STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS:

5th Sunday of Easter

"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (John 13:34)

"As I have loved you," this is the hard part – Jesus's love is unconditional; our love usually comes with strings attached. It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes mercy and compassion to love someone when you feel unappreciated, feel used or feel like your opinion doesn't matter. It takes courage and the grace of God to "love my neighbor" when they may be someone you don't like, someone you don't know or someone that doesn't look like you.

REGISTRATION:

Members of the parish should be formally registered. If you are not receiving Our Lady of Mt. Carmel envelopes, please call the rectory Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m.—2:00 p.m. For a change of address or telephone number, please call the rectory @330-743-4144

Searching, Discerning or Questioning of Becoming a Catholic? RCIA is for you Ever find yourself saying....

I was Baptized but need to receive the other Initiation Sacraments: Eucharist and/or Confirmation.

I have this inner voice or desire calling me towards the Catholic Faith. What do I do? Who do I contact?

I'm planning on being married and would like to join / understand the Catholic Church. What do I do?

I want to be prepared if asked to be a Godparent or Sponsor. What do I need to do?

Questions or inquiring Call or Email Therese / Mrs. I
OlmcTherese@gmail.com 330-743-3508

Expecting or adopting a child?
Now is the time to call and schedule the Baptism. The most asked question for a Baptism is:

"Who can be a Godparent?" *Godparents need to be a fully Initiated member that is active and in good standing with the Catholic Church. Meaning he or she has been Baptized, Confirmed and receive the Eucharist in the Catholic Church.

*Must have 2 Godparents or 1 Godparent and 1 Christian Witness. A Christian witness must be Baptized and active in a Christian Faith of God the Father, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. To schedule or questions call the Faith Formation office.

Seeking Baptism for a youth 7 years of age and older or for an adult inquire with RCIA.

Have you heard? There is a new name for Religious Education. We now say Faith Formation. How are you, as an adult forming and updating your Faith?

If you knew you were about to die, what wisdom would you impart to your loved ones in your final moments? What's most important for them to learn from you?

In the Gospel reading, Jesus knows his time is short. The first thing he says to his friends are words of praise for God (the Father) while equating himself with God. He even calls his friends "children" as if he himself is God the Father! In so doing, he makes it clear that he is one with the Father: so totally that the lines between Father and Savior are blurred. And he does it humbly, glorifying his Father.

Glory is the radiating light of God's presence: his love, his joy, his holiness, his peace, his wisdom, his creativity, and everything else that he imparts on those who want to bathe in his glory. When we glorify God, we are reflecting back to him this same glory. How much of this glory is illuminating your life?

After describing the exchange of glory between Father and Son, Jesus imparts to his disciples the highest wisdom of the universe: The key to successfully joining Jesus in the glory of God is to love as he loves.

Love is not love unless it unselfishly gives itself to others. Jesus unselfishly gave himself to us completely, even in death. Followers of Jesus are not true followers, disciples are not true disciples, priests are not true priests, lay leaders are not true leaders, unless they serve with love, in love, and through love.

The glory of God is love that gives itself completely, even sac-rificially. Why does the Gospel reading give us a scene from the Passion of Christ while we're celebrating the season of Easter? The other readings are full of Easter: "Behold, I make all things new" (Rev. 21:5a). And yet here is Jesus preparing for betrayal, torture, and death. Why?

This Gospel reading is Jesus imparting to us today the key to continuing the mission of sharing God's glory, which Jesus began and now calls us to do. By loving one another in a spirit of sacrifice, we are showing the world that Jesus is real, he is risen, and he is alive in us.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Whom do you not love?
2. If you were able to give that person a gift of yourself as an act of love for the glory of God, what would that gift be?
3. How do sacrificial acts of love glorify God?
4. Name a good deed you did recently. How was it self-giving (sacrificial)? How was it also a gift from Jesus, a sign that he was working through you?
