MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Parish Council, May 14, 2019

Along the Way

As I write this, we just completed Our Lady of Mt. Carmel's annual Italian Festa. While two of the days were quite hot, the breeze and clouds deflected the heat. It seemed that a few rain showers did not dampen the spirits of those who joined us in celebration. Thank you Scott Schulick, Chair, and the Board of Trustees. Thank you volunteers, both veterans, and the new and young. You make it happen. A special thank you to Michele DeTunno, who revamped the Children's Area, which was a big hit for the families and the children.

The outdoor Mass and parade were truly a majestic offering to the Lord, our God. Love for our Blessed Mother shows in the faces of our elders and our youth. The Evangelization Tent and the special hours of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, as well as the tours of the Basilica, were very well received.

Of course, the Italian music and food was exquisite. I was honored to be named Italian Man of the Year. Congratulations to Angela DiFrangia who was honored as the Italian Woman of the Year. Well deserved!

Our theme this year was the neighborhood Italian grocery stores that were once in all the neighborhoods of Youngstown. Everything fresh. I, from the age of five, grew up in my Dad's Italian store in Ravenna and daily awaited deliveries from the Youngstown Italian distributors. I sing the praises of the Alimentari di Mercato - the Italian Grocery Market. There you find the meaning of respect, the table, family, and the genuine article as you go along the Way. . .

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

Reflection on The Priority of Christ

by Bishop Barron

While strolling through the old section of Frankfurt with one of her friends, Edith Stein chanced upon the cathedral. The two women entered the building as tourists, intent upon admiring the architecture. Edith spied a woman, fresh from her rounds of shopping, kneeling in the empty church, lost in prayer. She had certainly seen people at prayer during synagogue services or around the seder table at home, or at Protestant worship, but she had never seen anything like this: "This was entirely new to me. . . . Here was someone interrupting her everyday shopping errands to come into this church, although [sic] one other person was in it, as though she were here for an intimate conversation. I could never forget that."

Silent adoration of the Eucharistic Christ would become essential to Edith's spirituality. Despite her extremely hectic teaching schedule, she would spend hours in silent prayer, kneeling motionless before the Blessed Sacrament, sometimes passing an entire night in such devotion. So impressed were the sisters by her prayerfulness that they "allowed her to place a chair off to the side of the altar, hidden from the community as well as the congregation, in the sanctuary of the church. There, tucked away behind a column, Edith could sit or kneel for hours either absorbed in the Mass or private prayer." The presence of Jesus in the Eucharist would become the organizing center of her life, the beginning and end of all her activities.

Bishop Barron. "The Priority of Christ." The Holy Hour, ed. Matthew Becklo (Word on Fire Catholic Ministries, 2020), 30-31.

ST. TERESA BENEDICTA OF THE CROSS (EDITH STEIN)

August 9th

St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross was born in 1891 in Breslau, Poland to a large Jewish family. She was an outstanding student, a philosopher, and a teacher. Baptized Catholic in 1922, she entered the Carmelite convent in Cologne, Germany in 1933. She was arrested by the Gestapo on Aug. 2, 1942, was sent to Auschwitz on Aug. 7, and is believed to have died in a gas chamber on Aug. 9.

SPECIAL ELECTION

TUESDAY
8 AUGUST 2023

Issue 1

Asks voters if Ohio should "Require that any proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Ohio receive the approval of at least 60 percent of eligible voters voting on the proposed amendment."

Bishops' Position

The Bishops of Ohio do not have a position on Issue 1 as it does not have moral content. However, as "responsible citizenship is a virtue, and participation in political life is a moral obligation" (Faithful Citizenship, No. 13), the bishops urge Catholics in Ohio to register and vote in the special election.

