We pray that trusting in Christ's words to Peter, all those called to follow the Lord as priests, and in the consecrated life will recognize the gift of their call and follow Him faithfully.

On Sundays and other holy days of obligation the faithful are bound to participate in the Mass; they are also to abstain from those labors and business concerns which impede the worship to be rendered to God, the joy which is proper to the Lord's Day, or the proper relaxation of the mind and body. Canon 1247, Code of Canon Law.

MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Along the Way

In Italy, this past week was the week to celebrate the Ferragosto or the week dedicated to festivals celebrating the Blessed Mother Assumed Body and Soul into Heaven when her earthly journey was ended. Similarly, the National Shrine of Our Lady of Lebanon in North Jackson holds a three day festival in honor of the Assumption of Mary each year. At Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica, our Holy Day Masses were devoutly celebrated by the faithful. It was beautiful.

We held a finance committee meeting for both St. Anthony Church and Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. This fiscal year ended in the black due to the generosity of the congregations. A huge blessing! With the grace of God, may our dutiful stewardship continue.

At St. Anthony Church, in association with the Brier Hill Festival, the 4pm Mass on Saturday was followed by a spontaneous outdoor procession of St. Rocco, a favorite Saint of the Historic Brier Hill. He is a great Saint to ask for healing both physical and spiritual. St. Anthony Pizza was a hit at the Brier Hill Festival. Thank you volunteers for the pizza and those who governed the parking lot of the Church, keeping it a safe environment.

Along the Way, I got to go to the Scrappers baseball game. Great weather and they won!

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

American Eucharistic Witnesses: A Priest for the Body of Christ—Venerable August Tolton (Part 1)

by Bishop Joseph N. Perry

Born into slavery and baptized in northeast Missouri in 1854, Augustus Tolton's . . . father escaped to join the Union army after the Battle of Fort Sumter in 1861. A year later, . . . his mother Martha Jane . . . courageously made her own escape from slavery. Carrying a twenty-month-old baby girl in her arms, and with her two sons Charles and Augustus by her side, she plunged into the night towards freedom.

They made their way to the North. . . [where] Martha Jane settled with her three children in Quincy in a section of the small town where former slaves had taken refuge. . . In Illinois, . . . Blacks were permitted to attend church with whites only if they remained in the sequestered part of the church reserved for them, and when she attempted to enroll her children in the Catholic school, the white parents threatened the priest in opposition. In the end, the Tolton children were tutored privately by the School Sisters of Notre Dame.

A CHALLENGING ROAD TO THE PRIESTHOOD

Love for the Eucharist marked these young years of Augustus' life. . . He was spiritually mentored by courageous parish priests, often serving at Mass as an altar boy, and he frequently could be found praying alone before the tabernacle in his parish church. . . His parish priests . . . tried for nearly eight years to get him into an American seminary. Tolton was rejected by every one of them because he was black. Undaunted, the priests continued to help him. . .

Finally, in 1878, the Franciscan College in Quincy accepted Augustus as a special student, and, two years later, the friars succeeded in getting him enrolled at the college seminary of the Propaganda Fide in Rome to be prepared as a missionary for Africa. During his studies for the priesthood, Tolton learned to speak fluent German, Italian, Latin, and Greek. He also studied various African dialects. Already known for his beautiful voice, the young seminarian became an accomplished musician. For the first time in his life, Augustus experienced racial harmony as well as the acceptance and love of the Catholic Church.

On Holy Saturday at St. John Lateran Basilica in Rome, April 24, 1886, Augustus Tolton was finally ordained a priest, celebrating his first public Mass inside St. Peter's Basilica on Easter Sunday. He was thirty-one. . . Assuming he would be sent to Africa, it came as a surprise to Tolton when the Cardinal in charge of the Propaganda Fide told him that he was being sent back to the United States to his home diocese. Cardinal Giovanni Simeoni spoke frankly and sincerely to the new priest: "America needs Negro priests... America has been called the most enlightened nation; we will see now whether it deserves that honor." The Cardinal Prefect continued, "If the United States has never seen a black priest, it must see one now."

Have you thought about RCIA?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (soon to be OCIA)

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process for adults who desire to join the Catholic faith and for those seeking more information on the Catholic Church. RCIA can also be a method for Catholics to complete their reception of the initiation sacraments. The rite is designed for adults “who after hearing the mystery of Christ proclaimed, consciously and freely seek the living God.” “By God’s help they will be strengthened spiritually during their preparation and at the proper time receive the sacraments fruitfully.”

