O Lord, Master of my life, grant that I may not be infected with the spirit of slothfulness and faintheartedness, with the spirit of ambition and vain talking.

Prostration

Grant instead to me, your servant, the spirit of purity and humility, the spirit of patience and love. Prostration

O Lord and King, bestow on me the grace of being aware of my sins and of not judging my brother. For you are blessed forever and ever. Amen. Stand

Along the WAY

You may agree with me that we live in a very noisy, very busy, busy world - to the extent that we forget the essential importance of correctly preparing our heart, mind, and soul with the value of silence and personal prayer. It is not unusual that we rush to Mass and get there only at the last minute. It is not unusual that upon entrance to the church there is a tendency to make noise. Instead of preparing ourselves with personal and silent prayer for the offering of the Sacred Mysteries, we instead busy ourselves by socializing and engaging in conversations with our brothers and sisters in Christ that could well be made after the celebration of the Mass. I suggest as pastor, that we make a much greater effort to cultivate quiet and silence in preparing for Sunday Mass as we kneel or sit and recall in faith the Sacred Mysteries that we are about to enter into and celebrate. I think this is very important for us all as we go along the Way. .

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

Prepare Yourself for the Encounter with the Lord Excerpts from Pope Francis’ General Audience, November 15, 2017

. . . What truly is prayer? It is first of all a dialogue, a personal relationship with God. Man was created as a being in a personal relationship with God who finds his complete fulfillment only in the encounter with his Creator. The path of life leads toward the definitive encounter with the Lord.

The Book of Genesis states that man was created in the image and likeness of God, who is the Father and Son and Holy Spirit, a perfect relationship of love which is unity. From this we can understand that we were all created in order to enter a perfect relationship of love, in the continuous giving and receiving of ourselves so as to be able to find the fulfillment of our being. . . . [W]hen Christ calls his disciples, he, too, calls them so that they may be with Him. This indeed is the greatest grace: being able to feel that the Mass, the Eucharist, is the privileged moment to be with Jesus and, through him, with God and with brothers and sisters.

Praying, as every true dialogue, is also knowing how to be in silence — in dialogues there are moments of silence — in silence together with Jesus. When we go to Mass, perhaps we arrive five minutes early and begin to chat with the person next to us. But this is not the moment for small talk; it is the moment of silence to prepare ourselves for the dialogue. It is the moment for recollection within the heart, to prepare ourselves for the encounter with Jesus. Silence is so important! . . . [W]e are not going to a spectacle, we are going to the encounter with the Lord, and silence prepares us and accompanies us. Pausing in silence with Jesus. From this mysterious silence of God springs his Word which resonates in our heart. Jesus himself teaches us how it is truly possible to “be” with the Father and he shows us this with his prayer. The Gospels show us Jesus who withdraws to secluded places to pray; seeing his intimate relationship with God, the disciples feel the desire to be able to take part in it, and they ask him: “Lord, teach us to pray” (Lk 11:1). . . .

To enter the Kingdom of Heaven, it is necessary to become little, like children. In the sense that children know how to trust; they know that someone will take care of them, of what they will eat, of what they will wear and so on (cf. Mt 6:25-32). This is the first perspective: trust and confidence, as a child toward his parents; to know that God remembers you, takes care of you, of you, of me, of everyone. The second condition, too, is being precisely like children; it is to let ourselves be surprised. . . . Do we allow ourselves to be surprised by God who is always the God of surprises? Because the encounter with the Lord is always a living encounter. . . It is a living encounter, and we go to Mass, not to a museum. We go to a living encounter with the Lord. . . .

In truth, the Lord surprises us by showing us that he loves us even in our weaknesses. “Jesus Christ . . . is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world” (1 Jn 2:2). This gift, the source of true consolation . . . it is a gift that we are given through the Eucharist, that wedding feast at which the Bridegroom encounters our frailty. Can I say that when I receive communion during Mass, the Lord encounters my frailty? Yes! We can say so because this is true! The Lord encounters our frailty so as to lead us back to our first call: that of being in the image and likeness of God. This is the environment of the Eucharist. This is prayer.

Diocese of Youngstown ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

Caring for one another through our Ministries

Help us reach our parish goal of $81,000.00 by donating today

In today's Gospel, zeal for His Father's house consumes Jesus. He single-handedly drives out those who are making the Temple into a marketplace. The Jews asked, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" (John 2:18)

Jesus' reply is that He is God. He is going to rise from the dead! He holds the power over life, death, and all things. His zeal for his Father's house is one of many manifestations of who God is to the world. (God, apparently, likes a clean house!)

Zeal consumes Jesus for our parish. We are God's house. Each of us is a Temple of his Holy Spirit. The way we handle money matters to God. Our parish needs your help for our Annual Diocesan Appeal to succeed. Help us use the gifts he gives to beautify his house, adorning it with prayer and good works, and improve the lives of those entrusted to us. Jesus is zealous for us all to have the abundant life he offers—not a life suffocated by this world. Join us in living a better life—His life.

Zeal for your house will consume me.

—Psalm 69:9
