Dear St. Anthony,

God wants us to see Christ, our brother, in everyone and love Him truly in word and in deed. God wills that we share with others the joy of His boundless love. St. Anthony, Generator of Charity, remember me in the Father's presence, that I may be generous in sharing the joy of His love. Remember also the special intentions I now entrust to you.

THE MORNING OFFERING HEART OF JESUS YOUR KINGDOM COME- THROUGH MARY

Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops, and of all Apostles or Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TODAY'S FOCUS: GROW-NOW

In the planting and growing of the reign of God, we often lack the necessary patience to be partners in God's plan. Yet that is what we are.

Jesus says that the kingdom of God is like the seeds that grow of their own accord. We do not know how the kingdom of God grows similarly like the seeds in our garden. We are not in charge of transformation. But we can water. We can tend. In the grace of the Holy Spirit, we work hard while allowing Divine Mystery to be mystery, God to be God.

Ezekiel 17: 22-24
Psalm 92: 2a
2 Corinthians 5: 6-10
Mark 4: 26-34

Lord, your friend St. Paul tells us that we feel far from you while we are in this human body. We have to walk by faith because we do not see you. And yet you are also here. You are a constant gardener, present among us, planting and reaping in ways that we do not see or know. Even as we jump up and down in fret and worry, grant us the grace of inner calm that all will be well. We are willing to work to make your kingdom come. But only you can make it happen. Help us to trust in your timing.

MINISTERING TO THE HOMEBOUND

Our church continues to meet the sacramental and spiritual needs of our homebound parishioners. If you are aware of anyone who is homebound and in need or desire of our support, please contact the parish office. Likewise, if a member of your family is in the hospital and in need of either the Sacrament of the Sick or Communion, please call. Thank you for your cooperation.

Please remember in prayers the parishioners who are ill, homebound or in nursing homes. May the Divine Physician grant them strength, patience, and healing. You are encouraged to visit them, phone them or send them a card. Please call the office for addresses.

Many images of St. Anthony picture him with lilies and the Christ child

In many places lilies are blessed and distributed on the feast of St. Anthony. The lily is meant to remind us of St. Anthony's purity and our own need to pray for the grace of purity in times of temptation. There are many versions of the legend of St. Anthony cradling the Christ child. In most, St. Anthony had traveled to a local hermitage to spend time in prayer. One night, while deep in prayer, Jesus appeared to him as a child. The room filled with light and laughter as St. Anthony held the Christ child in his arms. As the story is told, the owner of the hermitage, upon seeing the light, came to investigate only to behold St. Anthony and the Christ child. When the vision ended, St. Anthony realized the owner was kneeling at the door and begged him not to share the story until after Anthony's death.

Anthony was a simple and humble friar who preached the good news lovingly and with fearless courage. The youth whom his fellow friars thought was uneducated became one of the great preachers and theologians of his day. He was a man of great penance and apostolic zeal. But he was primarily a saint of the people. His effectiveness in calling people back to the faith through his preaching was just as important as his peacemaking and calls for justice.

To this day, St. Anthony of Padua is one of the Catholic Church's most revered and popular saints. One of the reasons for this is likely that his life was what every Christians' life is meant to be—a steady courage to face the ups and downs of life, the call to love and forgive, to be concerned for the needs of others, to deal with crisis, both great and small, and to have our feet solidly on the ground of total trusting love and dependence upon God.

REMEMBER US LAST: When you are preparing your Will and Estate Plan, remember those closest to you, spouse, family members, and loved ones. Then remember St. Anthony Church with a residual gift that defines your Legacy of Faith as a member of our parish community. Please CALL 330-744-8451, EXT. 325 FOR INFORMATION.

We are increasing our membership weekly. If you know of a Catholic friend in search of a home parish, please encourage them to visit us here at St. Anthony's. We need volunteer Altar Servers, Extraordinary Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, and Funeral Servers. The parish can also use any help during the planning and organizing of sponsors for the Spaghetti Dinners. (Making up Gift Baskets, sending out donor letters, setting up, cleaning after, and workers during.) If you wish to volunteer your time for the good of St. Anthony Parish please call the office @ 330-744-5091.
