MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Parish Council, May 14, 2019

Along the Way

Some very pleasing events took place this past week. On a personal level, occupational therapy, physical therapy, and speech therapy is very progressive, though also very aggressive and it can tire me out. But I think, "no pain, no gain." Nevertheless, I must be careful not to overdo it. It is a delicate balance.

I have been enjoying meeting with several parents who are having their infants receive the Sacrament of Baptism, and with young adults who are preparing for the Sacrament of Marriage. It is a joy to journey with them during these special occasions in life.

The children receiving their First Holy Communion today had a retreat day last Saturday. Talk about energy!! They prayed hard, they learned hard, and they had fun. They are learning to travel well as they go along the Way.

Pastor and Rector

Homily of His Holiness Pope Francis, During a Mass with First Communions on May 6, 2019

Dear boys and girls, . . . I am sure you will never forget this day: your first encounter with Jesus in the sacrament of the Eucharist. One of you might ask me: How can we meet Jesus? He lived a long time ago, but then he died and was laid in the tomb! It is true: Jesus carried out an immense act of love to save human beings of all times. He remained in the tomb for three days, but we know – the Apostles and many other witnesses who saw him alive have assured us – that God, his Father and ours, raised him up. Now Jesus is alive and is here with us. That is why we can encounter him today in the Eucharist. We do not see him with our physical eyes, but we do see him with the eyes of faith.

I am looking at you, . . . you are dressed for a celebration! First Communion is, above all, a celebration. We celebrate Jesus, who wants to remain always by our side. He will always be with us. . . . Making your First Communion shows that you want to be closer to Jesus every day, to grow in friendship with him and to lead other people to share in the joy he wants us to feel. The Lord needs you, because he wants to work the miracle of bringing his joy to many of your friends and family members.

Dear boys and girls, I am happy to share this great moment with you and help you meet Jesus. For you, this is a day to be celebrated in a spirit of friendship, a spirit of joy and fraternity. In a spirit also of communion among yourselves and with the whole Church, which, especially in the Eucharist, expresses the communion that makes all of us brothers and sisters. This is our identity card: God is our Father, Jesus is our brother, the Church is our family. All of us are brothers and sisters, and our law is love.

I ask you always to pray with the same enthusiasm and joy that you feel today. Remember that this is the sacrament of your first Communion, but not your last Communion! Today remember too that Jesus is always there, waiting for you. I hope that today will be the beginning of many Communions, so that your hearts may always, like today, be festive, full of joy and, above all else, gratitude.

ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

One of the ways in which we are invited to share God's love to those in need is through the Annual Diocesan Appeal: One in Hope, One in Mission. This combined effort of the People of God across our six counties not only serves the poor but provides necessary funds to further the mission of the Church. This past week, the collective efforts of over 9,000 families in the diocese has generated pledges totaling more than $3,000,000 (75%) of the total goal. To date, our 166 households in our parish family have made pledges to help us reach our goal of $82,900. This week, letters went out to 4,000 diocesan households who made a gift last year but have yet to do so this year. If you receive one of those letters, please take some time to prayerfully reflect on your ability to contribute. Every gift brings us closer to the goal. Thank you to everyone who has already made a gift and to those who are prayerfully considering their gift. God bless you all.
