Nick's Notes

A note from our Music Director

This week I am excited for you to get to know our new Saturday organist, Mr. Joe Carrier!

In addition to his new part time position of occupying the bench, Joe works full time as a funeral director/organist/pianist at Rossi-Santucci Funeral Home in Boardman for OLMC parishioner Chelsey Santucci. Joe is a proud native of Youngstown's west side. He graduated from Saint Christine Elementary School 2010 and is a member of the 2014 graduating class of Ursuline High School. Joe earned his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from John Carroll University in 2018 and his Associate's Degree from The Pittsburgh Institute of Mortuary Science in 2019. He is the son of Nancy Gelonese-Kirchner and Joseph P. Carrier Sr. and the grandson of Funeral Director and Embalmer, Eugene Gelonese, who passed away in 1978. Joe has been a member of Saint Christine Parish for many years and can be seen playing in "The Steel Street Band" around Youngstown. Joe is an Eagle of the Cross Award recipient, 2nd Degree Knight of Columbus, Certified Celebrant, and a trained Eucharistic Minister. He has over 10 years of liturgical music experience having studied under Lynn Rider, Dr. Linda Miller, John Peplowski, Barb Singler and Ron Goulish.

While Joe will be serving as one of our new organists, he is a pianist by trade and is classically trained on the instrument. I am excited to utilize his talents on both instruments moving forward, so don't be surprised if you hear the piano being used more often during our Saturday liturgies. Joe is proud and excited to join the music staff here at Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and I am so happy to have him on board!

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS:

“And Mary said, “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my savior.” Luke 1:46

After Jesus, we look to Mary as our model of stewardship. Her entire life was lived in obedience to God's will. Just as the moon reflects the light of the sun, Mary reflects the light of Christ. Like Mary, we too are called to reflect Christ to the world. We do this by living grateful and generous lives. We do this by putting other's needs before our wants.

INTERCESSION:

That guided by the example of Mary, men and women will accept the call of the Lord to follow their vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life,

We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

The scriptures for this solemnity can help us understand Mary's holiness and how it affected her physically. They answer the question: How could she pass directly from earth to heaven without experiencing the corruption of death in her body?

Mary was the only human after Adam and Eve who was conceived without inheriting their Original Sin. God the Father arranged this so that Jesus the Son – who was completely holy and fully God – could reside within her human body during pregnancy and then live in a very holy family.

This gave Mary an advantage of grace that you and I do not have. Adam and Eve had it, but when faced with temptation, they chose to sin. As a new Eve, Mary faced temptation but chose to remain close to God.

saying no to temptation. Since we fail at this, Jesus died on our behalf so that we can get to heaven anyway, as long as we don't completely turn away from God's grace. He gave us the Sacrament of Baptism to free us from the inheritance of Adam and Eve's Original Sin. But we don't have to be satisfied with the minimum. God wants to give us much more grace!

We have the Holy Spirit so that we can resist temptation and be holy.

God gave Mary a ministry that did not end when she was transferred from earth to heaven. Her calling was – and still is – an eternal vocation of sharing the gift of grace that she received from God. Thus, she is able to care for us like a real mother and help us to grow in our love for Jesus and in our desire to resist temptations.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. How similar to Mary are you?
2. What do you need from Mary so you can become more like her?
3. Share the story of a time when you prayed the Rosary or consecrated yourself to Mary and a miracle happened.

Thus remaining full of God's grace, she was able to live in complete holiness and never experience the corruption of sin and death. When she reached the end of her time on earth, God's divine life raised her from the earth and immediately resurrected her earthly body into her glorified body.

To live in God's grace, we have to cooperate with it by
