POPE FRANCIS' INTENTIONS

FOR THE MONTH OF AUGUST:

For World Youth Day.

We pray the World Youth Day in Lisbon will help young people to live and witness the Gospel in their own lives.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

We pray for all our priests who bring us to the mountain of Christ at every Mass and feed us with His transforming love in the sacraments.

Mass Intentions

I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, true man, is here in the Eucharist, exposed on the altar. Body, Soul, Flesh and Blood, humanity, divinity. He told me so. "I am with you always, even until the consummation of the world." (Matt. 28:20). Under the form of bread and wine, for my nourishment, lest I faint by the way, his Real Presence. I am fainting always, yet I know I will endure this journey, some of it steeper, stiffer than others. - Dorothy Day

MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Along the Way

Last week, I spent time catching up on the tasks that awaited my attention at the Diocesan Tribunal. It is always a good thing to see the desktop clearing off.

On Thursday evening, we welcomed Bob Barko Jr. as a new member of the Parish Council, and recognized the renewal of three appointed members for a period of two years - Lou Fusillo chair, Kim Howe vice-chair, and Patricia Butto. Jessica Meso returned to council from a sick leave and is enjoying a happy return to good health. Thank God.

This past weekend we did our appeal to the Faithful to consider a weekly scheduled Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament at the Little Flower Chapel in the Basilica. May this important appeal bear fruit.

Also on Sunday, there was much joy surrounding the Baptism of Logan Alvino Caldwell. What stood out was Logan's many first cousins, who were absolutely excited about witnessing their cousin's Baptism. It is awesome to see the little ones show their Faith in Christ as all of us go along the Way. . .

American Eucharistic Witness: Sacrifice and the Testimony of Francis Cardinal George (Part 2)

by Michael Heinlein

. . . After pursuing seminary studies with the Oblates of Mary Immaculate, a missionary congregation of French origin, George would go on to be a leader in the congregation. As such, he was an agent for reform and renewal, and he led his brothers and those they served closer to Christ.

THE LEGACY OF CARDINAL FRANCIS GEORGE

Later in life, amid the busyness of his office as Archbishop in Chicago and many other extra positions he held, including vice president and president of the U.S. bishops' conference, George faced a new set of sufferings as the result of bladder cancer. "The privileged way of giving glory to Christ in the Church is to suffer martyrdom," he wrote on the occasion of his tenth anniversary as Chicago's archbishop in 2007. "Not yet called to bloody martyrdom, we... need to become ever clearer and more intentional about how we are to witness to the Lord and give him glory through the offering of our lives, the joining of our self-sacrifice to his." Through every imaginable difficulty, Cardinal George truly persevered in giving witness to the Lord through the offering of his life.

Francis Cardinal George Woodcut Print by Connor Miller

When asked about his legacy at the end of his time as archbishop, George diverted the question back to Christ. "At some point, Christ will question me: 'What have you done with my people? Are they holier because of your ministry? Are they more generous? More loving toward others?'" In short, you are my legacy." . . . Through pain, suffering, and sacrifice, he persevered and made an offering of his life for others. This is Eucharistic living.

Cardinal George once observed that "no matter what the world thinks of us, no matter how our position in society might shift, we are at the center of God's plan for the whole world. And what we do in celebrating the Eucharist is the most important thing that happens in this world." He added, "Every time the Mass is celebrated the center of the universe is on this altar, and that's what keeps us all going." That's certainly what kept him going. That's what enabled him to live as he once taught: "The only thing we take with us when we die is what we have given away." That's what shaped, defined, and gave meaning to his life. That's what made him a man of pastoral availability, who poured out his life in service to Christ and the Church.

A special shout-out to Craig Ziobert and Christine Langer for providing beautiful piano selections during lunch. It was a joyous event in which all who attended shared fellowship and community in faith.

Funeral Mass Traditions

The Catholic Church has many beautiful traditions that have developed over the centuries. Our Lady of Mt. Carmel - St. Anthony of Padua Parish seeks to preserve and utilize many of these wonderful customs and traditions. One of these traditions is the optional use of Black Vestments for All Soul's Day, Funeral Masses, and Masses for the Dead. The parish is making available the option of using either White, Purple, or Black Vestments upon request for Funeral Masses and Masses for the Dead. Black Vestments are a wonderful way to remember our mortality and imperfection, while we mourn the loss of loved ones. In fact, this is why wearing black to funerals by the laity is traditionally commonplace in Europe and the United States. Similarly, the Black Vestments remind us to pray for our loved ones, that they may rest in peace.

Paid for by Save Our Constitution

At the end of February the Catholic Bishops of Ohio jointly issued a letter in which they warn Catholics and all people of good will that “In Ohio, the dignity of life in its earliest stages is threatened by groups proposing an amendment to Ohio’s Constitution for the November 2023 ballot that would enshrine and expand abortion at the expense of protections for preborn children and women” and they encourage us to vote against this amendment.

In the meantime, another amendment to the Ohio Constitution is being proposed in a special election on August 8: Issue One, which would “require that any proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Ohio receive the approval of at least 60 percent of eligible voters voting on the proposed amendment.” Our Ohio Catholic Bishops have taken a neutral stance on Issue One on the August ballot since it does not have any direct moral content.

To summarize, while the Catholic Bishops of Ohio are encouraging us to vote NO on the abortion amendment on the November ballot (remember, “NO” in NOvember), they are not taking a position one way or another on Issue One on the upcoming August ballot.
