Craig's Corner
A note from our Music Director

While at lunch recently with Bishop Bonnar, he was telling me about a time when he was younger and on the radio they would have a segment called “Weather in a Word.” He used this example in a recent homily of his, but he knew that in my time as a meteorologist and now as I am preparing to take on a new role as a diocesan seminarian, he reminded me that a lot of words are not always necessary to get a point across. This weekend, I use two words to describe our music and readings presented before us at Mass: mission and example.

In the first reading, it's Amos who is receiving instruction to go and prophesy to the peoples. In the Gospel, it is Christ sending out the disciples out two by two to preach and drive out demons in His name. Mission and example. Today, we are the Church with this same mission. Saint Francis' words in our opening and closing hymn “All Creatures of Our God and King” reminds us that all of God's creation is subject to His rule and His way. Nothing can stand in the way of God's power – hence the disciples were able to drive out demons in His name. It is our mission, too, to drive out things in this world which impede us from seeing Christ in others. Our mission is clearly stated in our offertory hymn and communion psalm. “Lord, when you came to the Seashore” and “Go out to the World” remind us that Christ calls us to go forth to all nations and lead by example and our faith. It is our mission of Christian discipleship; taking no money bags, no sandals, nothing for our journey that keeps us connected to earth. Rather, the walking stick which keeps us rooted in Christ and our mission of the Church, leading by our example.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

“He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick - no food, no sack, no money in their belts.”
Mark 6:8

Imagine taking nothing but a stick when you go on a trip. The apostles must have really trusted in God’s providential care. Think of all the material things “we can’t live without” in today’s world. We make our life’s journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Putting God first in everything and putting our money and possessions second gives us freedom because we don’t become “slaves” to wanting to acquire more things.

We welcome into the Catholic Family of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica, NICOLINO DOMINIC WELLS, son of Nicolino Michael Wells and Dina Pelly Wells, and EMILY MARIE THARP, daughter of David Joseph Tharp and Andrea Marie Armeni Tharp, who were born again of water and the Holy Spirit in the Sacrament of Baptism.

Readings for July 11, 2021

Am 7:12-15; Ps 85:9-10, 11-12, 13-14;

The prophet hears what God proclaims and is called to speak in God’s name. The Twelve hear the message of Jesus and are sent forth to preach the good news. In him have we been chosen to be full of love.

that he asks of us.

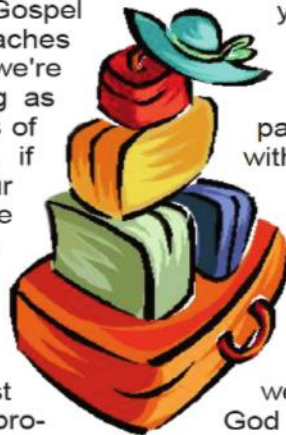

Through the priest, Jesus sends us into the world to be the visible proof that he is real and that he's alive and that he cares. With Jesus, and in him and through him, we are all evangelizers who can make a difference in the world.

Yes, all of us – all of us who have participated in the Eucharistic celebration with conscious awareness of

In this Sunday's Gospel passage, Jesus teaches us about trust. If we're to fulfill our calling as God's missionaries of love in this world, if we're to fulfill our calling to share the Good News, we must trust God and the resources he provides.

And we must trust that he will always provide exactly what we need when we need it, even though it doesn't always seem sufficient. It's important that we don't feed the inclination to distrust him by expecting anything other than what he provides.

Every Mass ends with a recommissioning rite for the calling we all have. The final blessing is a sending forth after we've been renewed in our relationship with Jesus. His presence in the Word and in the Eucharist and in the Church community re-energizes us (when we pay attention) to boldly go and do all what we are saying and praying and receiving during Mass. Go forth in bold confidence! Jesus is sending you out from the church with his Spirit and his sufficiency.

However, when we do the packing and decide what to take with us on the mission, we like to take an abundance of stuff, just in case we might need it. Thus, we fail to show others that God is reliable and trustworthy.

To be effective evangelizers, we have to surrender over to God whatever baggage interferes with our mission.

Remember this: Surrender is not truly surrender unless we no longer want what we surrendered. If we still have some desire for it, we're attached to it by a bungee cord that yanks us back to it, yanking us away from our true purpose in life.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. In what areas of your life do you rely upon the Lord?
2. What areas do you still need to entrust to him? What will you do to surrender any distrust?
3. What kind of "food" do others serve you when you rely on God to provide for your needs through them? How does their service to you help them understand God?
4. What kind of baggage should be left at home instead of carrying it into ministry? How does letting go of this better reveal Jesus to others?
