Notice

The Solemnity of St. Anthony of Padua

The Sunday of June 13 is the Feast of St. Anthony of Padua. Since the parish-basilica bears both the name of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel all the Masses on the weekend will be the Solemnity of St. Anthony of Padua with Scripture reading of the Sunday. At St. Anthony of Padua Church, the 10 a.m. Mass will be celebrated by His Excellency the Most Reverend Bishop David Bonnar. May St. Anthony bless all of you.
Love, Msgr. Cariglio

Outdoor Sunday Mass

Beginning Memorial Day Weekend, the 11 a.m. Sunday Mass will be offered at the outdoor Shrine of St. Anthony of Padua on the eastside of the Basilica. We do keep the thermostat reading of between 68 & 78 with near zero chance of rain; otherwise, the 11 a.m. Mass will be in the Basilica proper. The 9 a.m. Mass is always offered in the Basilica proper.

WEEKEND ASSIGNMENTS—June 12/13

Friday The Day Christ died for us

Every Friday the Basilica will broadcast for the homebound the following spiritual exercises on Face Book:

12 noon Daily Mass
3:00 p.m.. The Hour of Divine Mercy with
The Chaplet of Divine Mercy and Benediction

The Hour
for the whole World!

"At three o'clock, implore My mercy, especially for poor sinners; and, if only for a brief moment, immerse yourself in My Passion, particularly in My abandonment at the moment of agony. This is the hour of great mercy for the whole world. I will allow you to enter into My mortal sorrow. In this hour, I will refuse nothing to the soul that makes a request of Me in virtue of My Passion..." (Diary, 1320)

3 p.m.
of Mercy

Of the Most Blessed Sacrament.
Basilica is open for in person worship during the above times. Welcome!

DAILY MORNING OFFERING PRAYER

Jesus, though the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

THE BEAUTY OF MARRIAGE

Let us pray for young people who are preparing for marriage with the support of a Christian community: may they grow in love, with generosity, faithfulness and patience.

PRAYER FOR HOPE

*I pray today for
HOPE
That I will never give up.
I pray today for

even though I may be
in despair.
I pray today for
PEACE
to accept the things I Cannot change.*

Stewardship Thoughts: Feast of Corpus Christi

"Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it." Mark 14:23

Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself up for us, completely for our salvation. He offers us the same chance to drink from His cup. In the bread and wine, we meet Christ personally. If we follow Him, drinking from His cup means our own self-sacrifice, using all of our gifts for the benefit of others and to do His work on earth.

Intercession for Vocations:

That all Catholics will adore the great gift of the Holy Eucharist given to them by Jesus Christ through the hands of His priests, and that those chosen as priests will inspire many more to follow Him, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

CHURCH AT HOME COMBINED COLLECTION

June 6, 2021

This weekend parishes in our diocese will participate in the combined collection for three major CHURCH AT HOME ministries. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development provides local diocesan and national support for groups of low-income persons to change their lives. The Catholic communication Campaign supports the efforts of the Catholic Television Network of Youngstown (CTNY) and other national telecommunications services to help spread the Word of God. The Catholic University of our Catholic Church. Your generous support is greatly appreciated.

Moses ratifies the covenant by offering a thanksgiving sacrifice and by sprinkling blood over the people. The new covenant, the law's oblation, is ratified in the blood of Christ, the unblemished offering poured out for us.

Craig's Corner
A note from our Music Director

This Sunday's Solemnity of Corpus Christi, the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ parallels our celebration of Holy Thursday, but since Holy Week is often overshadowed by the Passion of the Lord, early Church leaders wanted another day to also celebrate the Lord's institution of the Eucharist to call extra attention to the mystery at the altar which we celebrate each Mass. After the noon Mass this weekend, we mirror the transfer of the Holy Eucharist on Holy Thursday with our procession of the Eucharist with benediction.

While many composers of our day today continue to write hymns and pieces for our celebration of the sacraments, we cannot lose the texts of the ancient Church which got us to this point in the rich history of our faith. Our benediction hymn, O Salutaris Hostia, comes from the final two stanzas of a larger hymn written specifically for Corpus Christi Sunday by Saint Thomas Aquinas back in the 13th Century. The text is associated with the ritual of benediction, as it states:

*O saving Victim, opening wide,
The gate of heaven to man below!
Our foes press on from every side;
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.*

*To Thy great name by endless praise,
Immortal Godhead, one in Three;
Oh, grant us endless length of days,
In our true native land with Thee. Amen*

Parts of our other music this weekend also mirrors the Holy Thursday celebration. The hymn At That First Eucharist, which celebrates the institution of the Eucharist is the subject for the weekend's prelude and is our communion hymn. The offertory hymn, Praise to the Lord, praises Christ our high priest who is the source of the gifts we place on our altar in the Eucharistic feast each Mass. The opening hymn, Festival Canticle recounts the passage from the Book of Revelation where Christ is the Lamb once slain who lives forever, to whom all honor and glory are to be revered. It connects this canticle with our Eucharistic feast: the feast of victory by which we remember Christ's institution of the Eucharist but in a bit more lively fashion than what we do on Holy Thursday.

Ps 103:1-4,9-12
Luke 2:41-51

This Sunday's scriptures speak of the value of the Eucharist: "the blood of the covenant" and "the cup of salvation". What does the Eucharist mean to you?

Christ came to earth to serve us as our high priest. Unlike the Jewish priests of the Old Testament, who atoned for the people's sins with the blood of goats and calves, Jesus absolved our sins with his own blood. He said: "This is my blood of the covenant, shed for many." This is the new covenant. With it he achieved what no other high priest could do: He obtained for us eternal redemption.

Only the blood of God himself could accomplish this, because no matter how good our intentions are, and no matter how holy a priest might be, we all fall back into sin again and again. Only Jesus, the perfectly holy human whose divinity conquered death, could open the doors to eternal life.

Jesus paid a very high price to atone for our sins. What if we come to Mass with unrepented sins? Our desire to avoid the hard work and humility of changing is larger than our desire to let Jesus transform us. It's larger than our desire to enjoy all the benefits of the Eucharist.

To receive his body and blood in the Eucharist without letting it atone for our sins is to snub and reject the terrible price that Jesus paid when he died for us. To avoid his presence in the Sacrament of Confession because it makes us feel uncomfortable is highly disrespectful of the suffering that he endured for us.

If we accept the ongoing atonement provided for us in the Eucharist without accepting the need to repent of any sin, we are insulting Jesus while denying ourselves an opportunity to let him save us that sin.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus Christ has the power to "transubstantiate" us into his likeness. We should always leave Mass different than when we arrived. This is God's plan! His work as our high priest isn't yet finished.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What sins have been most difficult for you to overcome?
2. Why? Who or what is replacing Jesus as the god you imitate?
3. What will you do this week to give Jesus the opportunity to save you from these sins?
4. How did you learn that the consecrated bread and wine at Mass are truly the real Body and Blood of Christ? What makes you sure of it today?
5. How does this affect your attitude about your sins?
