CATHOLIC SAINTS OF THE DAY
FOR THE WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 12TH

In Heaven, we will be in awe of the holiness of the countless men and women who served God and others with selflessness and self-sacrifice throughout their lives. Among the countless saints in Heaven are a few who are chosen by God to become canonized and added to the liturgical calendar of the Church on Earth. These men and women are given to us as models for every day and age so as to inspire us on our journey of faith.

Below is the General Roman Calendar with additional feasts particular to the United States. May these holy men and women inspire you as you daily seek to live the will of God in your own life. Saints of God, Pray for us!

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TODAY'S FOCUS: THE ROAD AHEAD

Peter's profession of faith was, no doubt, an unclouded moment, one that suddenly turned dark and stormy. In the dark and the storms of life, we often have to let Jesus "take the wheel" for us.

Peter found out that his very human answer, his outburst of fear and uncertainty, was not Jesus' answer. What did Jesus do with Peter's protectiveness? Jesus did not leave him to his own understanding. He said, "You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." How does Jesus want to transform our human understanding as well?

Isaiah 50: 5-9a
Psalm 116:9
James 2: 14-18
Mark 8: 27-35

Jesus, you are the Christ, the Son of the living God! As we exult in you, we feel sunshine filling our souls. Then the fog descends, and anxiety and fear threaten to overwhelm us. You have asked us to share your cross. That can feel a little scary. We don't want more pain. And sometimes the windshield wipers won't work, and we cannot see where we are going. Yes, we will get up and carry our cross and help you change the world in just a moment, but for now, Jesus, just be here and hold us.
