FROM DEPRESSION

We pray that people who suffer from depression or burn-out will find support and a light that opens them up to life.

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

TODAY'S FOCUS: HOPE IN THE MIDST OF TRIALS

In his Letter to the Romans, St. Paul used the image of a woman in labor to describe the hope that is central to the season of Advent: "All creation is groaning in labor pains even until now; and not only that, but...we also groan within ourselves as we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. Advent is a time filled with hope, the hope that is wrapped up in Jesus' coming as our newborn king on Christmas and the hope that we still hold out as we await his return in glory.

Romans 8: 22-23
Luke 21: 28
Luke 21: 34

Father, you come to us with the good news of salvation, but we often fail to notice. You come to us day by day, yet we close the doors of our hearts when it seems convenient to do things our own way. We ignore your presence and your leadership and have lived as if we have no relationship with you. We have failed to act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with our God. Forgive us, Lord. May we now live so that the world will know that you are coming again and we are your servants.

Prayer in Praise of Mary

O Mary, we praise your spotless chastity, making you worthy to bear the Son of God. We praise you for your virginity which you kept intact with your holy maternity. We praise the greatness of your motherhood throughout the ages. We praise the fidelity and purity of your example to Christian mothers in a world full of sin. We praise you for your spiritual motherhood by which we are your children. We praise and thank Almighty God for your Immaculate Heart through which we are inseparably united to the Sacred Heart of your divine Son, Jesus. Amen

CATHOLIC SAINTS OF THE DAY
FOR THE WEEK OF NOVEMBER 28, 2021

In Heaven, we will be in awe of the holiness of the countless men and women who served God and others with selflessness and self-sacrifice throughout their lives. Among the countless saints in Heaven are a few who are chosen by God to become canonized and added to the liturgical calendar of the Church on Earth. These men and women are given to us as models for every day and age so as to inspire us on our journey of faith.

Below is the General Roman Calendar with additional feasts particular to the United States. May these holy men and women inspire you as you daily seek to live the will of God in your own life. Saints of God, Pray for us!

Saturday: Dec 4: St. John Damascene

SYMBOLS OF ADVENT

The first Sunday of Advent marks the beginning of the Christian year. Its length varies from 22 to 28 days, starting nearest St. Andrew's Day and encompassing three Sundays ending on Christmas Day. Purple is historically the main color used for Advent because it reflects penitence, fasting, and the color of royalty to welcome the Advent of the King (Jesus Christ). The focus of the entire season is the celebration of the birth of Jesus the Christ in his first advent, and the anticipation of the return of Christ in the second Advent.
