Today in the Catholic Church we celebrate Stewardship Sunday. The Bible tells us :

“And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory (Mark 13: 26)

We will all have that day when we are standing before God and our life is played out like a movie. When this happens and God asks each of us “What have you done with the gifts I have given you? How will you respond? The good news– it’s never too late to live a grateful and generous lifestyle.

REGISTRATION:

Members of the parish should be formally registered. If you are not receiving St. Anthony of Padua envelopes. Lord of all things, I offer myself to you. I offer not only my labor, but also my affections and emotions. I am willing to defy my own sensitivities and desires in your service, with your grace and favor. (Ignatius Loyola, 1491-1556)

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TODAY'S FOCUS: VISIONS OF THE END

The world around us has an effect on the way we speak about, portray, and envision the end of our lives and the world. Can we allow the eternal virtues-faith, hope, love-to have an even greater effect?

Where are we now? When we hear Jesus talk this week about tribulations and stars falling from the sky, is this more real than it used to be? Could we be wiped out by war, or famine or disease? When the prophet Daniel speaks of a "time unsurpassed in distress," does that feel more like a possibility?

Daniel 12: 1-3

Psalm 16: 1

Hebrews 10: 11-14, 18

Mark 13: 24-32

Jesus, from your words, you appear to have a long perspective. While we measure time in days and years, you see things in centuries and eons. If heaven and earth pass away, will your words not also pass away? That is here for us to envision. Give us your eyesight this day. The end of the world is a scary prospect and we cannot handle that without your help. Strengthen us this day for whatever the future brings. In the midst of our fears, be our Peace. When trials come, be our Rock. No matter what happens, show us the path of life and allow us to glorify you forever.

CATHOLIC SAINTS OF THE DAY
FOR THE WEEK OF NOVEMBER 14

In Heaven, we will be in awe of the holiness of the countless men and women who served God and others with selflessness and self-sacrifice throughout their lives. Among the countless saints in Heaven are a few who are chosen by God to become canonized and added to the liturgical calendar of the Church on Earth. These men and women are given to us as models for every day and age so as to inspire us on our journey of faith.

Below is the General Roman Calendar with additional feasts particular to the United States. May these holy men and women inspire you as you daily seek to live the will of God in your own life. Saints of God, Pray for us!

MONTHLY INTENTIONS OF POPE FRANCIS

NOVEMBER: PEOPLE WHO SUFFER FROM DEPRESSION

We pray that people who suffer from depression or burn-out will find support and a light that opens them up to life.

The purpose of the synod is not to produce more documents. It is intended to inspire people to dream about the Church we are called to be, to make people's hope flourish, to stimulate trust, to bind up wounds, to weave new and deeper relationships, to learn from one another, to build bridges, to enlighten minds, warm hearts and restore strength to our hands for our common mission.

SYNOD PRAYER

WE STAND BEFORE YOU, HOLY SPIRIT

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions

Let us find in You our unity
so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You,
Who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son,
Forever and ever.
Amen.
