MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Parish Council, May 14, 2019

Along the WAY

I write to you on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, January 8, 2024, the very last day of the Christmas Season in the Liturgical Calendar. This Feast celebrates another great Revelation of who Jesus is with the words that came from Heaven when John the Baptist baptized Jesus in the Jordan River: “This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased.”

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica and St. Anthony Church were both decorated with a beautiful sense of the sacred for the awesome birth of our Savior. I thank all of the staff and the numerous volunteers who carried out their various projects carefully and meticulously, both inside the churches and outside, making a powerful statement of the True Faith we profess. Our world today tends to forget the sacred, which is an essential part of life.

A million thank you notes are not enough!!! As we go along the Way. . .

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

“Christians Ought to Recognize God in Everything”

Excerpts from a Letter by Blaise Pascal

If God disclosed himself continually to men, there would be no merit in believing him; and if he never disclosed himself, there would be little faith. . . He remained concealed under the veil of the nature that covers him till the Incarnation; and when it was necessary that he should appear, he concealed himself still the more in covering himself with humanity. He was much more recognizable when he was invisible than when he rendered himself visible. And finally, when he wished to fulfill the promise that he made to his apostles to remain with men until his final coming, he chose to remain in the strangest and most obscure secret of all, which are the species of the Eucharist. It is this sacrament that St. John calls in Revelation “a concealed manner”; and I believe that Isaiah saw it in that state, when he said in the spirit of prophecy: “Truly thou art a God concealed.” . . . The heretics, seeing the perfect appearances of bread in the Eucharist, do not think to see in it another substance. All things cover some mystery; all things have veils that cover God. Christians ought to recognize him in everything. Temporal afflictions cover eternal goods to which they lead. Temporal joys cover eternal ills that they cause. Let us pray God to make us recognize and serve him in everything; let us give him countless thanks that, having concealed himself in all things for others, he has disclosed himself in all things and in so many ways for us.

Blaise Pascal. “Letter.” The Holy Hour, ed. Matthew Becklo (Word on Fire Catholic Ministries, 2020), 50-51.

Congratulations to Apolena Jean Monaco, daughter of Nicholas and Jenna Monaco, who was baptized on December 27, 2023 at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica.

"Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, 'What are you looking for?'"

JOHN 1:38

When we recognize who we are, it's easier to find what we are looking for. Once we see ourselves, and others, as children of God, we spend less time looking for the material comforts of the world. Instead, our hearts long for something deeper that can only be filled by God. Ask God daily how He wants you to live the life He intended for you.
