POPE FRANCIS' INTENTIONS
FOR THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER:
For the Pope. We pray for the Holy Father; as he fulfills his mission, may he continue to accompany the flock entrusted to him, with the help of the Holy Spirit.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:
 We pray that those called to serve the Lord and His people as priests, and in the consecrated life will stay awake and aware of God, who called them.

Please Pray for Vocations

"Behind and before every vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life there is always strong and intense prayer from someone: a grandmother, a grandfather, a mother, a father, a community. ... Vocations are born in prayer and from prayer; and only through prayer can they persevere and bear fruit."
 Pope Francis

MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Along the WAY

Recently, at the Sacred Heart side altar of the Basilica, I placed four flags, representing the war between Russia and the Ukraine, and the war between Israel and Palestine. As we the Church prays for peace in our world.

Of course one may be quick to point out that there are many other countries currently at war or in conflict, such as Afghanistan, Syria, Yemen, Libya, Sudan, Nigeria, Somalia, Ghana, Cameroon, and Togo, not to mention the drug wars in Colombia and Mexico. Be mindful that this is a very highly developed world today, with technology and all sorts of advanced development. Why these wars and these conflicts? It makes no sense.

Mary Queen of the Holy Rosary, Queen of Peace, pray for us, your children, as we go along the way.

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

How Parents Can Foster Vocations

Imagine asking your son what he wants to be when he grows up, and he answers, “I want to be a priest!” What would your reaction be? Would you be worried or elated—or somewhere in between? The truth is that God has a plan for each of your children; he wants them to be happy even more than you do! And their true happiness is found in discovering God’s plan for their lives—their vocation—and following it wholeheartedly. It makes sense to help them discern their vocations, whether to marriage, priesthood, or religious life. Here are some simple ways to foster openness to God’s call.

1. Snuggle up and read a story. Sometimes the simplest ideas are best! Add some books about famous saints to your bedtime reading. There are dozens of fascinating, age-appropriate stories of saints who were priests and religious. There’s even a comic book about St. John Paul II as a child!

2. Watch a better movie. When it’s time for family movie night, take a pass on Spy Kids 4 and check out A Mission to Love (the life of St. John Bosco). There are tons of other Catholic films that depict heroic and interesting priests and religious. The conversation afterwards is far more meaningful than which explosion was the biggest!

3. Set the record straight. Media depictions of dating and sexuality are often opposed to authentic love. So when a TV show sends the wrong message, set the record straight about what leads to real happiness. Especially around teens, defend the sacrament of marriage.

4. Play dress up! Just as children “play house” and pretend to be moms and dads, help them imagine the life of a priest, brother, or sister. A sheet or towel can serve as a sister’s habit. A Ritz cracker makes a good host for Mass. This kind of play normalizes what can otherwise seem to be an “other-worldly” vocation. Plus it’s a lot of fun!

5. Pray from the heart. In your family prayers, pray for more priests and religious. Let your kids hear you praying for their futures. “Lord, watch over Simon today and give him the grace to grow up to be a strong man of God. Keep him close to You, always in Your perfect will.”

6. Talk about vocations. Speak openly about vocations to marriage, priesthood, and religious life. From the earliest age, make it clear that happiness in life is following God’s plan. Tell kids that priests have an awesome job because they bring us the sacraments. Teach them that religious brothers and sisters make special vows to live like Jesus.

7. Befriend priests & religious. Invite a priest, sister, or brother to dinner at your home. Personal relationships are key. When kids are comfortable around Fr. John or Sister Margaret, they’re far more likely to be comfortable with the idea of a priestly or religious vocation when they grow older.

An Open Attitude If your child expresses interest in the priesthood or religious life, be supportive. If you’re excited, don’t push too hard. If you’re apprehensive, trust in God’s plan. The best thing you can say is, “Whatever God wants for you, I want for you, too.”

Celebration of All Saints Day

All Saints Day is a solemn holy day of the Catholic Church celebrated annually on November 1st. A special thank you to the children in our parish who dressed as Saints during our 7pm Mass (listed in no particular order): Vinny Amis (St. Michael the Archangel), Sophia Wolf (St. Therese of the Little Flower), Joey Carrabbia (St. Padre Pio), Amelia Carrabbia (Blessed Mother Mary), Ava Carrabbia (St. Clare of Assisi), Emma Carrabbia (St. Lucy), Vinny Carrabbia (St. George), Paul Cross (St. Francis of Assisi), Milo McCormick (St. Patrick), Emmett Myers (St. Benedict).

“YOUR COMMITMENT TO THE ALTAR IS . . . A GREAT HONOR, A GENUINE HOLY SERVICE. . . YOU ARE MUCH MORE THAN SIMPLE ‘HELPERS OF THE PARISH PRIEST.’ ABOVE ALL, YOU ARE SERVERS OF JESUS CHRIST.” - POPE ST. JOHN PAUL II

New Altar Server Opportunities

We would like to extend an invitation to all current 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th graders who are not already involved in this ministry, to consider becoming an Altar Server at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica and St. Anthony’s. The ministry of Altar Server is an important ministry and part of our regular celebration of the Eucharist. In addition to serving at the weekend liturgies, altar servers assist at weddings and funerals as well as at other liturgical celebrations throughout the year.

If you are interested, please contact Leanna Pipala at 330-743-3508 or email at OLMCReligiousEdOffice@gmail.com to sign up for the training.

No matter the type of service to which we are called, our effectiveness is only enhanced when we cultivate a deep love for Jesus in the Eucharist, where our Christian witness becomes nourished and thus is made more powerfully able to affirm the dignity and worth of each person we encounter.

- Kimberly Baker, Our Sunday Visitor

St. Anthony Church
Christmas Service Project 2023

This year we will, again, have an Angel Tree in the back of St. Anthony Church for our 2023 Christmas Service Project. The “angels” on the tree will have Christmas wish lists from the children attending St. Joseph the Provider School. With the success of this project, we can be angels for the students that they entrust to us and ensure for them a very special Christmas morning. We will have the tree up before Thanksgiving which should give us enough time to choose our angels and purchase some special items.

If you take an angel, please be sure to sign the log (on the clip board). It is very important that you record your name, phone number, and the number of the angel which is listed on the bottom of the angel card. This enables us to make sure no angel is left out. More instructions and deadlines will follow.
