

21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?" Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God."

Jn 6:67-69

Joshua confronts the tribes of Israel: Will you desert your covenant with Yahweh? The desertion of disciples is a prelude to the paschal mystery. With Peter, however, let us profess our faith in the Lord, who gave himself up for us all.

Nick's Notes
A note from our Music Director

This week we will be featuring our new Sunday organist Mr. David Pratt!

David Pratt was born and raised in Columbiana, and obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree in Vocal Music Performance from YSU. Like so many music school graduates, he found work in banking. Staying with banking, he moved to Richmond, VA, and then Norfolk, VA, where he started singing with the Virginia Opera. A couple years later, he sold his car and most of his furniture and moved to New York City to make a go of it. Singing didn't work out so well there, but working as a Temp he ended up at Levi Strauss' sales office. A year later he got transferred to their headquarters in San Francisco. While working there, he found his way back into singing regularly, eventually as a paid member of the San Francisco Symphony Chorus under Michael Tilson Thomas, and then into the San Francisco Opera. But after losing his brother in 2002 he realized 2,500 miles was just too far from home. He moved back to Columbiana, where he still lives with his parents.

He has worked several jobs since coming home, from banking to substitute teaching. He served as Music Director at St. Jude Church in Columbiana for 6 years, but has found his niche as the bookkeeper at First Presbyterian Church of Youngstown, where he sang in the choir for over 15 years. And following his family tradition of service, he has become active with the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, now assuming the job of Treasurer.

David is also a member of the choir at St. Columba Cathedral, where Craig and I have gotten to know him over the course of the past several years. I am really excited to have him on board for our Sunday Masses here at Our Lady of Mount Carmel, especially given his vast experience as a liturgical singer and music director over the years.

IN YOUR CHARITY, please pray for repose of soul, FRANK WORRELLIA, age 93, whose Mass of Christian burial was this past week.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS:

"If it does not please you to serve the Lord, decide today whom you will serve...As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." Joshua 24:15

When we commit to serve the Lord, we must be willing to become a disciple in the work of the Lord. A disciple is a person who spends time in prayer every day, joyfully participates in charitable works and generously supports their local parish and church mission. If we say we serve God, we must actually do something and not merely talk about it!

INTERCESSION:

That trusting in Christ's words to Peter, all those called to follow the Lord as priests, deacons and in the consecrated life will recognize the gift of their call and follow Him faithfully, gross and unthinkable. They couldn't grasp the Spirit and life behind those words. It seemed that Jesus had become too bizarre to follow.
We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

The true disciples – those who remained to learn more from him – also didn't understand what he meant, not yet, but they recognized the presence of the Holy Spirit in his words.

In John 6:60-69, we see the tragic rejection of Christ's true mission by many who had been listening to him and watching him. How could they miss the message that he taught? "The words I have spoken are Spirit and life," he said. But they only heard his words on the surface level, in their flesh-nature. And thus they missed the life that he was offering: the healed life, the joyful life, the victorious life, the eternal life.

They weren't looking at Jesus spiritually. They saw him as a man, not messiah, as a healer of bodies, not souls, as a deliverer from Romans instead of from their sins.

Thus, the idea of eating his flesh and drinking his blood (which he had spoken of in the previous verses, in last Sunday's readings) truly was

How many times has Jesus come to you in another person and you didn't recognize him, because what you saw was the human individual and what you focused on was their un-Christ-like behavior?

Everyone has been created in the image of God. They would not be alive if the Holy Spirit had not given them life. Even non-Christians have the presence of Christ in them. To live a more victorious life, we have to look beneath the surface to find the Jesus who is hidden inside everyone we meet.

Do you have any difficulty recognizing the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist at Mass? Practice recognizing Jesus when he comes to you in others, and you will see the Eucharist in new ways.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Jesus said, "No one can come to me unless it is granted him by my Father." How has the Father gifted you with the ability to recognize Jesus?
2. What has happened in your life that opened your eyes to who Jesus really is?
3. What blocks our view of Jesus when he comes to us through others? What expectations, disappointments, or prejudices?
4. Share with your group a time when you learned to see past the flesh to discover Jesus in someone you didn't like. What led to this discovery?
