PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Father Almighty,

As a part of your divine plan

You have created us for some definite purpose.

Bestow your grace upon us to know the path

You have designed for us in this life

And help us to respond with an unconditional "Yes"

Make our diocese, parishes, homes and hearts

Fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations.

May we your faithful, especially our young people,

Respond to Your call with courage and zeal.

Inspire among our men a desire and the strength to be Good and holy priests.

Bless us with an abundance of consecrated religious,

Permanent deacons, lay ecclesial ministers, and those

Called to a chaste single life.

Sanctify the union of man and woman as one in marriage

So that they may be a sign of Christ's love for His Church.

Through the intercession of Mary our Blessed Mother,

We offer our prayer for vocations to You, Father,

In union with the Holy spirit,

Through Christ our Lord. Amen

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS:

"To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." (1Corinthians 12:7)

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God's plan? How are you helping to build God's kingdom here on earth? Remember that if you don't do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it. Live the life God has intended for you. Take time to discern your charisms (gifts from the Holy Spirit). Experience the supernatural Peace and Joy God desires for each of us.

INTERSESSION:

That all those especially chosen by Christ for the unique paths of holiness as priests, deacons or in the consecrated life, will heed our Blessed Mother's counsel to do whatever He tells them in loving obedience, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time - January 16, 2022

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St, Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil;

May God rebuke him, we humbly
pray and do thou,

O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God,

Thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who

Wander through the World for the ruin of souls.

Warm Hearts for Warm Homes aims to provide utility assistance during the cold winter months to families with children, working poor adults and older adults on fixed incomes. More information about Warm Hearts for Warm Homes, including ways to support this campaign with your prayers and financial support, can be found on our website (www.ccdoy.org). 2 Samuel 1:1-4, 11-12, 19, 23-27
Ps 80:2-3, 5-7
Mark 3:20-21

Today's Gospel story gives us a good example of how to handle conflicts without sinning.

Mary sees a need and wants Jesus to do something about it. She knows full well that only a miraculous intervention will solve the problem. She wants the divine in him to respond to her request, but the human nature of Jesus responds first: He doesn't want to reveal his divinity with this kind of miracle. He's eager to heal souls, not empty wine jars.

"Woman, how does your concern affect me?" he says. "My hour has not yet come." This is like saying, "I respect your request, holy Daughter of Eve, but think about how a miracle in this situation would affect the ministry I'm about to start! People will come to me for party favors and other earthly pleasures, but I want to give them eternal salvation."

We Catholics like to use this scripture as faith-building evidence of the Blessed Mother's ability to help us. We see her in this story as a mother who can get for us whatever we want from Jesus, because she can make him change his mind. Jesus told her no, but the conflict was resolved her way. Mary won, Jesus lost.

Isn't this how we view conflicts? It's not resolved until someone's a winner and someone else is a loser.

Therefore, when we make requests of God and he doesn't give us what we want, we feel like we're the loser, so we pray harder, trying to make God become the loser. And when that doesn't work, we ask the Blessed Mother to side with us and influence her Son against his will.

Therefore, when we make requests of God and he doesn't give us what we want, we feel like we're the loser, so we pray harder, trying to make God become the loser. And when that doesn't work, we ask the Blessed Mother to side with us and influence her Son against his will.

But God wants us to be the winner from the start! He always wants what's best for us. Mary knew this when she told the wine stewards, "Do whatever my Son tells you."

Conflicts are not inherently bad. Conflicts become sacred opportunities for wonderful solutions when we entrust them to God. Mary trusted that Jesus cared about the people at the party. Jesus trusted that the Father cared about both the people and his ministry. It was a win-win situation.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. How do you feel when you lose an argument? How hard do you work at making the other person lose?
2. Will you trust God to take good care of you – even if you feel like a loser?
3. Describe a conflict (a hypothetical one or a real one from your past or present) and suggest an ideal solution. Is anyone a loser in this scenario?
4. If you were to truly trust God, what might he do to resolve the conflict so that everyone benefits?
