Nick's Notes

A note from our Music Director

This weekend, our regular organist, Joe Carrier, is out of town playing for one of his good friend's weddings. Our sub is someone you all know very well, Christine Langer!

While you all may be used to hearing and seeing Christine sing from the front of the church, this weekend she will be occupying the organ bench. Before moving to Richmond, Indiana where she now works as a Mathematics Professor at Ivy Tech Community College, Christine took organ lessons from Dr. Daniel Laginya from St. Columba Cathedral for several years. While Christine has been playing piano from a very young age, she first began studying organ in 2010 with her piano teacher in North Canton. She then began studying in 2015 with Dr. Laginya but had to stop for awhile due to her busy schedule. She decided to pick lessons back up last year before she received her job offer in Indiana.

Christine has been in town a lot recently as she cantored for Monsignor's 50th anniversary Masses and is now on fall break as Ivy Tech has 8 week semesters. I always make a point to tell her often that whenever she is in the area to let me know so I can utilize her various talents. While she may not be cantoring this week, I am glad that she was willing to step up and play the organ while she is back in Youngstown.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

"It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." Mark 10:25

Jesus uses tough language that we may not want to hear. But, we are all called to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the ones we pick and choose, but all our gifts, and especially the one that means the most to us! That includes our time in prayer to God, our talent in participating in parish ministries and our treasure supporting our local parish and other charities.

INTERCESSION:

That from the many called to holiness in Christ, those chosen to follow Him in the priesthood and consecrated life will respond with humble readiness, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

Jesus asks the rich young man, "Why do you call me good? Only God is good." What's he trying to achieve?

First, if the young man truly believes that Jesus is good and that his teachings are good, and if he has observed his miracles and behavior, then it should be obvious to him that all this goodness is proof that Jesus is God.

Also, Christ's question offers the young man an opportunity to become more humble. If he truly believes what Jesus says, then he should realize that since only God is good, no one else, including himself, obeys the commandments perfectly. Such a realization should have opened his heart to the truth that Jesus explains next:

"There's only one thing keeping you from being holy like God: earthly attachments. To gain freedom from this world and possess only what belongs to the kingdom of God share your treasures."

He's saying this to all of us, but he's not telling us to become destitute. To "give up" everything we possess means being willing to give it away. If it's a good thing for us to have because it blesses us, God does want us to enjoy it, but true joy comes from being God's partner as a distributor of his wealth. It's the fullest way to live! And we are all called to live this way.

If we remain attached to earthly stuff, we distance ourselves from God and hurt those who would benefit from our generosity. However, to achieve complete freedom from attachments, we cannot rely only on our own efforts. It's often very difficult to let go and become willing to share everything.

The good news is that Jesus made it possible by taking our sins to the cross and sharing with us his own Holy Spirit, who empowers us to do whatever he asks of us. Our lives on earth become more fulfilling when we dare to share. The more we give to others in a spirit of love, the more we receive the treasures of heaven. Indeed, we become one of heaven's treasures!

Reflect & Discuss:

1. In comparison to the holy ways of dealing with life's circumstances that Jesus modeled for us, how unlike Jesus – how worldly – are you today?
2. And how divine is your behavior? What earthly treasures have you given away?
3. Decide upon an action that will help you detach from earthly treasures this week.
4. Share the story of a time when you gave away an earthly treasure even though you really didn't want to detach from it. What motivated you to give it away? How did God repay you?
