MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Along the Way

After spending twenty-three days at St. Elizabeth Hospital in downtown Youngstown following my stroke, it feels very good to be home. Thank you for your prayers, delightful visits, get well cards, flowers, soups, salads, fruit, biscotti, candy, etc. Thank you for sneaking Linguini into the hospital to see me. His occasional barks got him into trouble and got him put on the hospital's most wanted list. He said it was worth it.

Over the next five weeks, I remain an outpatient at Mercy rehabilitation in order to bring back full use of the right side of my body, from head to toe. It is a slow process, but the rehab is working. I need your prayers to Our Lord, Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and to St. Anthony. It was most awesome to concelebrate the Masses last weekend at St. Anthony and at the Basilica with the Dominican priests, and with you. This past Tuesday, I was the main priest at the seventh week of the St. Anthony Novena Mass since we did not have a visiting priest. It was a very special 40 minutes of life, as we go along the Way.

A reminder that visitations to the rectory must be limited as I continue to recover. Should you wish to visit, please arrange a visit by contacting Michele Berardi at the Parish Office: 330-743-4144.

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

Excerpts from His Holiness Pope Francis' Message for the 2023 World Day of Prayer for Vocations

This is now the sixtieth time that we are celebrating the World Day of Prayer for Vocations, established by Saint Paul VI in 1964, during the Second Vatican Ecumenical Council. This providential initiative seeks to assist the members of the People of God, as individuals and as communities, to respond to the call and mission that the Lord entrusts to each of us in today's world, amid its afflictions and its hopes, its challenges and its achievements.

This year I would ask you, in your reflection and prayer, to take as your guide the theme "Vocation: Grace and Mission". This Day is a precious opportunity for recalling with wonder that the Lord's call is grace, complete gift, and at the same time a commitment to bring the Gospel to others. We are called to a faith that bears witness, one that closely connects the life of grace, as experienced in the sacraments and ecclesial communion, to our apostolate in the world. Led by the Spirit, Christians are challenged to respond to existential peripheries and human dramas, ever conscious that the mission is God's work; it is not carried out by us alone, but always in ecclesial communion, together with our brothers and sisters, and under the guidance of the Church's pastors. For this has always been God's dream: that we should live with him in a communion of love...

Within the Church, all of us are servants, in accordance with the variety of our vocations, charisms and ministries. Our common vocation to give ourselves in love develops and finds concrete expression in the life of lay men and women, devoted to raising a family as a small domestic church and working as a leaven of the Gospel to renew the different sectors of society; in the testimony of consecrated women and men who are completely committed to God for the sake of their brothers and sisters as a prophetic sign of the kingdom of God; in ordained ministers – deacons, priests and bishops – placed at the service of preaching, prayer and fostering the communion of the holy People of God. Only in relation with all the others, does any particular vocation in the Church fully disclose its true nature and richness. Viewed in this light, the Church is a vocational "symphony", with every vocation united yet distinct, in harmony and joined together in "going forth" to radiate throughout the world the new life of the kingdom of God.

May the Virgin Mary watch over you and protect you. With my blessing.

"And Peter said to them, 'Repent, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ...'" Acts 2:38

The word "repent" means to turn from sin - to change our thoughts, words and actions. Change that is permanent comes from within – a transformation or conversion of heart. This requires prayer, discipline and perseverance. Change is hard. The first step is recognizing that we are broken and that we need God's help. The good news - we are not alone in our journey. Ask Jesus daily for guidance and patiently listen for his response.

VIANNEY VOCATIONS

God calls people to serve the Church in different ways. This is called your vocation.

VIANNEY VOCATIONS

A Prayer for My Vocation

I glorify You, God in all I do.
In mind, body, and spirit, I give my best to You.

Help me to follow your will no matter the call:
sister, brother, or priest, I promise my all.

If you call me to marriage, I promise to love, and to teach my own children to seek grace from above.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Today the Church throughout the world prays for vocations. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for vocations to the priesthood and religious life? Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God’s call. If you think God is calling you to serve the Church as a priest or in the consecrated life, contact Fr. Chad Johnson at (330) 744-8451 or cjohnson@youngstowndiocese.org.

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

The beloved Archbishop Sheen, whose cause for canonization is open in Rome, presents a profound and deeply spiritual look at the meaning of the priesthood and relationship of the priest with Christ as an alter Christus. Sheen delves deeply into what he considers the main character of the priesthood, and one not often discussed, that of being, like Christ, a "holy victim". To be like Christ, Sheen emphasizes that the priest must imitate Christ in His example of sacrifice, offering himself as a victim to make His Incarnation continually present in the world.

ONE IN HOPE,
ONE IN MISSION
ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

“The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.”
Psalm 23:1

We know that there are many who want – not lavish things, but the basic necessities of life. The challenge for many of us is to extend Christ’s love to others by sharing the blessings we have received with them. Through the Annual Diocesan Appeal: One in Hope, One in Mission, we have an opportunity to share our blessings with those in need. If you have not yet made a prayerful response to the Appeal, please take some time to reflect on your ability to participate using either a pledge card available at our Church or by visiting www.doy.org and clicking on the Diocesan Appeal button. To date, the members of our parish have pledged $73,500 toward our parish goal of $82,900. The overall goal of the diocese is $4,000,000. All dollars raised remain within the six counties of our diocesan community to assist in the work of charity and advance the mission of the Church. On behalf of Bishop Bonnar and all who will be served by the Annual Diocesan Appeal – THANK YOU!
