Dearest Lord, teach me to be generous: teach me to serve You as You deserve; to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not so seek for rest, to labor and not to ask for reward save that of knowing I am doing Your will.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

TODAY'S FOCUS: THIS IS ONLY A TEST

Nothing gets us to perk up like a test. When we perk up and are attentive to the coming of the Lord, we can answer the question: "What are we to do?"

Jesus Christ himself is the ultimate test. How closely do our lives resemble his? That's a pretty high standard. Good enough is..well..just not good enough. This Advent, we can look inside and ask ourselves, How am I orienting my thoughts, my energies, and my actions. Am I chatting away in the hallway? Or am I paying close attention, asking, "Lord, what should I do? And then doing it.

Zephaniah 3: 14-18a
Isaiah 12: 6
Philippians 4: 4-7
Luke 3: 10-18

Good and gracious Test-Giver, have mercy on us. You know that we don't live an A-plus life all the time. You know that being like Jesus sets a really high standard. And yet you draw us to that kind of life anyway. We know that there will be a test at the end. Do not let us grow slack. By your grace, keep us attentive to the movement of your Spirit.

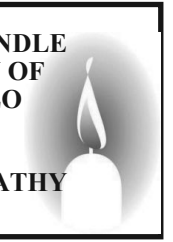

My Lord and my God, what shall we do, together, today?
