PENTECOST SUNDAY
TODAY'S FOCUS: THE HOLY SPIRIT IS LIKE...

We use different images to express the Spirit-wind, dove, flame, breath, dewfall-but none of these ever fully captures or articulates who the Spirit is. The best we can do is rejoice for the Spirit is among us!

Symbols and metaphors are never quite perfect. The Spirit is not a dove, but like a dove. The Spirit is not the wind, but like the wind. Similarly, the coming of the Spirit is not the dewfall, but like the dewfall. The Holy One is beyond our ability to express; but have you sensed, even partially, the action of the invisible Spirit becoming visible to you through the things of earth? When has the visible led you to the invisible?

Acts 2: 1-11
Psalm 104: 30
1 Corinthians 12: 3b-7, 12-13
John 20: 19-23

Come Holy Spirit. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and enkindle in us the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and we shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth. Amen

Pentecost Sunday is one of the most ancient feasts of the Church, celebrated early enough to be mentioned in the Acts of the Apostles(20:16) and Saint Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians (16:8). Pentecost is celebrated on the 50th day after Easter.

The Acts of the Apostles recounts the story of the first Pentecost Sunday. Jews from every nation under heaven were gathered in Jerusalem to celebrate their feast of Pentecost. On that Sunday, ten days after the Ascension of Our Lord, the Apostles and the Blessed Virgin Mary were gathered in the upper Room, where they had seen Christ after his Resurrection.

And Suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. Peter then called all those present to be baptized and about three thousand people were baptized that day.

These people were among the first Catholics, and Peter is the first pope of the Catholic Church.

The symbols of Pentecost are the flame, wind, and the love which represents the Holy Spirit. The color of Pentecost is red and the priest wears red vestments on this day. Parishioners are also invited to wear red on this day.
