Nick's Notes
A note from our Music Director

This is week I am featuring one of our new cantors, Miss Alexa Mosca!

Alexa Mosca is a second year vocal music education student at the Dana School of Music. She is member of the Dana Chorale and has been part of several community choirs including Stambaugh Chorus, She-nango Valley Chorale, and has also sang in the choir at First Presbyterian Church and St. Patrick's Church in addition to cantoring at Mount Carmel. She was also involved in the theater program and piano club in high school.

Alexa attended Cardinal Mooney High School and graduated in 2020. In her free time, she enjoys spending time with her friends and her dog, Mario. She also enjoys volunteering at animal shelters in the local area.

Alexa will be a regular choir member and cantor moving forward, and I am excited for her as she takes on a bigger role as we move along.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." Mark 8:34

Living a stewardship lifestyle means not only being responsible for my own life, but for the lives of others as well. We realize that our gifts are not intended for ourselves, rather they are meant to be shared with others. "Taking up my cross" means doing things when someone else needs me and not when it's convenient for me.

"Who do you say that I am?" The one who calls is the Messiah, the Son of the living God. Are you called follow Him as a priest, deacon, brother or sister? Contact Fr. Scott Kopp at 330-744-8451 or email: skopp@youngstowndiocese.org.

Holy Communion for the Sick and Homebound

All extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist have the privilege of bringing Holy Communion to the sick and the homebound. Thank you for your service in fulfilling this great need to nourish our people with the Bread of Life.

Please note that we are not permitted to give you the Consecrated Host during the distribution of Holy Communion during Mass. Instead, after Mass go to the Altar of Repose and there fill your pyx at the Tabernacle; then reverently and in silence go to the person's home. Be sure to share with the sick that I love them and pray for them every day. Thank you, Monsignor

This Sunday's second reading defines the Catholic doctrine of faith and works.

Works without faith, no matter how good the works are, don't get us into heaven. Some of us try to earn our way into God's heart by serving in church activities, saying all the "right" prayers, and so on.

This idea comes from our childhood when we learned: "If I'm good enough, Mom and Dad will reward me" and "If I do well in school, the teacher will give me a gold star" or smiley face or whatever it is they paste on homework today.

The problem is, we can never be good enough for heaven. This is why Jesus came to earth and took our sins to the cross. Faith without works isn't going to get us into heaven, either. Here's why:

Faith in Jesus starts with believing that, in his love for us, he died for us and rose again so that we'll have eternal life. This is what opens the door to heaven. However, to walk through that door, we have to follow Jesus. This requires doing more than believing in his death and resurrection; we also believe in his life – how he lived his life. Following Jesus affects our lifestyles and our day-to-day behavior. How Christ-like is it?

The proof that we truly do have faith is evidenced in the good works we do. Faith in Jesus means we love him so much that we love all those whom he loves, which is everyone regardless of whether they deserve it or not.

And faith in Jesus means we trust him so much that we do whatever he tells us – imitating him in all of our activities, adopting his attitudes, and responding to his calling to serve as priests, religious, and lay ministers.

Thus, when Jesus says to us in the Gospel reading, "Who do you say that I am?" we answer that he is our Savior who takes us to heaven, and he is our Lord who teaches us how to live, and he is our Lover who empowers us to love others even when it becomes a cross to bear.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Is Jesus Christ truly your Lord and Savior? Do you believe that he suffered and died on your behalf so that you could reach heaven?
2. Are you doing good works because you adore him so much that you want to go where he goes and do what he does and serve as his hands and feet and voice wherever he leads you?
3. How does your life convey to others that Jesus is your Lord and Savior?
4. If you wore no Christian jewelry and spoke no words, how would you tell others who Jesus is?