How the Catholic Church in Ohio Supports Women in Need

By supporting pregnant women, families, and those affected by abortion:

Catholic Charities - Sponsors educational programs for expecting mothers and fathers and accompanies families into parenting; Supports families with programs related to housing, food insecurity, and other needs

Project Rachel - Provides confidential post-abortion healing to women and men affected by abortion

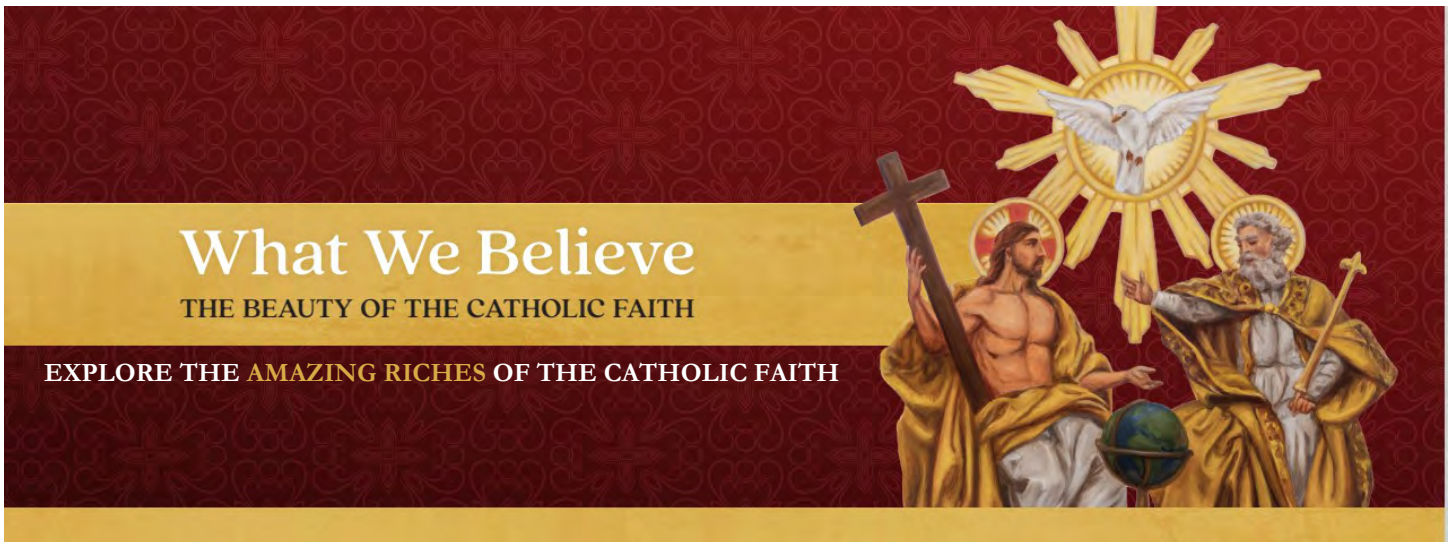

By advocating for a culture of life in Ohio public policy:

- Eliminating sales tax for baby products*
- Investing in the Healthy Beginnings at Home program to stabilize housing for vulnerable pregnant women *
- Extending Ohio Works First cash assistance eligibility for the full duration of a woman's pregnancy*
- A new doula program to address infant and maternal mortality rates, especially in minority communities*
- Supporting pregnancy resource centers*
- Growing school choice access to the greatest number of families in Ohio history, especially low-income and middle-class families*
- Expanding Medicaid for pregnant women and children
- Reforming Ohio adoption law to support birth mothers and adopting families
- Establishing a child tax credit to help Ohio families

*The Catholic Conference of Ohio succeeded in advocating for these policies and continues to lobby for laws that express "radical solidarity" with pregnant women.

Catering at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica

For many years, Fusillo Catering has been the exclusive provider of catering services at the Basilica, and their services have been well received. While the Basilica appreciates its relationship with Fusillo Catering, it has been decided that a change in direction will provide more options for families of the parish and our guests. Moving forward, events held at the Basilica will be served by caterers whose names are on an approved list, which we are finalizing. Persons wishing to hold events should contact the parish office for more information. Fusillo Catering will be fulfilling events that have already been scheduled, between now and June 30, 2024.
