Prayer for World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

I thank You, Lord, for the comfort of Your presence; Even in times of loneliness.

You are my hope and my confidence,

You have been my rock and my fortress since my youth!

I thank You for having given me a family and for having blessed me with a long life. I thank You for moments of joy and difficulty, for the dreams that have already come true in my life, and for those that are still ahead of me.

I thank You for this time of renewed fruitfulness to which You call me. Increase, O Lord, my faith, make me a channel of your peace, teach me to embrace those who suffer more than me, to never stop dreaming, and to tell of your wonders to new generations.

Protect and guide Poe Francis, and the Church, that the light of the Gospel might reach the ends of the earth.

Send Your Spirit, O Lord, to renew the world, that the storm of the pandemic might be calmed, the poor consoled, and wars ended.

Sustain me weakness and help me to live life to the full in each moment that You give me, in the certainty that you are with me every day, even until the end of the age. Amen

HEALING PRAYER OF SURRENDER

Dear Lord Jesus, it is my will to surrender to you everything that I am and everything that I'm striving to be. I open the deepest recesses of my heart and invite your Holy Spirit to dwell inside of me. I offer you my life, heart, mind, body, soul, spirit, all my hopes, plans, and dreams. I surrender my past, present and future problems. I release everything into your compassionate care. Please speak to me clearly, Lord. Open my ears to hear your voice. Open my heart to commune with you more deeply. Open the doors that need to be opened and close the doors that need to be closed. Please set my feet upon the straight and narrow road that leads to everlasting life. Amen

INTERCESSION:

For a greater appreciation of the richness of every vocation to love Christ and that more men and women will respond to His invitation to follow Him as priests, deacons and consecrated religious, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS:

“There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?” JOHN 6:9

The miracle of the Loaves and Fishes carries two important messages. First, no matter how little we have, we always have enough to share. Second, Christ can take our humble gifts and do great things with them if we are just willing to let Him. Nothing is impossible with God. All of our gifts, big or small, were given to us for a reason. No gift is too small or insignificant!

Craig's Corner

A note from our Music Director

In Paul's letter to the Ephesians this weekend, he reminds us that we all have a specific call in life but that as Christians we are unified by one Lord, one faith, one baptism. At our baptisms, we were anointed with oil sealing our mission in the common priesthood of Christ. This doesn't necessarily mean ordained priests but our common mission to promote the Gospel. The ordained priesthood, of course is the priest acting in the person of Christ to bring the Sacraments to God's people and most importantly to celebrate the Mass with the community. We all partake in this Mass, not as innocent bystanders but as a community sharing in our common priesthood.

This weekend's account of the multiplication of the loaves and fish in the Gospel, prefigured by Elisha in the first reading from the second book of Kings. The loaves and fish account reminds us that God provides for us, even if it seems like so little. We are always fed with what we need spiritually, if we come to the altar to receive it. Our psalm and hymns this weekend revolve around this account and the importance of the Eucharist and being fed by the hand of the Lord. Padre Pio's famous prayer sung at offertory this weekend also reminds us that communion is the light which drives away the darkness of our souls. Let us pray going forward this week and beyond, that we continue to want to be nourished by God's word and Eucharist often so that we can continue to share in the common priesthood we all are called to be a part of.

Many people have asked about my final days as music director so I wanted to give a brief "schedule" of events coming up in the next week. As we have been announcing, we have a few wonderful evenings of sacred music coming up this week. My last weekend as the official music director of the parish will be next weekend, July 31 – August 1. No matter the weather that weekend, our 11AM Mass will be indoors as I have invited a group of musicians I have worked with in my years as an organist to join me in celebrating Mass and sharing one more time the joy of music which has brought me such joy to share with you all and enrich our Masses in my time as the director here.

7:00 PM Tuesday July 27 – Concert 1: The Stations of the Cross for Organ

7:00 PM Thursday July 29 – Concert 2: Choir and organ selections from the Church Year

11:00 AM Sunday August 1 – “Festival Mass” of music and my final Mass as full-time director of music

I will still be around the basilica through August 15 working as the new music team takes over. We will introduce them next weekend.

Sometimes people de-supernaturalize John 6:1-15 with explanations such as: "The real miracle is that Jesus got the people to share the food they had brought with them", and even this: "There wasn't enough food for everyone to have their fill, but what they had was offered to everyone, and the people were just so appreciative and willing to make sacrifices that they ate very little and thus there was food left over."

Yeah, r-i-i-ight. As if God can't multiply food miraculously.

The multiplication of the loaves and fish into a meal that not only satisfied everyone but was more than what they needed is an important foreshadowing of the Eucharistic banquet we celebrate today. If we pay close attention to what's going on in Mass, and if we take it to heart, Jesus satisfies our hungers and gives us more than we need. What did you need from him before you arrived at church? He's trying to give it to you or lead you to it -- in abundance!

Receiving all that he wants to miraculously give us requires that we trust him to provide for us. We have to expect the unexpected. We have to wait on his perfect timing. But rest assured that he wants to give us more than we need.

Maybe some of the folks on that ancient hillside wanted steak instead of fish, but what they received was a Messiah who filled their hearts with more than enough faith to grow spiritually, more than enough hope to become stronger in their trials, and more than enough love to share as they went forth to reveal Christ to others.

In our Liturgies of the Eucharist, there's a lot more abundance to receive from Jesus than just a little wafer of his Body and a sip of his Blood. What do you really need from Jesus? More faith? More hope? More love? It's a good idea to think about this on the way to Mass so that you can participate in Mass more expectantly.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Why do you go to Mass? Was there ever a time when you didn't go, and if so, why didn't you? What motivated you to start attending Mass again?
2. How satisfied are you now? What's missing? How might God provide for those needs?
3. What is available from Jesus during Mass other than his real presence in the Host and Precious Blood of the Eucharist?
4. How are the various elements of Mass gifts from God that can help satisfy our spiritual, emotional, and even physical needs?
