SYNOD PRAYER
WE STAND BEFORE YOU, HOLY SPIRIT

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity
so that we may journey together to eternal life
and not stray from the way of truth
And what is right..

All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son,
Forever and ever.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TODAY'S FOCUS: MERCY>MISERY

It's easy to get caught up in wonder at the accounts of people Jesus healed. Step back, realize that heaven's mercy overcomes human misery, and then go forth to bring mercy to the miserable.

Jesus' tender mercy floods in upon our misery. Yet we may not see it. The literal Greek words of Bartimaeus's request are "That I might recover my sight." Have we at one time "seen" that flood of mercy? Have we forgotten? Gone blind? Taken it for granted? Share a story of a time when you once experienced mercy.

Jeremiah 31: 7-9
Psalm 126: 3
Hebrews 5: 1-6
Mark 10: 46-52

Lord, we do not always see your compassion, especially when we are weighed down with troubles. On this autumn day, reveal to us your presence in everyday life. Flow upon us like a river in the desert, calling out, "Look, here I am!" Open our eyes. Make our touch tender and our words reverent, especially for those close to us. Jesus, have mercy on us and help us to be merciful like you.

POPE FRANCIS MESSAGE FOR WORLD MISSION DAY

AN INVITATION TO EACH OF US

The theme of this year's World Mission Day-"We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4: 20), is a summons to each of us to "own" and to bring to others what we bear in our hearts. This mission has always been the hallmark of the Church, for "she exists to evangelize" (SAINT PAUL VI, Evangelium Nuntiandi, 14). Our life of faith grows weak, loses its prophetic power and its ability to awaken amazement and gratitude when we become isolated and withdraw into little groups. By its very nature, the life of faith calls for a growing openness to embracing everyone, everywhere. The first Christians, far from yielding to the temptation to become an elite group, were inspired by the Lord and his offer of new life to go out among the nations and to bear witness to what they had seen and heard; the good news that the Kingdom of God is at hand. They did so with the generosity, gratitude and nobility typical of those who sow seeds in the knowledge that others will enjoy the fruit of their efforts and sacrifice. I like to think that "even those who are most frail, limited and troubled can be missionaries in their own way, for goodness can always be shared, even if it exists alongside many limitations."

On World Mission Day, which we celebrate each year on the penultimate Sunday of October, we recall with gratitude all those men and women who by their testimony of life help us to renew our baptismal commitment to be generous and joyful apostles of the Gospel.
May Mary, the first missionary disciple, increase in all the baptized the desire to be salt and light in our lands.

MONTHLY INTENTIONS OF
OCTOBER: MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

We pray that every baptized person may be engaged in evangelization available to the mission, by being witnesses of a life that has the flavor of the Gospel.

In celebration of the 150th anniversary of Blessed Pope Pius IX declaration of St. Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church, Pope Francis has proclaimed a special "Year of St. Joseph." It is a wonderful opportunity to increase our love for St. Joseph and knowledge, "to encourage us to implore his intercession and to imitate his virtues and his zeal. (Patris Corde).
