POPE FRANCIS' INTENTIONS

FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER:

For a Church open to everyone.

We pray for the Church; ever faithful to and courageous in preaching the Gospel, may the Church be a community of solidarity, fraternity and welcome, always living in an atmosphere of synodality.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

We pray that from the many called to holiness in Christ, those chosen to follow Him more closely in the priesthood and consecrated life will respond with humble readiness.

Mass Intentions

We may not even be aware of it, but every time we go to Mass, the first reason is that we are drawn there by his desire for us. For our part, the possible response — which is also the most demanding asceticism — is, as always, that surrender to this love, that letting ourselves be drawn by him. Indeed, every reception of communion of the Body and Blood of Christ was already desired by him in the Last Supper. (Pope Francis, Desiderio Desideravi)

MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Along the WAY

There were many nice events taking place this past week. One was the work being completed on the roofing and flashing on the St. Joseph the Provider School building at St. Anthony. The repair will beautify the building and make for a warmer winter environment for the children and faculty. I was also happy to pay off the work being done at the Bocce Court area of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. It is always good to keep up with the bills. In the Bocce Court area, you will find the statue of Christopher Columbus, which marks the spirit of discovery and the new world. The Knights of Columbus are pleased to be part of such a great heritage. As the Chaplain of the Knights, I am grateful for all you do for the Church. They met for their meeting this past Thursday, Oct. 6, and I led the opening prayer.

The Chosen, the internationally acclaimed online series of the life of Christ is being viewed each Tuesday in the St. Joseph Hall at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel from 7pm to 8:30pm. The series is compelling; you are welcome to come and see for yourself. I thank you, Michele Berardi, for effectively facilitating the series.

The parish group heading to Southern Italy and Sicily later this month, met to discuss the last minute details of our ten day land tour. The twenty-five persons are well prepared for the excursion, which begins on October 19. Buon viaggio!

We enjoyed a delicious spaghetti dinner this past Sunday with 915 people. It was a beautiful day! Thanks to the many volunteers who made it happen.

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

Pope Francis on the Eucharistic Adoration

The Upper Room . . . where Jesus and his disciples would celebrate the Passover meal was located in the house of someone who offered them hospitality. Father Primo Mazzolari said of that person: "Here is a nameless man, the owner of a house, who lent Jesus his finest room. . . . He gave Jesus the best he had, because everything surrounding the great sacrament should be great: a great room with a great heart, great words and great deeds" (La Pasqua, La Locusta 1964, 46-48)

A large room for a tiny piece of Bread. God makes himself tiny, like a morsel of bread. That is precisely why we need a great heart to be able to recognize, adore, and receive him. God's presence is so humble, hidden, and often unseen that in order to recognize his presence, we need a heart that is ready, alert, and welcoming. But if our heart, rather than a large room, is like a closet where we wistfully keep things from the past, or an attic where we long ago stored our dreams and enthusiasm, or a dreary chamber filled only with us, our problems, and our disappointments, then it will be impossible to recognize God's silent and unassuming presence. We need a large room. We need to enlarge our hearts. We need to break out of our tiny self-enclosed space and enter the large room, the vast expanse of wonder and adoration. That is what we really need! It is what is missing in the many movements we create to meet and reflect together on our pastoral outreach. But if wonder and adoration are lacking, there is no road that leads to the Lord. . . . Adoration: that is the attitude we need in the presence of the Eucharist. The Church too must be a large room. Not a small and closed circle, but a community with arms wide open, welcoming to all. Let us ask ourselves this question: when someone approaches who is hurting, who has made a mistake, who has gone astray in life, is the Church, this Church, a room large enough to welcome this person and lead him or her to the joy of an encounter with Christ? Let us not forget that the Eucharist is meant to nourish those who are weary and hungry along the way. A Church of the pure and perfect is a room with no place for anyone. On the other hand, a Church with open doors, that gathers and celebrates around Christ, is a large room where everyone—everyone, the righteous and sinners—can enter.

Looking for 2nd - 6th graders...

