Along the WAY

Thanksgiving Day remains a special day despite changing times for our families. Often it happens that members of the families who have drifted away for whatever reason come home. It amazes me what a day off work, stuffed turkey, cranberry sauce, pumpkin pie, football, and Macy’s Parade can do. Like the pilgrims we have a lot to thank God for. Though the moral problems of war, abortion, poverty, hunger, and violence nervously surround us, let us never forget to give thanks for the blessings we receive from the Lord and Our Blessed Mother.

May everyday for you be a day of Thanksgiving as you go along the Way. . .

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

Christ the King Is Lord of the Living and the Dead

By Fr. Joe Laramie, S.J.

“When I look at the Eucharist, I think about my parents. And I believe that they are adoring him, face to face, in heaven. I never feel closer to them than when I’m adoring him.”

An older Jesuit said these words during a retreat at White House Jesuit Retreat in St. Louis. It was shortly before Benediction, and I was helping him with the candles and incense. Fr. Jim is in his upper 80s. I imagine that he will reach heaven before me, since he is both older than I and holier!

I often think about Fr. Jim’s words when I’m celebrating Mass. Sometimes when I hold up the Host, I recall my own deceased grandparents and great-grandparents. In faith, I pray that they, too, are gazing upon the Lord in adoration.

For Catholics, our faithful departed relatives are never far from us, especially in the Eucharist. As priests, we are asked to celebrate funeral liturgies and memorial Masses on the anniversary of someone’s death. November is a special month when we honor the dead and pray for them. We’re all encouraged to visit cemeteries. Many parishes display images of deceased relatives near the altar. Mexicans observe el Día de los Muertos: the Day of the Dead. It’s a celebration, a time of gratitude, and a prayer. “Lord, for your faithful people, life is changed, not ended” (Preface I, Mass for the Dead).

When we gaze at Christ in the Eucharist, we know that he gazes back at us with great love. We also know that the saints adore him face to face. When I pray the Roman Canon (Eucharistic Prayer I), I recite the names of many saints: “Peter and Paul... Linus, Cletus, Clement... Felicity, Perpetua, Agatha, Lucy.” I envision them surrounding the altar as I preside, joining their voices and prayers with mine. With the Church in heaven, the Church on earth sings to the Lamb: “Holy, holy, holy Lord!”

This month, let us feel close to our family members who have gone before us. At Mass, we pray, we trust, and we hope that they, too, gaze upon our Lord in adoration. “Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.”

Fr. Joe Laramie, S.J. is the National Director of the Apostleship of Prayer. He serves as a National Eucharistic Preacher and the author of two books on the Sacred Heart. This article was taken from an email sent by Sister Alice Torres promoting the National Eucharistic Revival to office@olmcsta.com on November 16, 2023.

St. Anthony Bread for the Needy & St. Vincent de Paul Combined Collection

Since the St. Vincent de Paul Conference was established at our parish we have helped thousands of individuals and families with their utilities, medical bills, prescriptions, funeral assistance, groceries, assistance with Christmas gifts for needy families, etc. In addition, we help fund the Advent Goody Gift Bags, and for Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter, we mail 40-50 Rulli Bros. gift cards to friends in need. Individuals or families in need are referred to the Food Pantry where they receive a generous box of food. The boxes are $30 each and we cover the cost, averaging between $300-$500/month. Along with our wonderful parishioners, the Society makes gift baskets that are brought to the altar on Sundays and then distributed at the Food Pantry. These baskets are truly appreciated by the people who receive them.

At the Council level, we help monetarily with fundraisers, like the Sock and Underwear Drive and Oktoberfest. We also pay dues to the National St. Vincent de Paul Society.

This list is lengthy and it could never be done without your generosity. I am your instrument and YOU are all the backbone of our Conference. God bless you for your continued generosity and care!

If you have any questions, please call the parish office with your information, which will be forwarded to me so I can call you.

ANGEL TREE
 Christmas Service Project 2023

Our Angel Tree is now up at the back of the church. The “angels” on the tree have Christmas wish lists of children from St. Joseph the Provider School. Please help us make this service project a success by choosing an “angel”, granting them some wishes, and therefore, ensuring them a very special Christmas morning.

Important Instructions for Those Taking Angels

Please be sure to sign the log (on the clip board) after taking an angel. It is very important that you record your name, phone number, and the number of the angel which is listed on the bottom of the angel card. This enables us to make sure no angel is left out. Bring your gift(s) to mass by Friday, December 15. You may wrap the gifts or just bring them in, and we will wrap them for you. However, please be sure to return the angel information card with the gifts so that we get them to the right child. It is also a good idea to include a gift receipt in case of an exchange. Finally, remember to keep the ornament as a thank you gift for helping make this service project a success.
