POPE FRANCIS' INTENTIONS

FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER:

For the Synod. We pray for the Church, that she may adopt listening and dialogue as a lifestyle at every level, and allow herself to be guided by the Holy Spirit towards the peripheries of the world.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

We pray for a growth in reverence for the gift and mystery of vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life and a readiness to give to God what is God's in response to His call.

Prayer for Radical Solidarity

O Blessed Mother, at the angel's word you went in haste to the aid of your cousin Elizabeth. Although pregnant yourself, you placed her needs before your own. In that first Eucharistic procession, you carried Jesus to Elizabeth in her time of need. Obtain for us the grace to bring Christ to any expectant mother who is alone and afraid.

MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

American Eucharistic Witnesses: Blessed Stanley Rother – The Shepherd Who Didn’t Run

By Maria Ruiz Scaperlanda

St. Stanley Rother: Woodcut Print by Corinne Miller

Born in a farmhouse on March 27, 1935, in the middle of a haunting Oklahoma dust storm during the Great Depression, Stanley was the oldest of four children. [He] attended Holy Trinity School from first to 12th grade in Okarche, a small German farming community northwest of Oklahoma City. . . . Everyone expected Stanley to follow his father into farming after high school graduation, but . . . instead, he entered the seminary for the then-Diocese of Oklahoma City and Tulsa. . . . Five years after his ordination on May 25, 1963, Father Stanley volunteered for the Catholic Mission of Oklahoma in Santiago Atitlán, Guatemala. It was there . . . that he ultimately became a living sacrifice in imitation of Christ the Good Shepherd, pouring out his own blood in martyrdom for his flock on July 28, 1981. In December of 2016, Pope Francis officially recognized Father Stanley Rother’s martyrdom, making him the first American-born martyr and the first priest born in the United States to be declared “Blessed” on September 23, 2017.

The Shepherd

Watching Father Stanley make his way on foot around Santiago Atitlán was very much “like the stories in the Bible about Jesus,” remembered a mission volunteer, with people trying to touch him and a trail of giggling children following him and grabbing his hands. . . . He was the only one of the 12-member missionary team to become fluent in the Tz’utujil language. He celebrated Mass for his parishioners in their own language . . . Early on, he established the tradition of weekly home visits, where he blessed their simple dirt-floor dwellings and shared a meal—each time emphasizing his desire to be served the same food they ate. “[He] was one of our own. He ate what the people ate. If they ate weeds, he ate weeds. If they ate fish, he ate fish. He got sick lots of times,” exclaimed Cristóbal Coché. In a letter to his sister, . . . Father Stanley described these shared moments, which for him were truly Eucharistic: “It is quite satisfying and revealing: satisfying for the contact and interest, and revealing as to the poverty that exists so close to us here and the great faith and spirit they manifest. Maybe it does me more good than it does them.” . . .

For Reno’s Bishop Daniel Mueggenborg (when he was still a college student), a chance encounter with Fr. Rother was life-altering. He had been asked to be an altar server for his aunt and uncle’s 50th wedding anniversary Mass in Oklahoma, to which he reluctantly agreed. “In March of 1981, I was in the sacristy and a priest walked in whom I had never met before. He had a spiritual presence about him which I had never before experienced. . . . I could sense the peace, joy, and love which filled him. Throughout that Mass, I kept wondering why he had the qualities I so desperately wanted. It was in serving that Mass that I decided to be open to becoming a priest. . . . If I was going to be a priest, then I wanted to be a priest like him.”

The Martyr of Charity

Once Guatemala’s bloody civil war found its way to the villages surrounding beautiful Lake Atitlán, Father Stanley began to regularly walk the roads looking for bodies of the dead. . . . to bring them home for proper burial. “Since the first of May 1980,” Father Stanley wrote in a letter to his superior, Oklahoma City’s Archbishop Charles Salatka, “there have been four priests killed here in the Country. . . . we don’t know when or what form the government will use to further repress the Church. . . . If I get a direct threat or am told to leave, then I will go. But if it is my destiny that I should give my life here, then so be it.” . . .

