MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Along the WAY

Along the way, I found myself at Tinseltown on the Sunday before Thanksgiving, with a group of thirteen parishioners watching Season 3, Episodes 1 & 2, of the internationally acclaimed life of Christ called The Chosen. It was very moving to see The Chosen on the big screen. On Tuesday evening, the group met again for discussion where each person gave their reflection on the show. I found all their remarks extremely enlightening. I too was struck by the coming together of the twelve chosen by Christ for the mission Christ was given for the salvation of the world.

The day before Thanksgiving we held a meeting of the parish's social justice committee. The committee is doing an effective job in meeting the needs of the people who approach us asking for help. I thank all of you who have not forgotten the needy and have contributed donations on their behalf to the Church.

Many ask me along the way where I go for Thanksgiving. Since my mother was called home by Christ in 1995, I have been the guest at the home of my niece Sharon and her family. There are usually 14 plus of us and Sharon, with sister Bea, put together an elegant dinner with all the trimmings. Of course the scale shows the next morning. We have much to be thankful for. I hope all of you had a good Thanksgiving.

This past Sunday we celebrated the First Sunday of Advent, which was the beginning of the new Liturgical year. The Vestibule Men's Club roasted Italian grown chestnuts and gave them out after the Sunday Masses. What a nice tradition, and a great way to put us all in the Christmas Spirit.

Sunday night, with rain, cold, Christmas carols, St. Nicholas, and hot chocolate, we lit the outdoor Christmas Tree. Even without the touch of snow it was very nice and beautiful. The children enjoyed themselves. Thank you, committee. Job well done.

The outdoor decorations are in place and looking good, thanks to Roseann and Richard Sereday of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. At St. Anthony Church this year we have a simple but beautiful outdoor stable for Christmas. Deacon Anthony, Christopher Anthony and Richard Cappellino were the carpenters. I was the general contractor. Thanks to Brenda Poccia for decorating the indoor Advent wreaths and the special plant arrangements at both churches.

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

From the Office of Readings in the Liturgy of the Hours Second Sunday of Advent

From a commentary on Isaiah by Eusebius of Caesarea, bishop

The voice in the wilderness

The voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight the paths of our God. The prophecy makes clear that it is to be fulfilled, not in Jerusalem but in the wilderness: it is there that the glory of the Lord is to appear, and God's salvation is to be made known to all mankind. [...]

The voice commands that a way be prepared for the Word of God: the rough and trackless ground is to be made level, so that our God may find a highway when he comes. Prepare the way of the Lord: the way is the preaching of the Gospel, the new message of consolation, ready to bring to all mankind the knowledge of God's saving power.

Climb on a high mountain, bearer of good news to Zion. Lift up your voice in strength, bearer of good news to Jerusalem. [...] What does it mean to bear the good news but to preach to all nations, but first of all to the cities of Judah, the coming of Christ on earth?

“Therefore, every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.” Matthew 3:10

Do you bear good fruit for Jesus? Do you spend time in prayer or do you waste it with mindless activity? Do you use your talent to help others or are you too busy? Do you use your treasure to support the Church or do you buy more things that go unused. Our time, talent and treasure are gifts from God. What we do with these gifts is our gift back to Him. What gifts are you planning to give to the Lord during this upcoming Christmas season?
