PALM SUNDAY is the great doorway leading into Holy Week, the week when the Lord Jesus makes his way toward the culmination of his earth existence. He goes up to Jerusalem in order to fulfil the Scriptures and to be nailed to the wood of the Cross, the throne from which he will reign for ever, drawing to himself humanity of every age and offering to all the gift of redemption. We know from the Gospels that Jesus had set out towards Jerusalem in company with the Twelve, and that little by little a growing crowd of pilgrims had joined them. Saint Mark tells us that as they were leaving Jericho, there was a "great Multitude" following Jesus.

COLLECTION $ 3,492.00
PIZZA 1,850.00

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD
TODAY'S FOCUS: JESUS "GOES LOW"

By allowing himself to be raised up on a cross, Jesus stooped to pick up the heaviest parts of our humanity, so that we too, one day, will be raised up.

How do we carry the weight of our own lives? Sages of the ages tell us that we can suffer selfishly-rebel and complain- and thus shift our own burdens to others. Or we can "go low", bearing with our suffering as Jesus did, so that the burden may be easier for others. What does it mean, on a daily basis, to share in the sufferings of Christ, to be like him in bearing one another's burdens?

Isaiah 50: 4-7

Psalm 22: 2a

Philippians 2: 6-11

Luke 22: 14-23: 56 (23: 1-49)

Jesus, this feels like foolishness, taking the form of a slave, becoming obedient to the point of death-how does that work? Why did you do that? If you were God, you could have come down from that cross and smashed the lights out of all of those politicians who maneuvered you toward death. Yet you didn't.

We are small; we don't really get it. We still frolic about as though this core of Christianity, this Paschal Mystery that "you died because you love us," was a light little plaything: something that we have heard before, something that we just say, something that we take for granted. Deepen our understanding of what it means to walk the way of the cross, so that when we come to Easter, we see how much you have lifted for us. You died because you love us. Show us this week, Lord, what that really means.
