PRAYER AGAINST VIOLENCE IN OUR CITIES

God of Goodness, You know that the violence in our community is out of control. It is taking our helpless and innocent ones, it is taking our children. And, we confess that beyond the violence in our streets, is the violence in our own hearts. We contribute to a culture of violence whenever we give in to hatred, fear, indifference, and our own self-satisfaction.

It seems that we are growing numb to the suffering, the loss, the indignity done to our sisters and brothers and to our Earth. But in our hearts, and in the heart of the community, help us to value life and beauty over instant satisfaction, and to value sharing over greed. Empower us to acknowledge and affirm our children, our spouses, our neighbors, and seek respectful solutions to our conflicts. Create through us a world where it will be easier to be good.

Your Spirit, given to us, is not timid. Therefore, each of us can do something, person by person, family by family, community by community, to realize that we are one-one body, one people, one earth. By Your design, we thrive or we perish together. Trusting that Your desire for us is peace, not disaster, we pray this in Your Name. Amen

Lord of all things, I offer myself to you. I offer not only my labor, but also my affections and emotions. I am willing to defy my own sensitivities and desires in your service, with your grace and favor. (Ignatius Loyola, 1491-1556)

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TODAY'S FOCUS: MISSING THE "WOW!"

It's human instinct to watch where we're going. That well-worn path sometimes turns into a rut-a rut so deep that we need a Divine intervention to startle us out of it!

Sometimes we trudge along the well-worn path of religious practice, staring at the ground. We may figure that we've pretty much "got this." When we are plodding along, thinking about the "how" and the "what," how might we miss the Who, the "wow!" of the One who is our faith?

Exodus 16: 2-4, 12-15
Psalm 78: 24b
Ephesians 4: 17, 20-24
John 6: 24-35

In love's deepest longings, we don't just want about someone, we want to know them. Remind us that St. Paul encourages us to "Be renewed in the spirit of your minds." So, Lord of heaven, this day, we want to see you. Step onto the mundane path that we trudge and surprise us! Step into our way and say, "Hey, here I am!" Open our eyes to see you.

THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

THE PROMISE OF THE TRANSFIGURATION CAN BE OURS AS WELL

Jesus allows the disciples Peter, James and John a foretaste of the glory of the Resurrection: a glimpse of heaven on earth. Luke the Evangelist reveals to us Jesus transfigured on the mountain, which is the place of light, a fascinating symbol of the unique experience reserved to the three disciples. They go up the mountain with the Master, they see him immersed in prayer and, at a certain point, "the appearance of his countenance was altered". Accustomed to seeing him daily in the simple appearance of his humanity, they are astonished as they face that new splendor that also envelops his entire body. And Moses and Elijah appear beside Jesus and speak with Him about his forthcoming "exodus" that is, of his Paschal death and Resurrection.

This transfiguration occurs at a precise moment in Christ's mission after confiding to them he would suffer many things, be killed, and on the third day be raised. No one can reach eternal life if not by following Jesus, carrying their own cross in their earthly life. The Lord reveals to us the end of this journey which is the Resurrection, beauty: by carrying one's own cross.

Jesus' transfiguration not only gave his disciples-and us-an awesome glimpse of his glory; it also gives us a glimpse of the transformation we will experience at the resurrection.

Donations are GREATLY appreciated!

We know that not everyone is able to help make pizzas weekly or for the upcoming Brier Hill Fest. With the cost of supplies going up a donation of a few dollars to pay for supplies like flour, sauce, cheese would be greatly appreciated. If you can spare something just drop your envelope marked pizza donation in the collection plate.
