POPE FRANCIS' INTENTIONS

FOR THE MONTH OF DECEMBER:

For volunteer not-for-profit organizations.

We pray that volunteer non-profit organizations committed to human development find people dedicated to the common good and ceaselessly seek out new paths to international cooperation.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

We pray for men and women called by the Lord to be priests, deacons and consecrated religious, that the peace of Christ will guard their hearts and minds as they proclaim the good news of salvation to His people.

Mass Intentions

Let us make the traditional Advent prayer our own: "Come, Lord Jesus." ... We can say it at the beginning of each day and repeat it often, before our meetings, our studies and our work, before making decisions, in every important or difficult moment of our lives: "Come, Lord Jesus." (Pope Francis)

MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Information for the Bulletin

Due to early publication deadlines, we are no longer able to accept items for the bulletins leading up to, and including, Christmas.

Hearing Assist Devices Available

Do you know someone who has difficulty hearing during Mass? We have personal hearing devices available that our parishioners can borrow. Speak to Msgr., Deacon Anthony, or contact the parish office for more information.

Along the WAY

Looking at this past week we had some gracious events along the way. There was the blessing of the outdoor stable and the lighting of the tree near the crib set at St. Anthony Church on Saturday, December 3. It is just the right touch to help us prepare for the coming of our Savior, the Lord Jesus, at St. Anthony. The hospitality after the Saturday blessing hit the spot - St. Anthony Brier Hill Pizza, hot chocolate and pastries. The kids loved it!

On Thursday night, a dozen people gathered to reflect on the words of the Prophet Isaiah during the Catholic Bible Study. Christopher Berardi gave an excellent reflection on the prophet. For prayer we entered the Basilica for the chanting of the Isaiah prophecies by Dena Tufaro. What a sweet and sacred voice. Thank you, Dena. I look forward to gathering with the group again on Thursday, December 15.

On Saturday morning, the ladies gathered for the annual Advent Tea with a full house. Michele Berardi gave the ladies a reflection on her favorite Advent tradition to help them prepare for the Nativity of our Savior.

One of the highlights to the week was the Sunday pre-Christmas dinner for the parish. More important than the excellent food and drink was the gathering of over 150 guests to usher in coming of the Lord at Christmas. Oh how delightful it is to see the brothers and sisters in Christ gathering together, especially after the offering of the Sunday Mass.

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

From the Office of Readings in the Liturgy of the Hours

Third Sunday of Advent

From a sermon by Saint Augustine, bishop

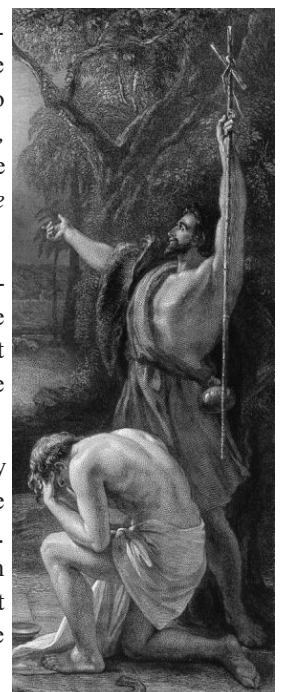

The voice is John, the Word is Christ

John is the voice, but the Lord is the Word who was in the beginning. John is the voice that lasts for a time; from the beginning Christ is the Word who lives for ever. [...] It is in Christ that we all believe; we hope for salvation in him. This is the message the voice cried out.

Because it is hard to distinguish word from voice, even John himself was thought to be the Christ. The voice was thought to be the word. But the voice acknowledged what it was, anxious not to give offense to the word. I am not the Christ, he said, nor Elijah, not the prophet. And the question came: Who are you, then? He replied: I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way for the Lord.

The voice of one crying in the wilderness is the voice of one breaking the silence. Prepare the way for the Lord, he says, as though he were saying: “I speak out in order to lead him into your hearts, but he does not choose to come where I lead him unless you prepare the way for him.”

To prepare the way means to pray well; it means thinking humbly of oneself. We should take our lesson from John the Baptist. He is thought to be the Christ; he declares he is not what they think. He does not take advantage of their mistake to further his own glory. [...] He saw where his salvation lay. He understood that he was a lamp, and his fear was that it might be blown out by the wind of pride.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Beau Allyn Reeder, who was baptized at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica on Sunday, November 27. May he walk with us in the way of Christ, and grow in the knowledge of God's love.

Advent Tea

Thank you to all the ladies who attended our 11th annual Advent Tea on December 3. Patti Rossi & Diana Leone organized a beautiful event with over 120 guests! This year they had 13 hostesses and the tables were just beautiful!

Special thanks to Michele Berardi who was our guest speaker. Michele spoke about the beauty of Advent and the special way we prepare for the birth of Christ.

The special volunteer helper "elves" were high school students from both Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Light of Faith & Family and Ursuline High School's Students of Stewardship.

Next year's event is already booking up. If you are interested in hosting your own table, please contact Patti Rossi (330) 881-8219 or Diana Leone (330) 550-2550 for more information.

St. Anthony, pray for us.

“You too must be patient. Make your hearts firm, because the coming of the Lord is at hand.” James 5:8

Patience is another one of those things many of us struggle with. We want things to go according to our plan and our schedule; we like things to be convenient. Any change brings anxiety and fear. Through daily prayer God reveals to us what He wants us to do with the gifts He has given us. We are able to better align ourselves with God’s will and His plan, which is far better than anything we can come up with on our own

Thank you to the members of St. Monica Guild for donating the non-perishable items to the St. Vincent De Paul Food Pantry.

so very thankful
