Mass Intentions

"God came to visit us in person, by becoming man. He did not embrace our human condition out of duty, no, but out of love. For love, he took on our human nature, for one embraces what one loves. ## MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Parish Council, May 14, 2019

Along the WAY

These past two weeks have been marked with an asthmatic flare up that I find takes too much time to subside. I have followed all the prescriptions of the Doctors, but I must be patient and put up with the discomfort which tries to slow me down.

Here are a few things that I would like to mention as we begin the New Year:

This is the time of the year that brings us some snow accumulation. When the snow melts it invariably reveals the problem of litter on the sides of the streets, in parking lots and even in neighborhoods. We often talk about how we can improve people’s sense of pride for this Mahoning Valley; some care for the environment is a great way to help beautify the community appearance. Be an example and don’t be a litter bug. Just maybe other people will notice you and do the same.

At the rectory and parish activities we should also be most attentive to recycling. We have facilities for recycling and are even billed for it. Shortly after Pope Francis wrote on being careful stewards of God’s creation, I was in Rome at the Vatican Museum. After visiting the Sistine Chapel, I took a break to get a snack at the snack bar. The receptacles were overflowing with thousands of plastic water bottles. I hope that all that plastic was being recycled. Take the time to recycle. It does make a difference. Laudate Si. God be praised.

The Cursillo Movement is up and running again. Cursillo is a short course in Catholic Christianity for persons who seek renewal. Last weekend, at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, we hosted nine women who were making their Cursillo. Two of them were from the parish. Thank you to Lou Fusillo and your team for your hard work to make it a grand success. God’s choicest blessings to you.

The Confirmation class, consisting of twenty-three of our youth, are doing a good job preparing themselves for the Sacrament of Confirmation, which will take place at the Cathedral on March 18, 2023. Thank you for your cooperation, my young people. I ask all of you to pray for them as they seek the fullness of the Holy Spirit.

One last thing, I did take a short break earlier this month, and went off to New York City to enjoy the Broadway Musicals Aida, Six and A Beautiful Noise. They were all excellent. I told the people who sat next to me that if I coughed, I did not have Covid but asthma. They all smiled and said not a problem. One morning I had breakfast with the well-known best selling author, Adriana Trigiani. I will share with you my conversation next week as we go along the WAY.

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

Sunday of the Word of God

On September 30, 2019, Pope Francis announced that the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time would be celebrated as the Sunday of the Word of God. Below are excerpts from Aperuit Illis, Pope Francis’ Apostolic Letter instituting the Sunday of the Word of God.

“This Sunday of the Word of God will be a fitting part of that time of the year when we are encouraged to strengthen our bonds with the Jewish people and to pray for Christian unity.” (3)

“A profound bond links sacred Scripture and the faith of believers. Since faith comes from hearing, and what is heard is based on the word of Christ, believers are bound to listen attentively to the word of the Lord, both in the celebration of the liturgy and in their personal prayer and reflection.” (7)

“The sweetness of God’s words leads us to share it with all those whom we encounter in this life and to proclaim the sure hope that it contains (cf. 1 Pet 3:15-16) ... We should never take God’s word for granted, but instead let ourselves be nourished by it, in order to acknowledge and live fully our relationship with him and with our brothers and sisters. (12)

Blessing for unborn children and their families

O God of justice, God of peace, One in the unity of Father, Son and Holy Spirit, enliven the unity of your Church on earth.

Forgive us for not remembering we are brothers and sisters in equity and justice under your law of love. Help us remember that each of us is created in your Divine image and that we share the dignity of being your children. Heal our broken relationships.

Unite us in a fellowship that recalls our baptism, which has conquered sin and death, hate and division in the power of the Paschal mystery of Jesus Christ. Grant all this, O Lord, in his name and by the power of your Holy Spirit, now and forever, Amen.