On November 1st at the 7pm Mass, we would like 8 children to participate in the Mass by dressing up like various saints. There is nothing that the children need to do other than dress up and know the name of their saint. Monsignor will bring the children on the altar to introduce them and their saint to the congregation. We can only have 8 saints, so volunteers will be on a first come first serve basis. At our next LFF class Oct 23, we can go through the costumes that we have at the church for the children to wear. Costumes can also be your own. Those who would like to provide their own costume are more than welcome. Call Leanna if you are interested: 330-743-3508.

Ministering to the Homebound

Our parish, through the Visitation of Mary Society, meets the Sacramental and spiritual needs of our homebound parishioners. If you are aware of anyone who is in need or desire of our support, please contact the parish office at 330-743-4144. If a member of your family is in the hospital and in need of either Anointing of the Sick or Communion, please call.

Called to Serve Moms in Need

Our Blessed Mother models a profound witness to love and life in the Gospel account of the Visitation. Luke's Gospel tells us that, when Mary learns that her cousin Elizabeth is pregnant, she travels to the hill country "in haste" (Lk 1:39). Despite being unexpectedly pregnant herself, Mary responds to this news with urgency.

She embarks on a long and perhaps difficult journey to be with her cousin during her time of need, bearing Christ to her as He lay quietly hidden in Mary's womb. And, although Jesus is veiled from view, when Mary first arrives John the Baptist leaps for joy in Elizabeth's womb, recognizing the presence of Christ (Lk 1:44). Mary, with Jesus, spends the next three months at Elizabeth's side.

The witness of our Blessed Mother invites us to become more aware of the needs of pregnant and parenting moms in our own parishes and communities. A woman with an unexpected pregnancy may have any number of fears and challenges: facing judgment from her friends and family, losing her job or housing, or being abandoned by the father of her child.

Following Mary's example, we can ask ourselves how to better know these mothers, listen to them, seek understanding, and help them obtain the necessities of life for themselves and their children.¹ How can we, like the Blessed Mother, lovingly support mothers in welcoming and caring for God's gift of life?

Throughout the whole of Scripture, Mary's words are few. Yet, in her sacred encounter with Elizabeth, a powerful declaration pours from her lips. Mary proclaims to all generations that the Lord lifts up the lowly, fills the hungry with good things, and remembers his promise of mercy from age to age (Lk 1:46-56). In both word and deed, Mary speaks a message of hope—not only to Elizabeth, but also to every mother in need and to each of us.

Mary's witness is an invitation to step out in love and compassion. It is a summons to make haste to help vulnerable women who may be isolated and alone. By doing so, we too can bear Christ within us and help others experience His presence.

Inspired by the Blessed Mother's example and guided by the Holy Spirit, may we offer Christ's presence and love to mothers in their time of need through our faithful service and support.

Adoration at Our Lady of Mount Carmel
Basilica

In these troubled times, the church and the world have a great need of Eucharistic Adoration. Jesus is waiting for you in His sacrament of Love. Be generous with your time by offering an hour each week to Our Blessed Lord. The schedule of open hours is printed for your prayerful consideration. Come and meet Jesus in adoration and contemplation full of faith, love and trust in His unconditional love for you. Let this hour be an act of reparation for the great faults and crimes of the world.

Hearing Assist Devices

Do you know someone who has difficulty hearing during Mass? Our Lady of Mt. Carmel-St. Anthony Parish has personal hearing devices available that our parishioners can borrow. These devices can be used at both church buildings and they come with headsets that fit over the ear, so they don't interfere with hearing aids. Speak to Msgr. or Deacon Anthony for more information.

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica is also set up with an audio induction loop that links directly to certain hearing aids.

Newman Center Alumni

Fall Football is here, and we want to celebrate with you! Show your Penguin Pride at our alumni tailgate party on October 29th and gather with us starting at noon at the St. John Henry Newman Center at 254 Madison Avenue Youngstown, Ohio 44504. We invite any alumni and friends of alumni to come together in fellowship to meet new friends and rekindle old friendships alike. Come create new memories with the Catholic Penguins!
