Dearest Lord, teach me to be generous: teach me to serve You as You deserve; to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not so seek for rest, to labor and not to ask for reward save that of knowing I am doing Your will.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

TODAY'S FOCUS: MORE THAN MERE OPTIMISM

Hope happens in human bodies because our God-our hope-came to save the world by taking on human flesh. Not only do we believe in God, God believes in us!

God believes in people. God works through the many "Elizabeths" in this world, both male and female-people who recognize and follow the Lord and thus embody goodness and kindness and love. Has there been an Elizabeth for you? How did he or she help you grow in faith? In these final days of Advent, ponder this: Is the idea of God just wishful thinking or is God the reality who holds up your life. As you behold the baby in the manger this Christmas, ask the Holy Spirit to swell within you with a renewed dose of the gifts of faith, hope, and love.

Micah 5: 1-4a

Psalm 80: 4

Hebrews 10: 5-10

Luke 1: 39-45

Lord God, creator of the world, the psalmist says thank you to God, who "knit me in my mother's womb" and says thank you "because I am wonderfully made." Thank you for creating me. Help me to start anew this week of Christmas, to recognize that you believe in me. In times of temptation, help me to hold doggedly fast to you. In times of despair, help me to cling to you alone as my hope. Thank you for coming into this world in such a small and obscure way in the womb of a young girl, who was willing to shelter and grow you for nine months. Thank you for her Elizabeth. Thank you for our "Elizabeths" who give us hope by embodying you. Thank you, thank you most of all for daring to take a chance on us.

CATHOLIC SAINTS OF THE DAY
FOR THE WEEK OF DECEMBER 19, 2021

In Heaven, we will be in awe of the holiness of the countless men and women who served God and others with selflessness and self-sacrifice throughout their lives. Among the countless saints in Heaven are a few who are chosen by God to become canonized and added to the liturgical calendar of the Church on Earth. These men and women are given to us as models for every day and age so as to inspire us on our journey of faith.

Below is the General Roman Calendar with additional feasts particular to the United States. May these holy men and women inspire you as you daily seek to live the will of God in your own life. Saints of God, Pray for us!
