The Lord provides for Elijah's needs as the widow of Zarephath shares with him from her want. Her generosity is mirrored in the widow in the temple who gives from her poverty and not from power, privilege, or excess. In Jesus, God became poor for us, offering himself to take away our sins.

A note from our Music Director

This weekend I am featuring another one of our choir members, Tony Casacchia!

Tony Casacchia first attended Our Lady of Mt Carmel when he was at YSU in 2009. He is married to Katy, who also likes to sing when their two young children, Luke and Lily, allow her to. Tony is originally from Columbiana and Katy is from Salem. Tony is a physician working for Mercy Health focusing on geriatric medicine, nursing home care, and hospice care. He spends much of his week following patients at Assumption Village in North Lima and also works with Hospice of the Valley. Both Tony and Katy are members of the choral group Illuminare, whose repertoire consists mainly of sacred choral music. Their biggest focus at this time is keeping up with two kids aged three and under, who they are sure you've heard calling out during Mass at times!

Tony has been a member of the choir here at Our Lady of Mount Carmel for many years, and I appreciate him making it to Mass on Sundays when he is able given his busy schedule.

THIRTY - SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

APOSTOLATE OF PERPETUAL ADORATION

This past year has presented many obstacles to the beautiful Apostolate of Perpetual Adoration which has been in effect at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Basilica for the past 27 years. As we enter our 28th year of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, we now have an abbreviated schedule for adoration. As we work to rebuild a full schedule of 24 hours a day 7 days a week, we need your help.

We wish to acknowledge all the steadfast, loving people who have dedicated hours praying and keeping company with Our Blessed Lord. As of April 11, 2021, Divine Mercy Sunday, we have resumed adoration.

We are inviting each of you to come spend one hour with Our Risen Lord truly present body, blood, soul and divinity. The King of the Universe is waiting for YOU! You may come at any time to adore our Lord, but the following hours need to be filled:

Sunday: 4-5p.m., Sunday: 5-6 p.m., Monday, 3-4 p.m., Monday, 7-8 p.m., Tuesday, 11 a.m. - 12 p.m., Wednesday, 2-3 p.m., Thursday, 11 a.m. - 12 p.m., Thursday, 3p.m.- 4 p.m., Thursday, 5 p.m.. - 6 p.m.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

"I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living." Mark 12:43-44

Jesus gets right to the point - we are all called to give money to support the mission of the Church, regardless of our circumstance. No gift is too small or insignificant! Giving money to support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your "first fruits" or from what is "left over"?

An Invitation

Bishop Bonnar invites couples who are married civilly but not in the Church to inquire about beginning the validation process ("having your marriage recognized by the Church.") Please contact the parish office at your earliest convenience to inquire about beginning the necessary steps leading to the validation of your marriage.

LITURGICAL COLOR FOR MASS FOR THE DEAD

"The color violet or purple is used in Advent and Lent. It may also be worn in Offices and Masses for the Dead. Besides the color violet, the colors white or black may be used at funeral services and at other Offices and Masses for the Dead in the Dioceses of the United States of America." General Instruction of the Roman Missal.

INTERCESSION:

That those called to serve the Lord and His people as priests, deacons and in the consecrated life will be blessed with holy zeal in their prayers and apostolates, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our Prayer.

Sponsor of the week:

Light of Faith & Family

Meets this Sunday, November 7th.

The 4th, 5th & 6th graders will help us celebrate 9am Mass.

Baptisms

Expecting or adopting a child? Now is the time to call and schedule their Baptism. The most asked question is, "Who can be a Godparent?" *Godparents need to be a fully Initiated member that is active and in good standing with the Catholic Church. Meaning he or she has been Baptized, Confirmed and received the Eucharist in the Catholic Church. *Must have 2 Godparents or 1 Godparent and 1 Christian Witness. A Christian Witness must be Baptized in a Christian Faith and active in their faith.

Luke 18:1-8

Following Jesus requires a tremendous amount of trust, because he often takes us to unexpected places that require new growth, sacrifices, and moving beyond the boundaries of what's familiar and comfortable.

Consider the two widows in this Sunday's first reading and the Gospel reading. How could they give what common sense says they could not afford? Did they know with total certainty that God would take care of their needs? No. So they gave all they had because they were so in love with God that they trusted his love for them.

Trust is a sign of genuine love -- especially when the one we trust is God. We can love others more freely and generously if we trust God to help us through the difficulties that occur when people prove themselves untrustworthy. Our freedom to love others unconditionally is not based upon how safe we are with them; it's based on how safe we are with God.

Each widow gave what she could not afford to lose. We cannot afford to love those who will cause us grief and disappointment and feelings of rejection, and yet Jesus tells us to forgive them and do good to them and go the extra mile for them.

Sometimes doing good to those who are difficult to love must include "tough love", which asserts boundaries that they are not allowed to cross. Remember what Jesus did: Until Good Friday, Jesus always walked away from his persecutors. Did he stop loving them? Not at all. And sometimes it means enabling them to reap what they sow so that they begin to understand their need to repent. Instead of cleaning up their messes, we have to let them suffer from it. Think about it: Does God clean up our messes before we repent? Usually he won't even do that after we repent. What would we learn if someone else does the damage control?

Loving others always includes sacrificing ourselves and relying on God to comfort us, heal us, restore us, and bless us. We can trust God for this. Our jar of whatever we pour out to others for the sake of love will never go empty.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What needs healing or correction in your thinking so you can feel secure and fully loved by God?
2. Describe a time when you gave more than you thought you could give: more money, more love, more time, more patience – more of anything. What motivated you to be so generous?
3. What were the end results? What did you learn?