The Sunday of the Word of God

“Jesus began to preach” Mt 4:17

The One who is the Word of God has come to speak with us, in his own words and by his own life. ... Let us go to the roots of his preaching, to the very source of the word of life. Today’s Gospel (Mt 4:12-23) helps us to know how, where and to whom Jesus began to preach.

1. How did he begin? With a very simple phrase: “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand” (v.17) ... The kingdom of heaven means the reign of God, that is, the way in which God reigns through his relationship with us. Jesus tells us that the kingdom of heaven is at hand, that God is near. Here is the novelty, the first message: God is not far from us....

We can now understand the direct demand that Jesus makes: “Repent”, in other words, “Change your life.”

... The time when you lived for yourself is over; now is the time for living with and for God, with and for others, with and for love. ... The Lord gives you his word, so that you can receive it like a love letter he has written to you, to help you realize that he is at your side. His word consoles and encourages us. At the same time it challenges us, frees us from the bondage of our selfishness and summons us to conversion.... His word has the power to change our lives and to lead us out of darkness into the light.

2. If we consider where Jesus started his preaching, we see that he began from the very places that were then thought to be “in darkness”. Both the first reading and the Gospel speak to us of people who “sat in the region and shadow of death.” ...Galilee of the nations, this region where Jesus began his preaching ministry, ... was made up of people of different races and was home to a variety of peoples, languages and cultures. ... Yet Jesus started from there. ... He started from a periphery.

Here there is a message for us: the word of salvation ... enters the complex and obscure places in our lives. Now, as then, God wants to visit the very places we think he will never go. ... “Jesus went about all Galilee preaching the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every infirmity” (v. 23)... He is not afraid to explore the terrain of our hearts and to enter the roughest and most difficult corners of our lives. He knows that his mercy alone can heal us, his presence alone can transform us and his word alone can renew us. ...

3. Finally, to whom did Jesus begin to speak? The Gospel says that, “as he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. And he said to them,

“Follow me, and I will make you fishers of me” (Mt. 4:18-19). The first people to be called were fishermen: ... ordinary working people. ... He was speaking to fishermen, using the language they understood. Their lives changed on the spot. He called them where they were and as they were, in order to make them sharers in his mission. ...

That is why we need his word: so that we can hear, amid the thousands of other words in our daily lives, that one word that speaks to us not about things, but about life.

Dear brothers and sisters, let us make room inside ourselves for the word of God!

Each day, let us read a verse or two of the Bible. Let us begin with the Gospel: let us keep it open on our table, carry it in our pocket or bag, read it on our cell phones, and allow it to inspire us daily. We will discover that God is close to us, that he dispels our darkness and, with great love, leads our lives into deep waters.

Pope Francis, Homily from Sunday of the Word of God, 26 January 2020.

“When the Sacred Scriptures are read in the Church, God himself speaks to his people, and Christ, present in his word, proclaims the Gospel.” (GIRM, no. 29)

We congratulate Henry William Simmons who was baptized at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica last weekend. May Henry discover the happiness of being loved by God.

“He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed Him.”
Matthew 4:22

Just as Jesus called the first apostles, He calls each of us to follow Him, too. Not everyone is called to leave their business or family behind, but we are expected to put God first in everything. In gratitude to God, we should give our first and best of everything to Him: our time in daily prayer, our talent in participating in one of our parish ministries and our treasure to support the financial needs of our parish mission.

All parishioners are invited to help make our 2023 Italian Festival a success by supporting our Festival Raffle. Each parish family is asked to sell or consider purchasing five books of tickets, which have been mailed. If you have not received your tickets, please contact the Parish Office. Total prizes are worth $9,300 and our goal is a profit of $40,000. We appreciate your help in this cause.

Mya has Sanfilippo is a rare genetic condition that causes fatal brain damage. It is a type of childhood Alzheimer's. She is only 13 years old and is unfortunately losing her memory and motor skills and is now also having seizures. Unfortunately there is no treatment or cure and they don't live past their teens. Please come out and support this family at this very difficult time.
