"Today the Magi gaze in deep wonder at what they see: heaven on earth, earth in heaven, man in God, God in man, one whom the whole universe cannot contain now enclosed in a tiny body. As they look, they believe and do not question, as their symbolic gifts bear witness: incense for God, gold for a king, myrrh for one who is to die.."

ST. PETER CHRYSOLOGUS

MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Along the WAY

With the ushering of the New Year 2024, the year of Our Lord, we look forward more than backward. Today, we are celebrating the Epiphany of the Lord. In this New Year, may the gifts of the Three Kings, gold for the divinity of Christ, frankincense for our prayer life to the Lord, and myrrh as a burial ointment that points to His great sacrifice of the cross on Good Friday be a reminder to each of us of how we are called to live each day of our lives.

May your New Year be marked everyday by Adoration as the gold symbolizes. And everyday by prayer as the frankincense symbolizes. And everyday by sacrifice, as the myrrh points to the great sacrifice of Christ.

May your days this year be filled with His saving grace, through the intercession of the Blessed Mother and St. Anthony, as we go along the Way.

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

Excerpts from the Homily of Pope Francis on the Solemnity of the Epiphany Wednesday, 6 January 2021

The Evangelist Matthew tells us that the Magi, when they came to Bethlehem, “saw the child with Mary his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him” (Mt 2:11). . . .

In our day, it is particularly necessary for us, both as individuals and as communities, to devote more time to worship. We need to learn ever better how to contemplate the Lord. We have somewhat lost the meaning of the prayer of adoration, so we must take it up again, both in our communities and in our own spiritual life. Today, then, let us learn a few useful lessons from the Magi. Like them, we want to fall down and worship the Lord. To worship him seriously, not as Herod said: “Let me know where the place is and I will go to worship him”. No, that worship is not good. Ours must be serious!

The Liturgy of the Word offers us three phrases that can help us to understand more fully what it means to be worshipers of the Lord. They are: “to lift up our eyes”, “to set out on a journey” and “to see”. These three phrases can help us to understand what it means to be a worshiper of the Lord.

The first phrase, to lift up our eyes, comes to us from the prophet Isaiah. To the community of Jerusalem, recently returned from exile and disheartened by great challenges and hardships, the prophet addresses these powerful words of encouragement: “Lift up your eyes and look around” (60:4). He urges them to lay aside their weariness and complaints, to escape the bottleneck of a narrow way of seeing things, to cast off the dictatorship of the self, the constant temptation to withdraw into ourselves and our own concerns. . . . This way of seeing things, which despite everything continues to trust in the Lord, gives rise to filial gratitude. When this happens, our hearts become open to worship.

The second helpful phrase is to set out on a journey. . . . A journey always involves a transformation, a change. . . . Like the Magi, we too must allow ourselves to learn from the journey of life. . . . We cannot let our weariness, our falls and our failings discourage us. Instead, by humbly acknowledging them, we should make them opportunities to progress towards the Lord Jesus. Life is not about showing off our abilities, but a journey towards the One who loves us. . . .

And so we come to the third phrase: to see. To lift up our eyes; to set out on a journey; to see. The Evangelist tells us that, “going into the house they saw the child with Mary, his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him” (Mt 2:10-11). . . . The Magi worshiped the One they knew was the king of the Jews (cf. Mt 2:2). But what did they actually see? They saw a poor child and his mother. Yet these wise men from far-off lands were able to look beyond those lowly surroundings and recognize in that Child a royal presence. They were able to “see” beyond appearances. Falling to their knees before the Babe of Bethlehem, they expressed a worship that was above all interior: the opening of the treasures they had brought as gifts symbolized the offering of their own hearts.

To worship the Lord we need to “see” beyond the veil of things visible, which often prove deceptive. . . . With Saint Paul, then, let us “look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen; for the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal” (2 Cor 4:18).

May the Lord Jesus make us true worshipers, capable of showing by our lives his loving plan for all humanity. Let us ask for the grace for each of us and for the whole Church, to learn to worship, to continue to worship, to exercise this prayer of adoration often, because only God is to be adored.

Notice the order of events in the Magi's visit. First, they knelt before Jesus and prayed to Him. Then they presented Him with their gifts. We, too, must take time to pray before we present our gifts to the Lord. We never know what God may be asking us to share!

Funeral Mass Traditions

The Catholic Church has many beautiful traditions that have developed over the centuries. Our Lady of Mt. Carmel - St. Anthony of Padua Parish seeks to preserve and utilize many of these wonderful customs and traditions. One of these traditions is the optional use of Black Vestments for All Soul's Day, Funeral Masses, and Masses for the Dead. The parish is making available the option of using either White, Purple, or Black Vestments upon request for Funeral Masses and Masses for the Dead. Black Vestments are a wonderful way to remember our mortality and imperfection, while we mourn the loss of loved ones. In fact, this is why wearing black to funerals by the laity is traditionally commonplace in Europe and the United States. Similarly, the Black Vestments remind us to pray for our loved ones, that they may rest in peace.

"OFFER JESUS YOUR HANDS, YOUR THOUGHTS AND YOUR TIME AND HE WILL NOT FAIL TO REWARD YOU, GIVING YOU TRUE JOY AND MAKING YOU FEEL WHERE THE MOST COMPLETE HAPPINESS." - POPE FRANCIS TO ALTAR SERVERS
