Dear St. Anthony,

God wants us to see Christ, our brother, in everyone and love Him truly in word and in deed. God wills that we share with others the joy of His boundless love. St. Anthony, Generator of Charity, remember me in the Father's presence, that I may be generous in sharing the joy of His love. Remember also the special intentions I now entrust to you.

Lord of all things, I offer myself to you. I offer not only my labor, but also my affections and emotions. I am willing to defy my own sensitivities and desires in your service, with your grace and favor. (Ignatius Loyola, 1491-1556)

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TODAY'S FOCUS: GOD PROTECTOR OF LITTLE ONES

One of the main ways in which Jesus was clearly the incarnation of the God of the First Covenant was continual care and concern for the weak, the lowly, the poor, the marginalized, the children—all God's little ones.

A father feels a surge of protectiveness for his pink and wrinkled newborn. The mother of a toddler flies into a rage when she thinks another child will hurt her daughter. A mother bear will attack a hiker who gets close to her cubs. If these are our God-given instincts to protect the helpless, does the Creator also feel a protective rage over the mistreated? Do we dare mess with God's righteous indignation? Might a "hiss" from Jesus make us more careful about how we behave?

Numbers 11: 25-29

Psalm 19: 9a

James 5: 1-6

Mark 9: 38-43, 45, 47-48

Lord, only you are righteous and good. Thank you for the protective instincts that spur us to keep those we love safe. You ask us to watch over your children, for they are precious to you. But at the same time, you detect failings that we hide or cannot see. Do not let our instincts of protectiveness go wrong, keeping outsiders out, becoming tribal, keeping others from partaking of your bounty. You detest any evil in us. Root out our unknown faults. Chop off all that is not of you so that we follow you more purely.

GUARDIAN ANGELS

Every person has a guardian angel to lead, guard, and guide through life. Guardian angels are given at conception. It is believed that, instead of God assigning one angel to a person for life, God assigns different angels to a person at different times. There may even be times when a person has more than one angel. The church teaches us that we should pray not only directly to God, but also to those who are close to God, those who have the power to intercede upon our behalf. Indeed, we pray to the angels to help and watch over us, also explains that it is biblical to pray to angels for intercession.
