Nick's Notes

A note from our Music Director

I am humbled and honored as I write my first "Nick's Notes" column in this week's bulletin as I start my first week as the director of music here at the Basilica of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Craig and Christine will be dearly missed by us all (myself especially) but I couldn't be more excited for the both of them as they each start a new chapter in their lives. Without them, I wouldn't be the musician that I am today and would be nowhere near ready to take on this increased role overseeing our music program here at the Basilica. While I may be relatively young (I just turned 21 two weeks ago), I am excited for the challenge and will be leaning on many of my peers to help guide me through this new journey.

Currently, I am a full time Music Education student at YSU through the Dana School of Music. My primary instrument is the trumpet, but I also take voice lessons from Mr. Bill Ambert with whom I am in the Cathedral Choir at St. Columba. I also recently began organ lessons with Dr. Daniel Laginya from St. Columba and Dana. I personally have been involved here at the Basilica since December of 2015 when our former music director and current deacon, Mark Izzo, called my dad and asked if I would be willing to play the trumpet for our Christmas Day Masses. Deacon Mark and my father go back many years as my dad, Dr. Richard Mattiussi, worked at the Basilica several decades; most notably as Director of Youth Ministry with the close assistance of my mother, Lisa Mattiussi. Eventually, Mark was preparing to enter the Diocesan program to study for the Diaconate, and was training Craig to be the new Director of Music. It is at this point that Craig and I met and developed a close friendship, one that he and I will undoubtedly continue as he progresses through the seminary. As music director, Craig continued to call me to play trumpet for holidays and special events and eventually asked me in late 2019 if I wanted to join the choir and possibly begin cantoring. At that time, I never would have imagined that I would be asked to become the new director of music not even two years later. I am so grateful for this opportunity and will do my best to continue the high quality of sacred music we have been so blessed with at OLMC for so many years.

Our music team will actually have quite a few new faces and I am excited for you to get to know them all. Our new Saturday organist is Mr. Joe Carrier who I will feature next week in this column. I am also excited for you to get to know Mr. David Pratt, the Sunday/Choir organist. They both have many years of liturgical experience and I am ecstatic to be working with both of them.

I am thankful that Craig will be around the next few weeks as we all transition into our new roles so he can help guide us through this change. I would also especially like to thank Monsignor Cariglio for this wonderful opportunity to serve as Director of Music and for his support and confidence in me. Please keep us all in your prayers as we make this transition.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS:

"Get up and eat or the journey will be too much for you!"
Kings: 19:7

God knows that committing to a stewardship lifestyle is difficult. However, we were not designed to do it on our own, we need His help. Fortunately, God gave us the greatest gift of all, His son, Jesus. Through the gift of the Eucharist we join our sacrifice with the sacrifice of the Holy Mass and receive the strength and courage to be His joyful disciples.

This Sunday we hear Christ's explanation of the Eucharist: "Whoever believes has eternal life; I am the bread of life."

Why does he call the Eucharist "the bread of life"? How does it give us life?

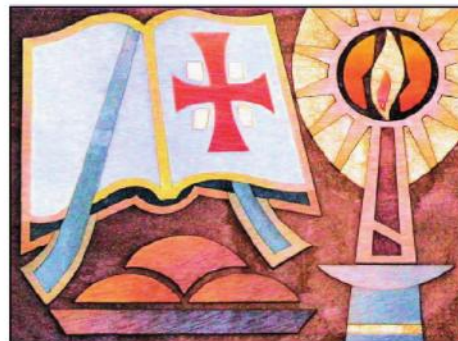

He answers: "Whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." In other words, he gave himself to us – he gave his life for us – on the cross.

Our sinfulness put us on the path of death, but he who was sinless and divine substituted himself for us, taking our deaths upon himself so that we could have the eternal life of God.

The resurrection of his body defeated this death. Therefore, his body, crucified and risen, is the source of our life. This is what we celebrate in Mass. We are not re-enacting his death during the sacrifice of the altar, as some mistakenly assume; we are uniting ourselves to his life.

The "sacrifice of the altar" is our participation in the entirety of Christ – his life, his ministry, his crucifixion for our sins, his resurrection, and his ascension to heaven.

We unite with him by offering our lives to him so that he ministers to the world through us, sacrificing our will where it interferes with his, which results in being raised up to new life as we follow Christ to heaven.

Every Catholic Mass accomplishes this by providing us with our Savior's body and blood, here and now, in the form of edible food: the bread of life. This holy communion comes to us from Christ's Last Supper, through generation after generation of the apostolic priesthood, beginning with the very first Apostles.

Christ is as fully present and as truly real here as he was when he sat among the Apostles and said, "This is my Body, this is my Blood." Thus anyone who adores and honors Jesus in the Eucharist, believing that he is their Savior, is feasting on the source of their eternal life.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. How do you know that the Eucharist is truly the high point and center of your life?
2. What's missing from your current experience of meeting Jesus in person in the miracle that takes place on the altar?
3. How is the Eucharist life-giving for you? Share how Jesus has revealed himself to you through the Blessed Sacrament.
4. How did it change you?
