POPE FRANCIS' INTENTIONS

FOR THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER:

For children who suffer.

We pray for children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans, and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

We pray that we all may be attentive in listening for God's call, and that those who God has called to the priesthood or consecrated religious life will hear Him and answer.

Mass Intentions

Let us make the traditional Advent prayer our own: "Come, Lord Jesus." ... We can say it at the beginning of each day and repeat it often, before our meetings, our studies and our work, before making decisions, in every important or difficult moment of our lives: "Come, Lord Jesus." (Pope Francis)

MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Hearing Assist Devices Available

Do you know someone who has difficulty hearing during Mass? We have personal hearing devices available that our parishioners can borrow. Speak to Msgr., Deacon Anthony, or contact the parish office for more information.

Along the WAY

Let us stop along the way and pause. We have just completed the beautiful observance of our American Thanksgiving. I hope you enjoyed the day and were reminded that there is a lot to be thankful for. May the Lord bless your homes with a true spirit of thanksgiving in spite of the crosses that you may carry.

And now, having celebrated the Liturgical Feast of Christ our King, which challenges all the members of the Church to help build a better world under His Lordship, we begin a new Liturgical Year with the sacred season of Advent. Of course, this time of preparing for Christmas can be very busy, be sure to take time each day for some calm, some quiet prayer, some reflection, so that you and all your loved ones will keep Christ in Christmas.

May this be your holiest, most peaceful, and best Christmas yet!

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

From the Office of Readings in the Liturgy of the Hours First Sunday of Advent

From a catechetical instruction by Saint Cyril of Jerusalem, Bishop

On the twofold coming of Christ

We do not preach only one coming of Christ, but a second as well, much more glorious than the first. The first coming was marked by patience; the second will bring the crown of a divine kingdom.

In general, what relates to our Lord Jesus Christ has two aspects. There is a birth from God before the ages, and a birth from a virgin at the fullness of time. There is a hidden coming, like that of rain on fleece, and a coming before all eyes, still in the future.

At the first coming he was wrapped in swaddling clothes in a manger. At his second coming he will be clothed in light as in a garment. In the first coming he endured the cross, despising the shame; in the second coming he will be in glory, escorted by an army of angels. We look then beyond the first coming and await the second. At the first coming we said: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. At the second we shall say it again; we shall go out with the angels to meet the Lord and cry out in adoration: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

The Savior will not come to be judged again, but to judge those by whom he was judged. At his own judgment he was silent; then he will address those who committed the outrages against him when they crucified him and will remind them: You did these things, and I was silent.

His first coming was to fulfill his plan of love, to teach men by gentle persuasion. This time, whether men like it or not, they will be subjects of his kingdom by necessity. [...] The grace of God the Savior has appeared to all men, instructing us to put aside impiety and worldly desires and live temperately, uprightly, and religiously in this present age, waiting for the joyful hope, the appearance of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. Notice how [St. Paul] speaks of a first coming for which he gives thanks, and a second, the one we still await.

That is why the faith we profess has been handed on to you in these words: He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

Our Lord Jesus Christ will therefore come from heaven. He will come at the end of the world, in glory, at the last day. For there will be an end to this world, and the created world will be made new.

Bring your Baby Jesus figurine to Mass and have Him blessed!

After the 4pm Mass
at St. Anthony Church and the 9am and 11am Masses at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica

A suggestion is that following the blessing, your 'bambinello' is taken home, put in a gift box, wrapped, and placed in a place of honor to await Christmas. Let this be the first gift your family opens on Christmas as together you place the blessed Christ-child figure in the manger and welcome Christmas into your home.

Thursday, December 15 • 7pm to 8:30pm
Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica Main Church

The prophet Isaiah guides our journey through Advent. Excerpts from the book of Isaiah are the most-used texts for the first readings of the Masses leading to Christmas. Isaiah provides us with three unique prophecies on the coming of Emmanuel.

This Advent, you are invited to join Msgr. Cariglio in a study on ISAIAH, using the Ignatius Catholic Study Bible.

Phone 330-743-4144 or email office@olmcsta.com to RSVP.
Good will offerings will be accepted to help cover the cost of the books.

St. Anthony Church
ANGEL TREE
 Christmas Service Project

Our Angel Tree is now up at the back of the church. The “angels” on the tree have Christmas wish lists of children from St. Joseph the Provider School. Please help us make this service project a success by choosing an “angel”, granting them some wishes, and therefore, ensuring them a very special Christmas morning.

Important Instructions for Those Taking Angels

Please be sure to sign the log (on the clip board) after taking an angel. It is very important that you record your name, phone number, and the number of the angel which is listed on the bottom of the angel card. This enables us to make sure no angel is left out. Bring your gift(s) to Mass by Saturday, December 10. You may wrap the gifts or just bring them in, and we will wrap them for you. However, please be sure to return the angel information card with the gifts so that we get them to the right child. It is also a good idea to include a gift receipt in case of an exchange. Finally, remember to keep the ornament as a thank you gift for helping make this service project a success.

St. Anthony of Padua Church Faithful Stewardship

Thank you to all who give so generously to support our parish and its mission. Due to an early publication deadline, contributions for the week of November 19 will be included in next week's bulletin.

*At an hour you do not expect,
the Son of Man will come*

MATTHEW 24:44

"Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come." Matthew 24:42

People who have had health issues or near-death experiences generally have a greater appreciation for each day being a gift from God. The rest of us usually take for granted that we will be around tomorrow. But when you start to look at each day as a gift, you realize all the little miracles that happen daily and you begin to see God's active presence in your life. You grow in gratitude, each day, for all that we have been given.

Retirement Fund for Religious

Religious give thanks. An abbot writes, "Your gift helps ease our burdens and allows us to continue living out our mission of seeking God and serving the Church." God bless you for donating to last week's second collection.

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica Recognized by Youngstown CityScape

On Thursday, November 10, 2022, Sharon Letson, executive director of Youngstown CityScape, awarded Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica the 2022 Beautification Watch Award. The Basilica was presented this award due to the continued beautification of the greenspace around the Basilica, campus, and properties. Through the dedication and diligence of Msgr. Michael J. Cariglio Jr. and the parish community, the Basilica is a beacon of beauty in the Youngstown CityScape.

During the awards ceremony, a specially created video showed the Basilica's grounds and highlighted the beautiful landscaping project that faces Rayen Avenue, known to us as Monte Santa Maria. Seventeen other awards were presented to individuals, neighborhoods, businesses, and institutions that exemplified design, knowledge of gardening, continued growth and a deep sense of pride in the Youngstown community.

Pictured are Director Sharon Letson presenting the award to Pat Butto, parishioner, who received the award on behalf of Msgr. Cariglio.
