Along the Way

This past week included an excellent meeting with the Chair and the Trustees of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel's Annual Italian Festival. It is patent that they are on their toes to make next year's festival even more successful than this year's. As Pastor and parish community, we are most grateful to them.

In this special year in the United States of Eucharistic Revival, the parish conducted an evening of Adoration for a gathering of 50 persons, mostly parents and children. Oh how our Lord was pleased with the evening of Adoration! Thank you, Leanna Pipala, Mary Rose, Tiffany and Stephanie Chimento, Paula Vannest, Deacon Mark and Deacon Anthony, and the Oblate Sisters for your leadership.

I enjoyed a brief orientation meeting with Christopher and Michele Berardi concerning the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. We hope and pray for many blessings for our adults coming into the Catholic Faith in our parish.

The St. Vincent de Paul Society reached out to the area surrounding St. Anthony Church with clothing and food for the needy last Friday. There were 20 volunteers. Thank you Sandi Greco and Deacon Anthony for your leadership.

The St. Vincent de Paul held a similar outreach at Via Mt. Carmel and Watt Street on Saturday, with a response of 100 needy people. Thank you, Christopher Anthony, for your leadership.

With all this going on you lose track of time as you go along the WAY. . .

American Eucharistic Witnesses: A Priest for the Body of Christ—Venerable August Tolton (Part 2)

by Bishop Joseph N. Perry

THE FIRST BLACK PRIEST IN THE UNITED STATES

On July 25, 1886, Fr. Augustus Tolton was installed as pastor of St. Joseph's mission church carved out for the blacks in his hometown of Quincy, in the diocese of Alton. .

. . . [T]he new priest was highly respected by both the black community and the many white people who came to St. Joseph to hear his sermons and listen to his beautiful singing. At St. Joseph, blacks and whites worshipped side by side. . . . As his ministry grew . . . he himself became the victim of racial discrimination from among the clergy of the diocese. . . . Fr. Tolton contacted the Propaganda Fide, . . . wrote to Archbishop Patrick Feehan of Chicago and received an immediate response: there was an urgent need for his ministry among Chicago's black Catholics.

When Fr. Tolton arrived in Chicago, he was immediately appointed pastor of "Saint Augustine's Church"—which met in the basement of St. Mary's Parish—and was told his ministry would extend to all the blacks in Chicago. This would become Fr. Tolton's parish for life. From here the new pastor became, like Jesus, a unifying force, a priest who showed unflinching love of neighbor and pastoral charity to all despite the bigotry he himself received.

Tolton is remembered by the African American Catholic community as a beacon of perseverance, Christian faith in action, and racial reconciliation. He opened the doors of his parish and embraced in his ministry anyone who came, white or black, and he was resented for it. Bearing up under some of the harshest chastisements of life, disrespect, and hatred, his entire priesthood was mired in poverty, isolation, and self-doubt. This tremendous emotional strain eventually took its toll on his emotional and physical well-being. Tolton models for us how to turn to Jesus in the Eucharist when wrestling through fear, hurt, and disappointment, and how to have the courage to see the vicissitudes of life through the eyes of faith.

THE END OF A MINISTRY AND BEGINNING OF CANONIZATION

On a very hot day during the first week of July in 1897, Father Augustus, . . . America's first black priest died . . . from heat stroke. Tolton was just forty-three. . . . On June 12, 2019, Pope Francis authorized the promulgation of a Decree of Heroic Virtue for Fr. Augustus Tolton, giving him the title Venerable and advancing his cause of canonization. Venerable Augustus Tolton's Eucharistic witness continues to shine brightly today as a beacon of hope amid the perduring racial tension and strife in our own times. May he intercede for us so that we, too, can embrace the beautiful truth that "we, though many, are one body in Christ and individually parts of one another (Rom 12:5)."

 Luke 1:50

The U.S. Bishops have approved

Grandparents and Elderly to Sept. 10 to coincide with National Grandparents Day in the United States.

A plenary indulgence is available to all those who in the days immediately preceding or following the World Day visit an elderly person who is alone. The visit must be accompanied by the usual conditions for indulgences: reception of Holy Communion, Confession, praying for the Pope’s intentions, and rejecting sin.

Family Dinner & Eucharistic Adoration

What a beautiful Family Night of Adoration! We had 50 people of all ages join us! We began with a pizza supper, followed by a wonderful explanation of what Adoration is by Deacon Mark. Then we went up to the Basilica for the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament by Deacon Mark and Deacon Tony. The families prayed the rosary with Monsignor Cariglio and then we concluded with Benediction. What a beautiful expression of love for Jesus to see so many (especially the children) adoring Him! We will be having another Family Adoration Night in the coming months, so stay tuned.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness
and snares of the devil;
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;
And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan and all evil spirits
who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

THANK YOU

Last week at St. Anthony Church we held a food and clothing outreach to the beautiful people of our local neighborhood and surrounding community. We worked in a wonderful effort with the St. Vincent DePaul Society.

It was truly great to see the volunteers of our parish family of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel - St. Anthony of Padua pull together and with the grace of God, show God's love and compassion with those who are less fortunate. You truly showed the mission of our faith. You showed hope to those who may have lost it, you were the smile that they may have longed to see. If only you could have seen the faces of the children as they received clothing, food, and toys - yes, toys!

It is with great honor and respect that I graciously thank God, that He himself placed me here with all of you to help pull forward His mission on earth and to continue to build His kingdom here, and to the Society of St. Vincent De Paul. May God and St. Vincent bless you all abundantly and continue to guide you in assisting His people.

In God's love, Deacon Tony
