“I Believe in...the Communion of Saints”

The “communion of saints” is made up of all men who have placed their hope in Christ and belong to him through Baptism, whether they have already died or are still alive. Because in Christ we are one Body; we live in communion that encompasses heaven and earth.

The Church is larger and more alive than we think. Among her members are the living and the deceased (whether they are still undergoing a process of purification or are already in the glory of God), individuals known and unknown, great saints and inconspicuous persons. We can help one another even beyond the grave. We can call on our patrons and favorite saints, but also our departed relatives and friends whom we Are already with God. Conversely, by our intercessory prayer, we can come to the aid of our dear departed who are still undergoing purification. Whatever the individual does or suffers in and for Christ benefits all. Conversely, this unfortunately means also that every

Do not weep for I shall be more useful to you after my death, and I shall help you then more effectively than during my life. Saint Dominic

CATHOLIC SAINTS OF THE DAY
FOR THE WEEK OF OCTOBER 17

In Heaven, we will be in awe of the holiness of the countless men and women who served God and others with selflessness and self-sacrifice throughout their lives. Among the countless saints in Heaven are a few who are chosen by God to become canonized and added to the liturgical calendar of the Church on Earth. These men and women are given to us as models for every day and age so as to inspire us on our journey of faith.

Below is the General Roman Calendar with additional feasts particular to the United States. May these holy men and women inspire you as you daily seek to live the will of God in your own life. Saints of God, Pray for us!

Sunday, Oct. 17: Saint Ignatius of Antioch
Monday , Oct 18: Saint Luke the Evangelist
Tuesday , Oct 19: Saints Jean de Br’ebeuf, Isaac Jogues
Wednesday , Oct 20: Saint Paul of the Cross
Thursday , Oct 21: All Saints for Today
Friday, Oct 22: Saint John Paul II
Saturday Oct 23 : Saint John of Capistrano

TODAY'S FOCUS: HOW TO BE A HERO

The words "hero" or "shero" get used quite a bit-sometimes deservedly, other times not. Jesus shows us how we, made in the divine image, already have the powers needed to be heroic. We just need to use them.

What are the tugs and pulls around the issue of heroism? What is the difference between the temptation toward "being proud" and the drive toward "being heroic"? In your spiritual growth, where are you cultivating heroic virtue? Where do you find yourself sliding into "oh, well".

Isaiah 53: 10-11

Psalm 33: 22

Hebrews 4: 14-16

Mark 10: 35-45

Jesus, you show us how to be heroic-how to serve and not stop serving, how to give and not stop giving, how to love and keep loving unto death. We want to be like you. On our own, when things go well, we cheer for ourselves and think that we are great. Show us what true greatness is. Help us to strive for nothing less. For we want to give you glory with our lives. Come, Holy Spirit, and empower us to be heroes for God

REMEMBER US LAST: When you are preparing your Will and Estate Plan, remember those closest to you, spouse, family members, and loved ones. Then remember St. Anthony Church with a residual gift that defines your Legacy of Faith as a member of our parish community. Please CALL 330-744-8451, EXT. 325 FOR INFORMATION.

MINISTERING TO THE HOMEBOUND

Our church continues to meet the sacramental and spiritual needs of our homebound parishioners. If you are aware of anyone who is homebound and in need or desire of our support, please contact the parish office. Likewise, if a member of your family is in the hospital and in need of either the Sacrament of the Sick or Communion, please call. Thank you for your cooperation.
