MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Along the WAY

This past week the Basilica hosted the celebration of Columbus Day with a special dinner which featured a very nice meal, music, and seven scholarship awards for students who are attending YSU. The events recognized several families in attendance as well as the contributions of the Knights of Columbus and the Oblate Sisters. Anthony DeTomasi's grandchildren, who travelled from Chicago for the event, were also recognized. DeTomasi commissioned the marble statue of Christopher Columbus, which was recently relocated to the Bocce Court area of the Basilica grounds. The celebration was a genuine tribute to Christopher Columbus and the perennial spirit of discovery.

On Tuesday I travelled to Cleveland to be part of the Annual Convention of the Canon Law Society of America. Bishop Robert Barron gave a very good presentation on the topic of sodality, the call of the Pope to listen to all the members of the Church, but always in the context of the true and authentic teaching of the Gospel and the true teaching of the Catholic Church handed on to her from the Apostles. Whenever the true Church of Jesus seeks to save souls in a modern world, she must be led by the Holy Spirit and not by the mere trends of society.

This past Sunday, St. Anthony Church hosted their annual Fall Spaghetti Dinner. God's choicest blessings on all the volunteers who made this event a success. The money raised will help pay the bills. A report will be printed with the details soon.

Finally, congratulations to the St. Monica Guild of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica on the 84th Anniversary of the society. Think of the countless good you have done as members, for one another, the good of the Church, and the salvation of souls.

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

The Essence of Our Call

The Second Vatican Council called all Christians to preach the Gospel to all people. To the Catholic laity, the Council enjoins the special task of penetrating the secular world, tenderly, lovingly, by putting this Gospel message into their political, economic, and everyday lives. This is a tremendous task! It can bring the light of Christ into the darkest corner of our fragmented, confused, searching, angry, and frightened world. But it demands of us that we put aside all nonessentials, that we stop all the word games, all the useless discussions. Yes, we must now come to the essence of things!

The essence is this: we must begin to live by faith and not by mere "religion." We must have an encounter with God and allow him to enter our very depths. We must remember that God loved us first, and that our religion is truly a love affair between God and us, us and God; it is not merely a system of morals and dogmas.

We must love God back, passionately! Through the other. We must love our neighbor, not only as ourselves but with the heart of God. Christ said to his disciples, "By this shall men know that you are my disciples, that you love one another as I have loved you." To love with the heart of God, we must empty ourselves totally of self, to allow Christ to love through us. Without him we cannot love anything or anyone, not even ourselves.

World Mission Sunday 2022

Be the Lord's 'Witnesses' in Prayer and Support This World Mission Sunday
Today, World Mission Sunday, Pope Francis reminds us that in Baptism we are all called by the Lord to be His missionaries: "You shall be my witnesses" (Acts 1:8). Joining Catholics worldwide this Sunday, we offer our prayers and generous financial support, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, to the Pope's missions.

When you contribute to the World Mission Sunday collection, you make it possible for the Pope to provide mission support to:

- 844,000 catechists teaching the faith
- 258,540 Religious Sisters caring for children and families
- 38,140 seminarians preparing for the priesthood
- 26 million children in primary schools
- 12,000 clinics caring for the sick and dying
- 8,750 homes for orphaned children and the elderly

Your prayers are most treasured, and they, along with financial help offered today, WORLD MISSION SUNDAY, answer Christ's call to be His witnesses. Thank you!

Blessed Pauline Jaricot, who 200 years ago founded the first of the four Pontifical Mission Societies, the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

"...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Luke 18:14

Pride and ego are the root causes of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable or your talent is better than anyone else or your money gives you status is another way of making those things "gods" before God. Pride is the opposite of humility. Remember, all that we have and all that we are is a gift from God. We should be humbled by God's incredible generosity and be grateful for all we have been given. Ultimately, gratitude leads us to humility.