WHO IS RCIA FOR?

- ♦ Non-Catholics who want to find out more about the Catholic Faith
- ♦ Those who want to join the Catholic Church through Baptism, or Profession of Faith
- ♦ Those who were baptized Catholic as infants but never received religious education, Confirmation, or First Eucharist.

CONTACT

Michele Berardi at the Parish Office for more information

Through RCIA I developed a stronger understanding of my faith in God and family. After being married at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, baptizing my own children, and celebrating various holidays, I developed an interest in becoming Catholic. Today, I am happy that I took the time to take the journey. I believe that having Monsignor as a guide helped develop who I am today. Chris and Michele Berardi, as well as others leading the program, answered any and all questions and are extremely knowledgeable and inspirational faith leaders. I look back fondly on the time I was able to spend with my Godfather, George Mottle, as we received the catechesis together. Overall, I am proud to be a member of Mt. Carmel. If you are hesitant because of age, work, time, etc., today is just as good a day as any to begin the process.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness
and snares of the devil;
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;
And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

WHERE DOES IT SAY THAT?

THIS CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT...

THREATENS PARENTAL RIGHTS

By using "individual" instead of adult or woman, anyone under the age of 18 could have an abortion or make any other reproductive decision without their parents' consent or notification.

PUTS WOMEN AT RISK

Current Ohio laws* require abortion providers to explain procedure risks and ensure access to hospital transfer if needed. These health and safety standards could be seen as a "burden" and be eliminated, making it even less safe for women seeking an abortion.

ALLOWS ABORTIONS THROUGH 9 MONTHS OF PREGNANCY

In U.S. law, "health" includes age or physical, emotional, or psychological well-being. This means a woman's age or emotional health could be cited to justify aborting a full-term baby. An abortion-providing physician would decide when a baby could survive outside the womb, leaving no clear protections for preborn children.

IS MISLEADING

Referring to "miscarriage care" promotes a myth that a "right to abortion" is necessary to preserve care for miscarriages and ectopic pregnancies. This is false. Catholic hospitals have always provided comprehensive miscarriage care and will continue to do so regardless of the outcome of this vote.

ARTICLE I, SECTION 22

The Right to Reproductive Freedom with Protections for Health and Safety

1. Every individual has a right to make and carry out one's own reproductive decisions, including but not limited to decisions on contraception, fertility treatment, continuing one's own pregnancy, miscarriage care, and abortion.
2. The State shall not, directly or indirectly, burden, penalize, prohibit, interfere with, or discriminate against either an individual's voluntary exercise of this right or a person or entity that assists an individual exercising this right, unless the State demonstrates that it is using the least restrictive means to advance the individual's health in accordance with widely accepted and evidence-based standards of care.
3. However, abortion may be prohibited after fetal viability. But in no case may such an abortion be prohibited if in the professional judgment of the pregnant patient's treating physician it is necessary to protect the pregnant patient's life or health.
4. As used in this Section, "Fetal viability" means "the point in a pregnancy when, in the professional judgment of the pregnant patient's treating physician, the fetus has a significant likelihood of survival outside the uterus with reasonable measures. This is determined on a case-by-case basis"; and "State" includes any governmental entity and political subdivision.
5. This Section is self-executing.

ST. ANTHONY OF PADUA CHURCH

Spaghetti
DINNER

OCTOBER 15, 2023

It's hard to imagine that we are again looking ahead to our Fall Spaghetti Dinner. Letters have been sent out to our Golden Patrons and placemat and ticket patrons. We are again begging for Italian Auction baskets and gift cards. If you can help by donating a basket, gift card, lottery ticket, or new items you may have received but cannot use, June will be happy to make up a basket in your name. To contact June phone 330-744-5091.

Thank you

Thank you to everyone who helped at the Brier Hill Festival on behalf of St. Anthony Church. You did a great job! Thank you to Deacon Tony for overseeing the parking lot and Ernie for directing operations for our pizza crew (both from St. Anthony's and Mt. Carmel) and the worker who went a little further selling them. Job well done! May God bless every one of you. Since we had so much fun, all are welcome to come on Saturday after Labor Day to start our weekly pizza sales.