In his final Christmas letter from the Guatemala mission . . . Fr. Stanley concluded, “The shepherd cannot run at the first sign of danger. Pray for us that we may be a sign of the love of Christ for our people, that our presence among them will fortify them to endure these sufferings in preparation for the coming of the Kingdom.” At 1:30 a.m., on July 28, 1981, three masked men broke into the rectory, found and beat Father Stanley, shooting him twice in the head. Fr. Stanley’s body was returned for burial to his hometown of Okarche in western Oklahoma, but his heart and blood are entombed in the altar at the Santiago Atitlán church, a request of his Tz’utujil community. . . .

If anyone can model this call to holiness in the midst of our very ordinary lives, it is the farmer from Okarche. He would say that it all begins with our willingness to say “yes” to whatever—and whomever—God has placed in front of us.

Misleading Facts About Issue 1

The Catholic Church supports and defends women, children, and vulnerable Ohioans through accompaniment, social services, and material assistance. A misleading amendment on the ballot this November suggests that a “right to an abortion” is needed to protect women and children, while the amendment would actually put women at risk and endanger preborn children.

Catholics must Vote NO on Issue 1 to reject this misleading amendment because...

- Miscarriage care and ectopic pregnancy treatments are already protected by state law; generations of women’s healthcare in Catholic hospitals prove that our society can protect women without enshrining a “right to abortion” in our constitution.

As Catholics, we follow a Savior who is “the Way, the Truth, and the Life.” Catholics, therefore, must reject Issue 1 because it is NOT the way to protect women and children, it does NOT represent the truth about miscarriage care and ectopic pregnancy treatment, and it does NOT respect the dignity of human life.

Your vote is needed to save Ohio from this extreme amendment.

The Truth is in the Details

It is easy to get lost (or walk away with a false conclusion) when engaging in legal or constitutional language. This November’s proposed constitutional amendment, Issue 1, is no exception. Although Issue 1 may seem balanced and just on the surface, a thorough analysis reveals the harrowing reality this amendment would unleash in the State of Ohio if passed.

WHERE DOES IT SAY THAT?

THIS CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT...

THREATENS PARENTAL RIGHTS

By using “individual” instead of adult or woman, anyone under the age of 18 could have an abortion or make any other reproductive decision without their parents’ consent or notification.

PUTS WOMEN AT RISK

Current Ohio laws* require abortion providers to explain procedure risks and ensure access to hospital transfer if needed. These health and safety standards could be seen as a “burden” and be eliminated, making it even less safe for women seeking an abortion.

ALLOWS ABORTIONS THROUGH 9 MONTHS OF PREGNANCY

In U.S. law, “health” includes age or physical, emotional, or psychological well-being. This means a woman’s age or emotional health could be cited to justify aborting a full-term baby. An abortion-providing physician would decide when a baby could survive outside the womb, leaving no clear protections for preborn children.

IS MISLEADING

Referring to “miscarriage care” promotes a myth that a “right to abortion” is necessary to preserve care for miscarriages and ectopic pregnancies. This is false. Catholic hospitals have always provided comprehensive miscarriage care and will continue to do so regardless of the outcome of this vote.

ARTICLE I, SECTION 22

The Right to Reproductive Freedom with Protections for Health and Safety

1. Every individual has a right to make and carry out one’s own reproductive decisions, including but not limited to decisions on contraception, fertility treatment, continuing one’s own pregnancy, miscarriage care, and abortion.
2. The State shall not, directly or indirectly, burden, penalize, prohibit, interfere with, or discriminate against either an individual’s voluntary exercise of this right or a person or entity that assists an individual exercising this right, unless the State demonstrates that it is using the least restrictive means to advance the individual’s health in accordance with widely accepted and evidence-based standards of care.
3. However, abortion may be prohibited after fetal viability. But in no case may such an abortion be prohibited if in the professional judgment of the pregnant patient’s treating physician it is necessary to protect the pregnant patient’s life or health.
4. As used in this Section, “Fetal viability” means “the point in a pregnancy when, in the professional judgment of the pregnant patient’s treating physician, the fetus has a significant likelihood of survival outside the uterus with reasonable measures. This is determined on a case-by-case basis”; and “State” includes any governmental entity and political subdivision.
5. This Section is self-executing.
