MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Along the WAY

This past week brought some family excitement as I celebrated my niece, Alison Cariglio’s wedding to Christopher Cocco in Lorain, Ohio, on November 11. Alison is the daughter of my brother Larry and his wife Michelina. The wedding Mass took place at the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish in Lorain. It was a genuine honor to celebrate the Nuptial Mass and receive their wedding vows, especially since I baptized her as an infant here at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica. The groom’s family from Lorain were very friendly and very Italian. The event was both festive and prayerful. The rehearsal dinner, the wedding banquet at Oberlin, and the Sunday brunch were all in good taste and fit the dignity of the Sacrament of Marriage. God’s choicest blessings on them and God willing, their future family. Auguri con un calice pieno di felicità, pace e l’amore.

Meanwhile, Fr. Dennis Veltri, with Deacons Mark and Anthony, celebrated the Nuptial Mass of Gina Aiello and Thomas Karcher here at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica. It was for the newlyweds an awesome and beautiful Indian Summer day as we go along the way.

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

Interesting Facts About St. Gertrude the Great

On November 16, the Church celebrated the feast of St. Gertrude the Great, a Benedictine nun whose great love for the Holy Souls in Purgatory and devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus has helped earn her the title of “the Great.” . . .

Gertrude was born in Eisleben, Germany on the Feast of the Epiphany in 1256 . . . during the same time as many of the great saints including St. Thomas Aquinas, St. Francis of Assisi, and St. Dominic. . . . She may have been a child oblate to the church, just as Hannah offered Samuel to the temple. She entered a monastery school in Saxony when she was five years old where she earned an impressive education and ultimately discerned to become a religious sister herself.

The new statue of St. Gertrude at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica

of her time. She admitted in her autobiography that often times, she allowed Christ to take a backseat as she harnessed her skills in philosophy, literature, singing and painting. It eventually led to her feeling lonely and depressed and called her intellectual pursuits a “tower of vanity and curiosity.” She refocused her priorities after a mystical encounter with Christ and began to focus on studying Scripture and theological works.

Gertrude was a mystic. She had many mystical experiences which she recorded in her journals. One was a series of visions of St. John on the night of the Last Supper. She laid her head on the breast of Christ and heard his most Sacred Heart beating and asked John why he didn’t record the experience in the Gospel. . . . Gertrude wrote extensively about the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Her writings helped spread the devotion throughout the Western world.

She wrote a prayer that when said, releases 1,000 souls from Purgatory. Gertrude had a great devotion to the Holy Souls in Purgatory, whom she frequently wrote about and the need for the living to pray for them. She wrote this prayer, which is especially fitting for the month of November: Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen.

Gertrude is the only female Saint to be called “the Great.” Pope Benedict XIV gave her the title to . . . acknowledge the depth of her writings and theological insight. . . . St. Gertrude died on November 16, 1302 and remains one of the most well-known saints in the West. St. Gertrude the Great, pray for us!

No matter the type of service to which we are called, our effectiveness is only enhanced when we cultivate a deep love for Jesus in the Eucharist, where our Christian witness becomes nourished and thus is made more powerfully able to affirm the dignity and worth of each person we encounter.

St. Anthony Church
Christmas Service Project 2023

This year we will, again, have an Angel Tree in the back of St. Anthony Church for our 2023 Christmas Service Project. The “angels” on the tree will have Christmas wish lists from the children attending St. Joseph the Provider School. With the success of this project, we can be angels for the students that they entrust to us and ensure for them a very special Christmas morning. We will have the tree up before Thanksgiving which should give us enough time to choose our angels and purchase some special items.

If you take an angel, please be sure to sign the log (on the clip board). It is very important that you record your name, phone number, and the number of the angel which is listed on the bottom of the angel card. This enables us to make sure no angel is left out. More instructions and deadlines will follow.
