EPIPHANY OF THE LORD
TODAY'S FOCUS: !sgnisselB ynahpipe

Our familiarity with today's celebration distracts us from one of its central themes: that God often works in backwards, upside-down, inside-out ways!

What we can see and touch and measure—that is what constitutes scientific “reality”. Some who work in that realm tell us that there is no other reality. But perhaps that majority opinion contains a confirmation bias. If they're all looking at reality in the same way, maybe that becomes the common consensus? What if that is backwards? What if that which we cannot see and touch and measure is the ultimate reality? How might that be an epiphany.

Isaiah 60: 1-6
Psalm 72: 11
Ephesians 3: 2-3a, 5-6
Matthew 2: 1-12

God, sometimes you seem to revel in doing things backwards. The psalmist says that you watch over the poor and the needy, those who don't really matter in the power structures of the world. You set the planets in the night and then give us the sun at just the right distance to make our crops grow. You surround us with just the right amount of warmth when so many planets are too warm or too cold.

Help us to receive your backwards surprises this day! Set us ablaze! You have come in glory to dispel the darkness of our lives. We may not be your Chosen People. But you came to shine your radiance on us as well. Glory to you, Light of the world.

Healing Prayer

Heavenly Father, we pray that You will lay your healing Hands upon all those who are sick. We beg You to have compassion on all those who are suffering so that they may be delivered from their pitiful circumstances.

*In Jesus, we pray.
Amen.*

CATHOLIC SAINTS OF THE DAY
FOR THE WEEK OF JANUARY 2, 2022

In Heaven, we will be in awe of the holiness of the countless men and women who served God and others with selflessness and self-sacrifice throughout their lives. Among the countless saints in Heaven are a few who are chosen by God to become canonized and added to the liturgical calendar of the Church on Earth. These men and women are given to us as models for every day and age so as to inspire us on our journey of faith.

Below is the General Roman Calendar with additional feasts particular to the United States. May these holy men and women inspire you as you daily seek to live the will of God in your own life. Saints of God, Pray for us!

Sun Jan 2 : Saint Basil the Great
Mon Jan 3: Most Holy Name of Jesus
Tues Jan 4: Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton
Wed. Jan 5: Saint John Neumann
Thur Jan 6: Saint Andre” Bessette
Fri Jan 7: Saint Raymond of Penafort
Sat Jan 8 : Saint Angela of Foligno

As the dawn breaks on a new year, let us give thanks for all we hold dear: our health, our family and our friends.

Let us release our grudges, our anger and our pains, for these are nothing but finding chains. Let us live each day in the most loving ways, the God-conscious way.

Let us serve all who are in need, regardless of race, color or creed.

Let us keep God of our own understanding in our hearts and to chant God's name each day. Let us lead the world from darkness to light, from falsehood to truth and from wrong to right.

Let us remember that we are all one, embracing all, discriminating against none. May your year be filled with peace, prosperity and love. May God's blessings shower you and bestow upon each of you a bright healthy and peaceful new year.
