MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Items in the Vestibule

The parish office is responsible for the stewardship of the Basilica’s Vestibule. Before placing anything in the Vestibule to give away, it should first be approved by someone in the office.

Along the WAY

I have often found in daily life that we must ask ourselves constantly what are our motives for doing what we do. For example, in working for or even volunteering for the Church, we do well to ask ourselves frequently what are our ultimate motives? Without a doubt it should be for the honor and glory of God, for the love that we have for our Lord, the Blessed Mother, and the Saints. You would agree, I’m sure.

We must always guard ourselves against doing something without the above motive, otherwise it can be just out of self interest. Sometimes people say I do this for my pastor, sometimes priests say, I do this for my Bishop. We are human, of course, but we must really look at achieving the primary motives, without which all other motives would be empty. Let us look at it this way: whatever we do, let us do it to primarily please God, our Lord, the Blessed Mother and the Saints. What do you think? Should it not be this way for all of us, without exception, as we go along the Way?

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

Excerpts from Pope Francis’ Message for the XXXII World Day of the Sick 11 February 2024

“It is not good that man should be alone.” Healing the Sick by Healing Relationships

... “It is not good for man to be alone!” God spoke those words at the beginning of creation and thus revealed to us the profound meaning of his project for humanity, but at the same time, the mortal wound of sin, which creeps in by generating suspicions, fractures, divisions and consequently isolation. ... Such isolation causes us to miss the meaning of our lives; it takes away the joy of love and makes us experience an oppressive sense of being alone at all the crucial passages of life.

Brothers and sisters, the first form of care needed in any illness is compassionate and loving closeness. To care for the sick thus means above all to care for their relationships, all of them: with God, with others – family members, friends, healthcare workers – , with creation and with themselves. Can this be done? Yes, it can be done and all of us are called to ensure that it happens. Let us look to the icon of the Good Samaritan (cf. Lk 10:25-37), to his ability to slow down and draw near to another person, to the tender love with which he cares for the wounds of a suffering brother.

Let us remember this central truth in life: we came into the world because someone welcomed us; we were made for love; and we are called to communion and fraternity. This aspect of our lives is what sustains us, above all at times of illness and vulnerability. It is also the first therapy that we must all adopt in order to heal the diseases of the society in which we live.

To those of you who experience illness, whether temporary or chronic, I would say this: Do not be ashamed of your longing for closeness and tenderness! Do not conceal it, and never think that you are a burden on others. The condition of the sick urges all of us to step back from the hectic pace of our lives in order to rediscover ourselves. ...

We Christians in particular are called to adopt the compassion-filled gaze of Jesus. Let us care for those who suffer and are alone, perhaps marginalized and cast aside. With the love for one another that Christ the Lord bestows on us in prayer, especially in the Eucharist, let us tend the wounds of solitude and isolation. In this way, we will cooperate in combating the culture of individualism, indifference and waste, and enable the growth of a culture of tenderness and compassion.

The sick, the vulnerable and the poor are at the heart of the Church; they must also be at the heart of our human concern and pastoral attention. May we never forget this! And let us commend ourselves to Mary Most Holy, Health of the Sick, that she may intercede for us and help us to be artisans of closeness and fraternal relationships.

"Your participation as an Altar Server is special. When you serve the priests and deacons, you serve the people of God, and above all, you serve Christ."
Pope Benedict XVI

New Altar Server Opportunities

We would like to extend an invitation to all current 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th graders who are not already involved in this ministry, to consider becoming an Altar Server at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica and St. Anthony's. The ministry of Altar Server is an important ministry and part of our regular celebration of the Eucharist. In addition to serving at the weekend liturgies, altar servers assist at weddings and funerals as well as at other liturgical celebrations throughout the year.

If you are interested, please contact Leanna Pipala at 330-743-3508 or email at OLMCReligiousEdOffice@gmail.com to sign up for the training.

"Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed. . . He told them, 'Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come.'"

MARK 1:35, 38

In today's Gospel reading we see a perfect example of stewardship. Jesus gives His time to do all that God wishes - healing the sick and preaching. But before He begins, Jesus takes time to be alone with God in prayer. It is through prayer, spending time with God, that we are given the graces needed to do what He wishes us to do. Praying before acting is a great habit to develop.

Gift Baskets for the Needy

As part of our parish's regular outreach to the poor in our community, gift baskets consisting of special items or cleaning supplies, valued at $10-$20, are offered first at our altar on Sunday, then given out at the SSVP Food Pantry throughout the week. Parishioners are welcome to contribute a basket. Phone the Parish Office for more information.

Visits to Parishioners in the Hospital, Nursing Homes, and the Homebound

The Visitation of Mary Society meets the Sacramental and spiritual needs of our sick and homebound parishioners. If a member of your family would like to receive visits and have Holy Communion brought to them, please call the Parish Office to make arrangements.

Phone the Parish Office at 330-743-4144

Please remember that the hospitals are no longer informing us when our parishioners are admitted. It is now up to the individual or family to inform the parish.

2021 Synod 2024
For a synodal Church

Recently, all the dioceses in the United States have been asked to participate in a second round of listening sessions that will contribute to the preparation for the October 2024 Synod Assembly in Rome.

This round of listening sessions focuses on two questions:

1. Where have I seen or experienced successes and distresses within the Church's structure(s)/ organizations/leadership/life that encourages or hinders the mission?
2. How can the structure and organization of the Church help all the baptized to respond to the call to proclaim the Gospel and to live as a community of love and mercy in Christ?

How would you answer these questions? Let Msgr. Cariglio know by emailing office@olmcsta.com with your responses before Ash Wednesday, February 14, or submitting a written response, mailed to Msgr. Cariglio's attention c/o Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica, 343 via Mt. Carmel, Youngstown, OH 44505.

Love Beyond Words

One-Week Retreat for Married Couples
National Marriage Week 2024

Love reaches beyond words, yet it also starts with words. On Day One, you'll reflect on the nature of words made flesh: just as Jesus embodies this truth in His incarnation, so is marriage an incarnate love. Days Two through Six dive deep into the promises expressed in your marriage vows, looking at ways the words of these promises can be fully lived out in your daily life. Finally, Day Seven invites you to appraise your communication habits as a couple, knowing that love does require countless exchanges of words and offering a productive path forward. Each day concludes with questions for deeper discussion and a prayer for your marriage. Taken from the Prelude to the Retreat, USCCB.

Scan the QR Code, visit <https://www.usccb.org/resources/national-marriage-week-2024-home-marriage-retreat> or contact the Parish Office for a copy of the retreat.

PRAYER FOR MARRIED COUPLES

Almighty and eternal God, You blessed the union of married couples so that they might reflect the union of Christ with his Church: Look with kindness on them. Renew their marriage covenant, increase your love in them, and strengthen their bond of peace so that, with their children, they may always rejoice in the gift of your blessing.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
