Lent is a time of truth. Christians, called by the Church to prayer, penance, fasting and self-sacrifice, place themselves before God and recognize themselves; they rediscover themselves.

ST. JOHN PAUL II

MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Along the WAY

For almost two decades, Dorina Canacci served Our Lady of Mt. Carmel as a housekeeper and cook. On March 2 at 10:30pm, at the age of 91, Christ called her from this life to eternal life. She was sleeping and the passing was peaceful. As her priest, she cared for me and I most certainly cared for her.

Born in Italy, Dorina came to Youngstown to live with her family in her adult years. In Italy, she had been engaged to marry, but it did not work out. She was a professional seamstress in Milan, working with professional fashion models. Here, she used that wonderful talent to generate income, and her work was impeccable. She was a dedicated member of the Church and when the housekeeper/cook position opened due to the retirement of Mary Faust, she expressed interest in the position. And what a cook she was! She always cooked Italian, and I would eat every morsel on the plate, which gave her great satisfaction. At times she would marvel and say, "I don't know where you put it, you eat everything!" The truth was that her cooking was always simply prepared but ever so tasty.

Her personality was very Italian and dynamic. She loved Our Lady of Mt. Carmel with a passion, and if something could be better for the parish, she did not hesitate in the least to tell me.

Among her many good friends was Graziella Giannini who also spoke fluent Italian. It was a joy to listen to them speak in their Italian about their authoritative opinions of the world today. Mamma mia!

She left this world a little more meaningful due to the way she cared for her extended family, friends, her Church. May the Lord and Our Lady of Mt. Carmel open wide for her the gates of Paradise. I certainly am most grateful to have known her as I have travelled along the Way. . .

Diocese of Youngstown ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

Caring for one another through our Ministries

Help us reach our parish goal of $81,000.00 by donating today

“WHOEVER LIVES
THE TRUTH COMES TO THE LIGHT.”

JOHN 3:21

Jesus says in today’s Gospel that “Whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God” (John 3:21).

Our parish wants to do everything in the light, so hungry souls can see Jesus living through us. Without His light, souls who need Jesus can’t see that He lives in our parish, in our tabernacle.

Already more than halfway through Lent, the Church bids us rejoice! Laetare Sunday is a day of light. Jesus gave purpose and power to human suffering. “In the Lord your labor is not in vain” (1 Corinthians 15:58). When you support our Annual Diocesan Appeal, you help your neighbors find His light in the darkness and hope when it’s needed most. May God be with you.
