, but in families, business, law, carpentry, technology, politics, care taking, medicine, plumbing, and teaching. It doesn't matter where you rest your head. God wants you and me to be holy. What does it mean to be continually made afresh in the image and likeness of God? What is your route to holiness?

Acts 1: 15-17, 20a, 20c,-26
Psalm 103: 19a
1John 4: 11-16
John 17: 11b-19

Dear God, sometimes I feel that holiness is a word meant for someone else. I stumble around breaking things. I mess up. I am not fine china in a glass-enclosed cabinet. I am not boots in the dirt as on my knees in a church building. But if that's okay with you, then I offer myself to you for sanctification. It won't look like someone else's holiness, but I'll give you what I've got. You have given me a sense of your presence deep in my heart. Since you have given me a sense of your presence deep in my heart. Since you want me to be holy and pure and good, then, please make it so.

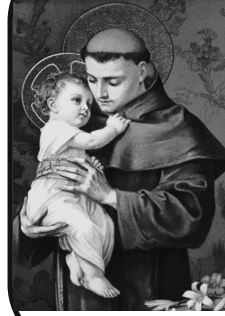

MINISTERING TO THE HOMEBOUND

OF THE BLESSED

May the Blessings of St. Anthony be with you as He unfailingly interceded to the Lord on your behalf.

“HE ASCENDED INTO HEAVEN AND IS SEATED AT THE RIGHT HAND OF THE FATHER”

“ So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God” Christ's body was glorified at the moment of his Resurrection, as proved by the new and supernatural properties it subsequently and permanently enjoys. But during the forty day when he eats and drinks familiarly with his disciples and teaches them about the kingdom, his glory remains veiled under the appearance of ordinary humanity. Jesus' final apparition ends with the irreversible entry of his humanity into divine glory, symbolized by the cloud and by heaven, where he is seated from that time forward at God's right hand. Only in a wholly exceptional and unique way would Jesus show himself to Paul "as to one untimely born", in a last apparition than established him as an apostle.

The veiled character of the glory of the Risen One during this time is intimated in his mysterious words to Mary Magdalene: "I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brethren and say to them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God." This indicates a difference in manifestation between the glory of the risen Christ and that of the Christ exalted to the Father's right hand.
