POPE FRANCIS' INTENTIONS

FOR THE MONTH OF MARCH:

For victims of abuse

We pray for those who have suffered harm from members of the Church; may they find within the Church herself a concrete response to their pain and suffering.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

We pray that priests, deacons, sisters and brothers who, for the sake of Christ, have suffered the loss of all things, will be strengthened in their vocations to bring many souls to the knowledge of salvation.

Mass Intentions & Devotions

MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Along the WAY

Oh, what a great week this was, filled with many wonderful activities! This past Wednesday we partnered with all the parishes of the Diocese in the event called, "The Light is on for You." From 6:30pm to 8:00pm, the doors of the Basilica were open for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The response was very good, meaning this event was on target for warmly inviting people to celebrate the Sacrament during Lent. Fr. Joseph Blasko assisted and I thank him for being here with us. Our larger night for the Sacrament of Reconciliation will be at 7pm on March 31st, the Fifth Friday of Lent, where we will have five or six confessors available to hear your confessions.

The week was marked by funerals and a wedding; a bittersweet mix. Eternal reward to the faithful departed and lots of grace and blessings to the fine couple beginning their married life together.

At the Sunday 11am Mass we hosted the Catholic Collegiate Association of Youngstown. They are a delightful group of graduates from different colleges who share their Catholic faith. This past Sunday was also the monthly Spaghetti Dinner at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, with a bumper crowd of 994 hungry pasta lovers. Thank you volunteers for serving the dinners with a smile. It was very delicious.

All this and more as we go along the Way... Blessed Lent.

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

Excerpts from REDEMPTORIS CUSTOS on the Person and Mission of Saint Joseph an Apostolic Exhortation by St. Pope John Paul II, August 15, 1989

1. "Joseph did as the angel of the Lord commanded him and took his wife" (cf. Mt 1 :24).

Inspired by the Gospel, the Fathers of the Church from the earliest centuries stressed that just as St. Joseph took loving care of Mary and gladly dedicated himself to Jesus Christ's upbringing, he likewise watches over and protects Christ's Mystical Body, that is, the Church, of which the Virgin Mary is the exemplar and model.

17. In the course of that pilgrimage of faith which was his life, Joseph, like Mary, remained faithful to God's call until the end. While Mary's life was the bringing to fullness of that fiat first spoken at the Annunciation, at the moment of Joseph's own "annunciation" he said nothing; instead he simply "did as the angel of the Lord commanded him" (Mt 1:24). And this first "doing" became the beginning of "Joseph's way." The Gospels do not record any word ever spoken by Joseph along that way. But the silence of Joseph has its own special eloquence, for thanks to that silence we can understand the truth of the Gospel's judgment that he was "a just man" (Mt 1:19).

One must come to understand this truth, for it contains one of the most important testimonies concerning man and his vocation. Through many generations the Church has read this testimony with ever greater attention and with deeper understanding, drawing, as it were, "what is new and what is old" (Mt 13:52) from the storehouse of the noble figure of Joseph.

31. Recalling that God wished to entrust the beginnings of our redemption to the faithful care of St. Joseph, she asks God to grant that she may faithfully cooperate in the work of salvation; that she may receive the same faithfulness and purity of heart that inspired Joseph in serving the Incarnate World; and that she may walk before God in the ways of holiness and justice, following Joseph's example and through his intercession.

My Dear Parishioners,

It gives me great joy to share with you that our parish now has a subscription to FORMED, a premier online platform filled with over 4,000 Catholic studies, movies, audio dramas, talks, e-books, and even cartoons for our children. FORMED has content from over 60 apostolates, including Augustine Institute, Ignatius Press, and the Knights of Columbus, with material that is professional produced, engaging, and solid in its catechism. Best of all, this material is free to you.

Our parish will be using the material on FORMED to support our ministries and provide continuing education for staff members and parishioners, as well as outreach for our sick and homebound members. Much of the content is available in both English and Spanish.

You can enjoy FORMED on your computer or on your television with an inexpensive Roku device or Apple TV. You can even listen on your phone as you commute to work or do chores.

My hope and prayer is that the content on FORMED will enrich, deepen, and inspire your faith.

Eternal Rest Grant Unto

Helen Furnish, age 95
whose Funeral Mass was this past week.

This weekend's Gospel offers the familiar telling of "the man born blind". In this story, the behavior of the crowd is rather disturbing. On one hand, they are consumed with the perceived sin that they believe placed the blind man in his condition, rather than focusing on how they could help him. And when Jesus provides healing, they are more concerned on his violating their customs, than rejoicing in the restoration of health. How often in our own society do we find people blaming others for their own poverty, and even chastising those who offer help. Jesus himself reminds us that we are called to recognize suffering, and work to alleviate it in our world. Your prayerful response to the Annual Diocesan Appeal: One in Hope, One in Mission, makes possible the compassionate work of Catholic Charities and our ability to extend the mission of the Church throughout our diocese. To date, 55 families from our parish have pledged $57,279.00 toward our goal of $82,900.00. This is our share of the $4,000,000 goal for our entire diocesan family. If you have not yet made a pledge, please consider doing so between now and Palm Sunday. For more information about the work of the appeal or to make a gift online, please visit www.doy.org. Thank you and God bless you. Together, we pray, "That all may be one!".
